Ed Pulsipher while here this week presented John Polnick with a pair of pinchers made by an inmate of the Hastings asylum which, when opened up all round, discloses ten more pairs of perfectly made pinchers. The instrument is made from a stick of wood and about thirty minutes are required for the man to make one.

A narrow escape from what might have been a disastrous fire occurred last evening between eight and nine o'clock at the home of V. B. Fulton. Himself and wife were away from home and the girl who was in the kitchen overturned a lamp and in a moment the room was afire. Mr. F. E. Goble who was near at hand was called and succeeded in checking the flames with the lawn hose.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME—My boy, Louis Soderlund, aged 18 years, left his home on the 9th day of May. About 5 feet 9 inches tall, weight between 150 and 160 pounds, light complexion, brown hair, blue eyes, wore grey coat and vest, and gray hat-band around his hat made from an old suspender. Any information will be gladly received by his parents who are anxious as to his whereabouts. Please send information to Andrew Soderlund, Cowles Nebraska. Exchange papers will confer a favor on the parents by copying and printing this item.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents in Red Cloud at 7:30 p.m., June 1, 1898, by Rev. G. W. Hummel, Miss Gertrude M. Brown, to Mr. Jesse Baker. The bride's home is at Red Cloud where she has lived since childhood and is well and favorably known. The groom has also resided in Red Cloud for several years, but his present home is at Blue Hill. He is one of our best boys and we wish him success through life. The supper was a delicious affair and was greatly enjoyed by all present. They will make their home at Blue Hill in the future, where the groom will follow his profession of tonorial work.

On nearly all letter envelopes sent out from Omaha are printed a few lines announcing the opening of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, concluding with the words "all the civilized nations of the world will be its patrons." On an envelope reaching this office the sender added the words "Spain accepted." The Signal contends that the sentence was correct as it originally stood. Spain is not a civilized nation.—Guide Rock Signal.

"The warmest discussion we have had for some time," says the Wathena Star, "was with a fellow the other day who complained that 'God Almighty, Jesus Christ and heaven itself seemed to be with Bill McKinley and the republican party.' He added that he had an use for any of them, and that none of them suited him. This argument rather stunned us, and the only answer we could make him was to 'just stick to the devil, Bryan and calamity, and go to hell!'"

SOME persons say it is natural for them to lose flesh during summer. But losing flesh is losing ground. Can you afford to approach another winter in this weakened condition?

Coughs and colds, weak throats and lungs, come quickest to those who are thin in flesh, to those easily chilled, to those who have poor circulation and feeble digestion.

of cod liver oil with hypophosphites does just as much good in summer as in winter. It makes flesh in August as well as April. You certainly need as strong nerves in July as in January. And your weak throat and lungs should be healed and strengthened without delay.

All Druggists, 50c and $1.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York
