Some people are expressing sympathy for Argabright because so many gave orders to the Chicago picture agents. Argabright doesn't feel that way at all. He has been in the business long enough to know that the man who goes after an order reaps the reward. His agents are now at work in other parts of Nebraska and Kansas. These agents don't make such a big thing out of the pictures, but look out for the frames! Climb the stairs, Potter building and price Argabright's frames, before you buy. He will be just as glad to see you as if he sold you the picture, and can save you dollars.

Got "Ten and Costs."

"Baldy" Vest and "Bill" Saunderson got into a scrap Monday as a result of taking aboard too much of "the cup that cheers." The trouble commenced when Bill attempted to take Baldy home, and lasted until Marshall Kinsell landed them in jail. Tuesday morning they were brought before Police Judge Reed and each was fined $10 and costs, bringing their fines up to $17 apiece. They were given their choice of paying the fine or working until Saturday noon on the streets, and accepted the latter alternative, going to work Wednesday morning. However, they did not work long, and took the first opportunity of giving "leg-bail," and their whereabouts are now unknown.

Teachers' Institute.

The Webster County Teachers' Institute has been in session at the high school building this week, with nearly one hundred teachers enrolled. The lecture at the Congregational church Tuesday evening by Prof. Abbott was very interesting and the church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The institute has been a very decided success and will no doubt result in a great deal of benefit to all who have attended.
