As usual, our restaurant man Bense, has gone the rest of the property owners on Webster street one better and will have a red sandstone walk in front of his brick building. It is this kind of enterprise that builds up a town and makes the merchant who has the get-up to do such things a trade winner Billy should be commended.

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co., as usual with this popular firm has purchased the most up-to-date, stylish and quality bearing line of goods ever brought to the city and have them now on their counters and shelves ready for inspection of the buying public. They have ever since the advent of their store maintained the personal inspection idea of goods in the eastern market and therefore the goods purchased by Mr. Cowden on his late trip and now on sale are first class in every particular.

At the opera house yesterday afternoon was conducted one of the most sorrowful memorial services ever witnessed in this city, the occasion being the last tribute to the departed president, William McKinley. Although the remains were far away the feeling of grief was almost as great as if they were present. From two o'clock until five p.m. business was suspended in all branches in pursuance of Mayor Meyer's proclamation and everyone, regardless of party, creed or sect, joined to pay a last tribute to the departed one. The services were conducted by the G. A. R. assisted by the citizens and the program was as follows:
Funeral March, Chopin.
Hymn, "Abide With Me."
Scripture Lesson, Rev. Xanders.
Male Quartet, "Thy Will Be Done."
Prayer, Rev. Richards.
Hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light."
Address, Rev. Xanders.
Address, Rev. Cobb.
Hymn, Nearer "My God to Thee."
Address, R. T. Potter.
Address, E. U. Overman.
Address, J. M. Chaffin.
Hymn, "America."
Benediction.

Each number on the program was rendered in a manner befitting the occasion and the tributes paid to the departed dead were greeted with tears, instead of, as formerly, cheers. When the last benediction had been said the large assemblage quietly and sadly departed for their homes, a sorrowful and a sympathetic group.

F. W. Cowden last Monday morning received a telephone message from C. E. Stine of Superior, asking for a hat. There was none in Superior large enough for him. It was a boy and will soon be installed as assistant editor of the Journal.

Dr. Damerell has had a brick walk built in front of his brick block on Webster street. This will add much to the trade value of these business houses to the merchants doing business in that block. Good sidewalks are a business proposition as people will not travel over dilapidated wooden walks when they can get the goods wanted and travel over a clean pavement.

Business and work of all kinds in the city was generally suspended during the exercises at the opera house on Thursday afternoon. But one outfit seemed to think that life depended on that they should continue to labor. Considerable unfavorable comment was made in regard to it.

The brick sidewalk at the front and side of the Wright-Potter building has been completed and the public will no longer be compelled to wade in the mud. This improvement could well be emulated by a number of the property owners further down the street. In fact a city ordinance should be drafted which would make it compulsory on the part of property owners to replace wooden sidewalks taken up with brick. Let the good work go on.

CANCER

Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often runs through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.
To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be eliminated from the blood—every vestige of it driven out. This S. S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.
Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:
A small pimple came on my jaw about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It gave me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and bleed. It would bleed, then scab over, but would not heal. This continued for some time, when my jaw began to swell, becoming very painful. The Cancer began to eat and spread, until it was as large as a half dollar, when I heard of S. S. S. and determined to give it a fair trial, and it was remarkable what a wonderful effect it had from the very beginning; the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. This was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer, and my general health continues good.—Mrs. R. Shirer, La Plata, Mo.

RELIABLE MADE CLOTHING!

Josh Billings on one occasion remarked:

"My son, observe the postage stamp. Its usefulness depends on its ability to stick to one thing until it gets there."

STICK-TO-IT-IVENESS Means Success.

But for our persistence in giving high grade clothing at medium grade prices, we do not believe we would be enjoying the trade of so many Red Clouders as we are—but for selling Men's Suits at $8.00, $10.00 and $12.00 that you are in the habit of paying from two to three dollars more for, we wouldn't be doing the business we are doing. We wouldn't be selling you your clothes would we?
