Not all investments pay cash dividends. The things that are really worth most in this life do not make money, they cost money: the home, the church and the school.

The Nation says that W. H. Thompson was never in the employ of a railroad corporation and cites us to the issue of the Nation of July 24th in which he (Mr. Thompson) asserts that he never received any money from a railroad corporation. This does not explain how it happens that he has continually ridden on passes and railroads do not issue passes for nothing. Do they, Mr. Hale?

There has never been a time in the history of Nebraska when the Republicans were more certain of success than this year. The cry of the opposition that the Republican candidates are railroad tools has lost its effect, as they have always raised the same cry, no matter who was nominated. It is done to divert attention from their own record, which was very favorable to the railroad interests of the state.—Blue Valley Blade.

Stop and think a moment, my populist friend. Why did you affiliate with the populists movement? Was it tariff, or silver, or what? The silver question is dead and has been buried, and has not the republican position on the tariff question been so thoroughly proven correct as to be now beyond any question? Then what is there left for you? Are you merely with the demo-pops because you are anti-republican? Every effort is now being made by the democratic leaders to hunt up some issue to stand upon, but so far their efforts have been futile.

The city officers should not delay in taking up the matter of paying the old 6 per cent water bonds, but should go to work at once. We would suggest that refunding bonds drawing not more than 4 per cent be issued and that these bonds be of small denomination, optional with the city after five years. By doing this we believe that the majority if not all of the new bonds would be purchased by people here at home, who now have money lying idle and which is doing them no good. By investing in these bonds they would be getting some interest on their money and it would also be an investment that would be perfectly safe. The interest money would in this way remain here in the county and be retained at home. Let us pay these bonds and thereby reduce the interest charges by so much at least.

His Career a High Incentive.

Cambridge Clarion

The career of Judge Norris, the republican candidate for congress in this district, should be an incentive to every young man with energy and ambition. Beginning as most young attorneys do, in a country town, he proved himself a lawyer in the true sense of the word, by his loyalty and fidelity to his clients and by the zeal and energy with which he guarded their interests. No client ever regretted employing George Norris: the zeal and earnestness with which he went into a case made success certain.

Recognizing his character and ability the people of Furnas county made him county attorney, notwithstanding the fact that the county was fusion by a large majority. The same zeal of fearlessness characterized his acts as county attorney, as did his acts while in the employ of other clients. That personality, perseverance and straightforwardness, which endeared him to his clients and to the people of Furnas county, elected him district judge in 1895 and re-elected him to that position in 1899, notwithstanding his party was largely in the minority at both elections. As a judge George W. Norris has won the esteem and respect of all who have come in contact with him without regard to party affiliations. His success as a lawyer, his record as a judge, his popularity as a thorough westerner and his personality as a man give assurance that the Fifth congressional district will be represented in the next congress by a republican.

John H. Mickley.

From the Columbus Journal.

The following sketch of the life of John H. Mickley, the republican candidate for governor, taken from our history of Nebraska, compiled in 1888, is the story of a very busy man who has come to prominence by his success as one who has proven himself to be an excellent business manager. All that he possesses has been accumulated in Nebraska and the voters will be safe in trusting the affairs of the state in the custody of a man who has proven himself so worthy in the management of his own private affairs:

Hon. John H. Mickley, banker, Osceola and Stromberg, senior member of the firm of Mickley, Nance & Morrill, came to Nebraska in September, 1868, and took up a homestead on section 2, town 13, range 1 west, Hackberry precinct. In the winter of 1869 he moved out and settled on the claim, he being one of the very first settlers in the precinct, also served as first school treasurer of the precinct. In 1870 he was elected county treasurer of Polk county, holding the office at his residence until 1872. Upon the locating of the county seat at Osceola he moved to the village, holding that office for ten years. Prior to the organization of the county he was appointed assessor of Polk county by the board of commissioners of Butler county. In 1879 he opened their present bank, which was operated under his own name until 1881, when the above firm was incorporated. He was elected to the legislature in 1880 from the Thirty-fifth assembly district; was one of the original members of the Methodist Episcopal Church society of Osceola precinct; was also one of the instigators of the Polk County Agricultural society and was its first treasurer. He enlisted in the late war of the rebellion, in Des Moines county, Iowa, August, 1863, in company D, Eighth Iowa volunteer cavalry, and served until the close of the war; is now a member of the G. A. R., and is a charter member of J. F. Reynolds Post, No. 25. He erected the first frame house in Polk county."

