FOR NERVOUS FOLKS.

Systematic Rest, Massage and Proper Diet Will Work Wonders.

Schule, writing on mental diseases, asks, "Is our civilization to blame for this neurotic condition?" and the answer is in the affirmative. How can nutrition prosper in the body where malnutrition holds full sway? And how can people be happy and healthy when worry dominates their lives? For in this human being the lower officers of the nervous hierarchy draw their very breath at the bidding of the higher powers, and the relation is verily reciprocal, for to keep the brain healthy the unconscious nervous functions must be kept in good shape, proper activities alternating with wisely arranged periods of repose.

Just as soon as one notices the approach of nervous irritability systematic nerve rest will shorten an attack, and by rest I mean to have the patient go to bed and have massage. The amount of exercise undergone in a good scientific massage is equal to a walk of two or three miles a day, and it goes without saying that such passive exercise should increase the appetite, and the food ingested and enjoyed will be digested and assimilated. I use the word "enjoy" deliberately, because there are some nervous invalids who cannot enjoy their food unless in solitude. In addition to the massage I would recommend salt rubs, which are very easy to give. Have a saturated solution of common table salt. Rub the body briskly, especially from the spine outward toward the sides of the body and as soon as the skin is well reddened wash off with moderately cool water, and the chances are all in favor of restful condition. In case persons suffer from cold feet at night I would advise the bathing of the feet in cold water before going to bed and having a hot water bag always at hand.

Lettuce, celery, spinach, onions, are all vegetables especially valuable to a person of nervous temperament, and milk hot or cold is invaluable.—Pillgrim.

Saved At Grave's Brink.

"I know I would long ago have been in my grave," writes Mrs. S. H. Newsum, of Decatur, Ala., "if it had not been for Electric Bitters. For three years I suffered untold agony from the worst forms of indigestion, waterbrash, stomach and bowel dyspepsia. But this excellent medicine did me a world of good. Since using it I can eat heartily and have gained 35 lbs." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach, liver and kidney troubles Electric Bitters are a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at C. L. Cotting's drug store.

I'll brave the storms of Chikoot Pass, I'll cross the plains of frozen glass, I'll leave my wife and cross the sea Rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. C. L. Cotting
