

White Pine and Tar Cough Syrup

Pine trees seem to furnish the best remedies for Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis and other throat troubles. We make a syrup of white pine tar, that, in the opinion of many of our customers, has never been excelled as a family cough cure. We are willing to sell it with the distinct understanding that if it is not satisfactory to you, you can exchange what is left of the bottle for any other 25c remedy, or we will refund your money. That is a fair proposition. We know what this syrup will do. Price 25c per bottle.

The funeral services of the victims of Tom Madison's murderous hand, Mrs. Eliza Payne, Mrs. Eda Williamson and Miss Mattie Williamson, were held at the Oriole school house in Smith county last Friday afternoon. Rev. Marey, pastor of the Congregational church at Cora, Kansas, conducted the services in the presence of a large crowd of relatives, sympathizing friends and curiosity seekers. The scenes at the viewing of the remains were pitiful. Men were moved to tears and several women fainted at the terrible sight presented to their view. The interment was in the Oriole cemetery.
A short time ago THE CHIEF made arrangements with one M. J. Farrell of Chicago, to publish the story of "Foxy Grandpa" in its issue of September 18. The story is in the nature of a special advertising scheme and Mr. Farrell was to have turned in the copy to this paper along with the cash for publishing the same. Several of the home merchants agreed to take space in the "write up" and a few went so far as to pay Farrell for the privilege. Farrell has disappeared, leaving a number of debts, and neither copy for the story nor money for publishing the same has been turned in to this office. Those who paid in advance are out the amount paid to Farrell.

Tom Madison Still at Large.
Although rewards aggregating $800 have been offered for his apprehension, Tom Madison, the slayer of Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Williamson and Miss Williamson, is still at liberty. Detectives, bloodhounds, sheriffs and posses of citizens have alike been eluded and hopes of capturing the murderer are rapidly fading away. Madison's success in dodging his pursuers is phenomenal. He appears and disappears as suddenly as a jack-in-the-box, and it seems impossible to lay hands on him. From all reports received of his movements, it appears that he has subsisted mainly on green corn gathered from the fields in which he has taken refuge.
Scott-Gurney.

Both have hosts of friends who join with THE CHIEF in wishing them a pleasant voyage on the troublesome sea of life.