OVER THE STATE.

It is a shame, a measly shame, for the fusionists to leave Helen Gouger out in the rain. Why don't they pay her what they agreed to pay? They got the worst of the bargain, of course, but they ought to be used to getting the worst of it by this time. If they knew what she was when they made the bargain, why do they kick? If they did not know, they ought to pay for buying a cat in a bag. Of course we used the word "cat" purely in a figurative sense in this connection. But we do insist, if the fusion managers agreed to pay this unsophisticated and unprotected female $25 per diem, they ought to pay it if it kills 'em.—York Times.

The esteemed fusionists are trying to create the impression that J. H. Mickley is a bloated bondholder, a plutocrat. It is reasonable to suppose that he is comfortably well off as a natural result of a life of industry and economy, coupled with native ability, but he is far from being a Croesus. The fact that he has been successful is a very good recommendation. A man who fails to make a success of his own business is not apt to be distinguished for good management when he undertakes the control of public business. Mr. Mickley has known the poverty and privations which were the lot of most of the pioneers, and whatever he has, has been earned.—Beatrice Express.

Mr. Bryan is in the east, banqueting and roasting Cleveland and Hill, and at the same time advocating democratic harmony. It must, however, harmonize with his idea of democracy. As his ideas and those of the old school democracy very widely differ, harmony does not seem probable. In his declaration of intention to defeat any convention nomination that does not also endorse his Kansas City platform, he is simply laying a chip on his shoulder that the Cleveland-Hill wing of democracy will take delight in knocking off, and the people can be assured of another four years of republican prosperity; a thing we feel confident they much desire and will fully appreciate.—Sterling Sun.

Riley—Brokaw Wedding.

July 30 was the date of a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Riley of this county. The bride was Jessie H. Riley and the groom Mr. William H. Brokaw of Seward county, this state. The bridesmaid was Miss Grace Ostot of Riverton, Neb., and the best man the bride's brother, Clyde Riley. Rev. George Hummel of Blue Hill performed the ceremony.

The bride was one of Webster county's most successful teachers and has a great many friends, who wish her happiness, long life and prosperity in her new life. Her father is well known as a successful farmer and business man and has served two terms as a legislator from this county.

The groom is the son of William Brokaw of Seward county, Nebraska, one of the best respected and most prosperous farmers in his part of the state. The groom is also a teacher, and that he is successful is proven by the fact that he has been re-elected to the principalship at Bee, Neb., for the coming year.

The wedding was solemnized at high noon, and an original and pretty feature of the service was that the bridal pair, together with their attendants, were all ready in their places in the parlor, where the ceremony was to be performed, and at the hour set the guests, led by the minister, marched into the room to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohegrin." The ring ceremony was used.

The bride's dress was of white silk and that of the bridesmaid pale blue. The groom wore the conventional black with a white silk vest.

A number of useful and pretty presents were received by the bridal pair, and among them some good gold pieces.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Colorado, where they will spend their honeymoon among the mountains. They will be at home in Bee, Neb., after September 1.

ACCIDENTAL?

The jury returned a verdict of accidental death on the man who fell from the window ledge on which he had fallen asleep. But the death was really due to carelessness, which made the accident possible.

There are a great many lives suddenly terminated as a result of carelessness, although the medical certificate may read "heart failure." When a man takes chances with his stomach and neglects the warning symptoms of disease, he is carelessly inviting calamity.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, which makes strength. It stimulates the liver, cures biliousness, and removes bilious impurities from the blood.

"I had been troubled with a pain in lower part of my stomach for three years, so severe I thought it would kill me in time," writes Mr. Aaron Van Dam, of Kensington, 240 19th St., Chicago, Ill. "I could hardly work, it felt like a big weight hanging on me and got so bad that I had to take medicine. I used Stomach Bitters for a time, but it did no good so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for advice, which he gave me immediately. I followed his directions; used two bottles of his medicine and was cured. I had a torpid liver which was troubling me instead of cramps (as I thought), so Dr. Pierce told me I have pleasure in living now; have gained in weight 15 pounds since then."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They do not beget the pill habit.

