Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Home of Swamp Rook. Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing men-tion reading this generous offer in this paper.

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the howels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constitution for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; such was my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and if I was rich I would give $100.00 for each movement; it is such a relief."

MODERN FABLES

Brought Down to Date, With Apologies to the Kansas Mail and Breeze.

When the warm spring winds began o blow and the robbins began to nest and the fish to bite, the son of a millionaire commenced to complain of a feeling of weariness and general langur. Then his anxious mother told her husband that she was satisfied Algernon was going into a decline and must have rest and recuperation. And the coachman ordered to get out the carriage and every day Algernon was taken out for a drive. About the same time there was a son of a farmer who felt that tired feeling and suggested to his pater. nal ancestor that he needed rest. "It isn't rest you need, young man," said the father in an unsympathetic tone of voice. The trouble with you is that you have the spring fever. You get a move on you and go to planting those potatoes or I will give you a touch of high life that will get you out of the notion of resting for a month."

Moral; It is necessay to rise mid- His short legs and wide breeches are thin cocked beard and the lumpishness of ms expression. To be sure, this breadth makes him look important, but if he were less muscular it would be a sad hindrance to him in battling with the wind, which in winter in apt to make skating in one direction something of a trial. The Frieslander, however, is taller, better proportioned and in all respects a handsome fellow. The yellow beard he sometimes wears seems to put him at once on a footing of affinity with the other members of that respectable Angle-Saxon family to which we ourselves belong, quite as much as his provincial speech and his blue eyes. He is a most masterful creature when once he has put on those quaint old fashioned skates of his, and thinks nothing of making a score of miles from one village to another before you and I are out of bed. Boiled Down.

An amusing story is told of the editor of a go-ahead London evening newspaper, who, in the eternal rushing to press to get ahead of the opposition, was constantly impressing upon his reporters the necessity for condensing all news.

A terrific boiler explosion had taken place on board a big ship lying at Portsmouth,

"Get down there as hard as you can," he said to one of his men. "If you catch the 11:40 from London bridge, you'll be there soon after 2 and can just wire us something for the fifth edition, but boll it down.'

And the reporter went. Soon after 3 o'clock that afternoon they got a wire from him: "Terrific explosion. Man-o'-war.

A Primitive Postoffice. Until a short time ago a very peculiar postoffice was used in Argylishire, England. It was situated in the lonely hills between Drimmin and Barr, three miles from any habitation, and consisted of a simple slit in a rock, closed up by a nicely fitting stone. When any letters arrived at Drim-min for the district of Barr, they were conveyed to the rock by the first shepherd or crofter going so far. Having been dropped in and the slit reclosed, they were left until a shepherd or crofter from the other side happened to come along, when they were taken up and delivered at their destination. No letter was ever known to be lost at this primitive postoffice.
