A Kansas man now living in southwestern Missouri, when asked how he liked that country said: "A man once moved from Kansas to Colorado, then to Texas, then Arkansas, and from there to southwestern Missouri. Then he died and went to hades and the many changes were so gradual in the same direction all the time that he didn't notice it."—Smith Center Pioneer.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. STROUD, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by H. E. Grice.

An item clipped from the Guide Rock Signal published in last week's issue in regard to a rabbit chase near that place seems to have somewhat misrepresented the facts as "Red Cloud and vicinity" with their fast dogs was not represented. However we are authorized to say that "Red Cloud and vicinity" has some fast rabbit dogs that can beat anything in that line in the vicinity of Guide Rock for money, chalk or marbles. Now put up, shut up or make a date for a chase.

Consumption
 Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of
 of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.

 When a man loves sin he goes down; when he loves his wife he goes home; when he loves another man's wife he goes to the graveyard; when he loves gambling he goes broke, and when he loves a girl they both go crazy.—Smith Center Pioneer.

The Methodists have been talking of a new church building and the pastor asked the quarterly conference to act on the matter. The majority felt that with no positive assurance of crops it would be best to defer the matter. It will come up again later and we hope before another year they will have a new building for the old one is not worth fixing up.

In 1888 my wife went east and was attacked with rheumatism. She received no relief until she tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Since that time we have never been without it. We find it gives instant relief in cases of burns and scalds and is never failing for all rheumatic and neuralgia pains.—D. C. BRANT, Santa Ynez, Cal. For sale by H. E. Grice.

Rev. I. W. Edson who was out in Oak Creek township on Wednesday reports a runaway the outcome of which was nothing less than miraculous. The two sons of W. J. Wright were in a field plowing in the same direction one team being a short distance ahead of the other when the rear team became frightened and started to run directly toward the forward team and a horse ran on each side of the boy plowing with the front team without in the least injuring him. One plow was smashed up and the horses on the front plow had their hind legs cut.

One of the heaviest downpours of rain which has visited this section for a long time started in last evening about 7:45 and in an incredibly short time the streets were flooded. At a time when the storm was at its worst D. J. Judson's barn was struck by lightning and was instantly in flames. The fire boys turned out promptly and plowed their way through the muddy streets and soon had the fire out. The contents of the barn which included a fine buggy was entirely consumed. The horse was luckily not in the barn at the time. The barn had been insured for a small amount but the insurance had run out a day or so before.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Kentucky, for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people and is the best.