Repair the River Road.

Farmers and others living south of the river and along the river bottoms are complaining, and justly, too, of the condition of the roads leading into Red Cloud. The road from the river bridge to the B. & M. right of way is in a horrible condition. While this may not be due to any dereliction on the part of the road overseer or the county commissioners, it would seem to an outsider that something could be done toward making the road passable. Red Cloud is losing its grip on the trade from south of the river, from no other cause than dilapidated condition of this road. Farmers do not care to risk their lives and their property merely for the privilege of trading in Red Cloud and no one can blame them.

There has never been a time in the history of this city when the river road received the attention it deserved. The county authorities seem to want to place the burden on the merchants of this city, while the merchants maintain that Red Cloud pays enough taxes into the treasury to keep the roads in good condition. This may, or may not, be the case, but it is nevertheless a fact that Red Cloud will lose heavily unless something is done, and done soon, toward giving the people from south of the river an opportunity to drive to Red Cloud without endangering their lives and property.

Big Damage Suit Filed.

D. S. Phelps of Bladen began a damage suit in the district court last Friday against V. S. Hall, for false imprisonment. It seems now that it will be Mr. Phelps' turn at the bat, and that he may be able to make some persons pay for the trouble and worry to which he has been put in the past, one of whom he claims is Mr. Hall. The amount of damages claimed is $10,130. We suppose the $130 is for witness fees and other expenses which were not paid last spring owing to the fact that the bond put up did not sufficiently cover the various items.

Dr. Damerell's Horse Shot.

Last Sunday night Dr. Damerell's horse became violently mad, and went charging about the stall, finally going head foremost through the side of the barn. The horse's skull was badly fractured in the collision with the barn and it was thought best to kill it. The horse was shot Monday morning. County Attorney Overman had driven the horse to Blue Hill and back to this city Sunday and it is thought that the heat affected it to the extent of causing it to go mad.

Confiscated Dogs Sold.

The dogs which were used by Chas. Hazleton and Wm. Stoner, while they were hunting here a short time ago, were sold Monday afternoon by Sheriff McArthur, bringing $26. There were also sold eleven boxes of shells, which brought an average of 42 cents per box. The dogs were bought in by parties living here for James Cole of Kansas City, owner of the dogs, who had come to this city for the purpose of regaining possession of them.

Pleasant Reception.

Tuesday afternoon and evening Mrs. Fred Turnure assisted by Mrs. V. B. Fulton gave a reception to a large number of lady friends. During the afternoon and evening hat trimming contests was indulged in each lady trimming a small paper hat Mrs. Del Turnure won first prize in the afternoon and Mrs. Ward Hiatt won in the evening. Refreshments were served both afternoon and evening, consisting of ice cream and cake and sherbet. A good time was had by all those present.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

Last Wednesday, August 6, being Walter Cox's 29th birthday, he was treated to a surprise party by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cox, from near Lester, and a number of friends. The surprise was a complete one and Walter had not even an inkling of it. G. W. Baker and family and Charles Frisbie and wife of Lester were among the guests. Mr. Baker's birthday also falls on August 6, and he was 64 years of age on that day.

If it wasn't popular, if it wasn't loved by the people, why do dealers say: "We have something just as good as the Madison Medicine Co.'s Rocky Mountain Tea." Think it over. 35 cents. C. L. Cotting.

Passed Beyond

One of Franklin county's oldest residents, Grandma Vincent, passed over the great river of time at the close of Monday evening, at the mature age of 95 years, being probably the oldest person in the county. She was the mother of Al and Harvey Vincent and the late Mrs. A. B. Stevens. For several years she has been making her home with her two sons. The funeral occurred Tuesday.—Riverton Review.

Mrs. Vincent was at one time a resident of this city, living with her son Harvey, who was city engineer here for a few years.

You will do worse than this if you don't buy your harness and hardware of J. O. Butler, next time.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Theford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Theford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Moran, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend Theford's Black-Draught too highly. I kept it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.
