Last Friday evening the members of the bachelor club were again called together for the purpose of banqueting and bidding farewell to another one of its members, L. E. Tait. The banquet was given at the Star bakery and restaurant, and was of the "Ye Old New England Supper" style. The menu was a very unique one and the manner and taste with which it was gotten up and served caused many favorable remarks on the ability of the proprietors of that popular resort. The feasting and toasting was kept up until quite late, when they adjourned in order to give their departing member a chance to recuperate for the event of the next day.

The following items in regard to the interesting method of two Red Cloud firms in advertising their goods were taken from the Country Advertiser of Grenoble, Pa. "Newhouse Bros., at Red Cloud, Neb., recently conducted a postal card contest. They offered prizes for the one who would write the sentence, 'Newhouse Bros. sell photo supplies,' the most times on a postal card. The prize was awarded to O. C. Teel, who wrote the sentence 1378 times. Not only did the contest itself create quite an interest, but the cards were placed in the display window afterward, and of course that helped along in advertising value." "The hardware firm of Morhart Bros., at Red Cloud, Neb., conducted a grain contest, offering prizes for the best stem of wheat. The points of judgment were the length of stem, the length of head and the size of berry. The contest excited a great deal of interest in that county, and the awarding of the prize was conducted in a manner which increased interest."

On Thursday evening October 10th, occurred a very happy event at the residence of the bride's home when Mrs. Mattie Smith was united in marriage to Mr. Grant Miller. Mr. Sherman Shipman of Kansas acted as best man and Miss Flora Miller of Eckley as bridesmaid. At 8 o'clock they took their respective places in the south side of the parlor and Rev. Wolfe of Guide Rock proceeded with the ceremony. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives of both the contracting parties and they were the recipients of many presents as tokens of the esteem in which they are held. The groom is the son of Mr. M. M. Miller of Stillwater, a well known farmer and has spent the latter part of his life in Webster county. The bride has also lived near Guide Rock and is loved and respected by all who know her. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served, which was repeated the next day by the parents of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have the best wishes of friends for a long and happy life.

Last Monday morning Red Cloud was called upon to part with another of her old and respected citizens when A. A. Pope passed away after a long and painful illness with Bright's disease. Alvin Arthur Pope was born at Freeport, Pennsylvania on August 30, 1849. His parents afterwards moved to Wisconsin where he completed his education in the Wisconsin state university. He was married in 1872 to Miss Laura J. King of Blue Earth City, Minnesota, and in 1874 came to Webster county and located on a homestead upon which he resided until 1877 when he was elected county superintendent and moved to Red Cloud. After serving two years in this capacity he engaged in the implement business, which business he continued in up to the time of his death. He leaves a wife, four sons and one daughter. The funeral services were held from the residence on Wednesday and were conducted by Rev. J. H. N. Cobb, under the direction of the Masonic and A. O. U. W. lodges. The remains were laid at rest in the Red Cloud cemetery.

Last Saturday afternoon the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Garber, one mile north of this city was the scene of a very happy event, at which time their daughter, Miss Ethel Grace was united in marriage to Mr. LaRoy Edson Tait, Rev. J. N. Cobb officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, being witnessed only by the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends. The ceremony was performed at 4 p.m., and after congratulations had been extended a bounteous feast which had been prepared for the occasion was participated in. The bride and groom left on the evening train for a bridal tour in the mountains. Both of the contracting parties are too well and favorably known to need any comment. The groom has lived in this city from early boyhood. For several years he worked in the CHIEF office, beginning at the bottom, and working up in the business until now he is editor and proprietor of the Webster County Argus. The bride is a lifelong resident, and a graduate of our high school. After her graduation she taught the kindergarten school in this city very creditably and satisfactorily. She is a kind, pleasant and accomplished young lady and one whom the groom may well feel proud of winning as a helpmate. THE CHIEF, along with their other many friends takes pleasure in extending congratulations and wishing them a long and happy married life.

Are you Mixed on the Overcoat and Suit

QUESTION?

It is pretty hard to know what to do, isn't it, when every clothier in town has "the best at the lowest price," and all give "satisfaction" and "money back"? And all best the tailors to pieces and save you "half to a third" and all that. It comes down to a question of faith in somebody. Is there in Red Cloud that has been conspicuously faithful for years, whether it sold you a collar button, a hat, suit of clothes, or whatever it was? Is there in town that usually does more than it says? Is there in town whose buyer wants and demands the best? Is there in town that has made prices lower? Is there in town that has built up standards all through its business? When you name the store you have named this store and you can get your Overcoat or Suit here from $3.75 to $14.00 and take no risk.

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

ONE STORE

THE STORE THAT NEVER DISAPPOINTS.

Half the world seems to have found uncongenial occupations. Servant girls are trying to teach; natural teachers are tending stores; good farmers are murdering law, while Choates and Websters are running down good farms; and good farmers, in turn, are farming still in congress. Artists are spreading daubs on canvas who should be whitewashing board fences. Shoemakers write good verses for the village paper and natural statesmen are pounding shoe lasts, while other statesmen are cobbling in legislative halls. Good mechanics and electricians are trying to preach sermons, and wondering why their congregations continue to sleep, while the Bucechers are falling as merchants.—Success.

Superior, in an item last week in the Journal, in remarks in regard to the attendance from there to the late fair held here "acknowledged the corn" that Superior has not reciprocated in return for the large crowds which go from here to attend anything going on there. It stated that outside members of the band who were paid for coming here to play with the Red Cloud band, the attendance was limited.

A wealthy man who died recently left a will in which he requested that his estate which was composed of bonds, stocks and money be burned. A heartless newspaper man, referring to the matter editorially, says of him that he perhaps knew it would be burned if he took it with him.—Exchange.

FROM FOUNTAIN, OKLAHOMA.

EDITOR CHIEF:—As we are over to Taloga cooking for my husband and uncle, Benj. VanDyke, and have plenty of spare time, I will try to write a little for the paper, to let you know how Oklahoma is getting along. We had a nice rain last night and I think we will have another tonight. Fall wheat look splendid down here. Mr. VanDyke's wheat is fine. Benj. VanDyke has at the plastering he can do and people are still after him. Mert Fern is doing well since he came down here. I get plenty of work, and then, he is running the molasses mill, and they say he makes good molasses. Uncle Sam Reese is getting along fine with the two boys to help. Frank Reese took a black jack claim and is working for himself and doing well. Jack Reese is in Colorado with Mollie and her husband. Mr. England's folks are doing fine and have a nice place. Will is most a man and lots of help to Mr. England. Odis is doing as well as can be expected. He got his house burned down this summer just after he had put a new shingle roof on it and while he was going to the railroad with a load of hogs he built a camp fire to cook supper, and while busy with his hogs the prairie caught fire. He took up his coat, which had a revolver in it to whip it out, and the revolver went off shooting him in the wrist, but not breaking any bones, the bullet going between the two bones. Mr. Guthrie is picking cotton now days. They have a nice patch and are doing well. They have a place of their own and that gives them more courage even if they do see hard times. People are all doing well down here. They are grading a railroad to Fairview, thirty-three miles north-east of Fountain. Our county seat, Taloga, is building up nicely. Hardly a month but what a new house goes up. Well as all of my spare time is taken up I will close my letter, hoping it will escape the waste basket. Mrs. Edna Irwin, Fountain, O. T.

We, the jury, find that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, caused by not taking Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. C. L. Cotting.
