

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! In gratitude, it grew long and heavy, and with all the deep, rich color of early life. Sold in all parts of the world for sixty years.

"About one year ago I lost nearly all of my hair following an attack of measles. I was advised by a friend to use Ayer's Hair Vigor. I did so, and as a result I now have a beautiful head of hair."—Mrs. W. J. Brown, Meadmont, Pa., Wis.

Narrow Escape From Death

Mrs. Will Smith, son Charles and three daughters, of Garfield township, had an experience Thursday morning, which they will remember for years to come. Coming into town over the hill road running east from the river bridge they came to a culvert that had washed out. Two of the daughters got out of the wagon, but Mrs. Smith and her son Charles and her youngest daughter remained in the vehicle. As they attempted to cross the culvert the bank gave way and the team, wagon and occupants were precipitated to the bottom of a deep gully, fully forty feet below. The fall was almost perpendicular, and at the bottom there was a huge rock, yet, strange as it may seem, the team was uninjured, Mrs. Smith and son Charles were not even bruised, and the little girl received only a slight cut on the face. The only damage to the wagon and harness was the breaking of a breast strap. J. H. and Arthur Robinson and Sam Jones came along shortly after the accident, and it required nearly two hours to get the team and wagon back on to the road again. It certainly was a lucky escape from serious injury, or even death.

John Garber for Clerk.

While the chairman of the central committee has not yet issued the call for the county convention, the time will soon be here to take action in the matter, and candidates for the various offices are beginning to be talked of. There is little or more opposition to the renomination of Judge Keeney, Blue Hill has a strong candidate for treasurer in the person of W. C. Frahm, and it is understood that Ed Amack, Oliver Hedge and William Wolfe of Red Cloud are all in the race for sheriff, either of whom would make a capable officer.

The most talked of man for county clerk is John J. Garber, the present gentlemanly and efficient deputy clerk. His natural fitness for the work coupled with his long experience in the office qualify him in an exceptional manner for that position. John has been a resident of the county since the early '70s and has always been a sober, hard working and honest man. There can be no question of his ability and fitness for the office, and THE CHIEF would be pleased to see him receive the nomination and election.

Frahm for County Treasurer.

We understand that our esteemed townsman, W. C. Frahm, is a candidate for county treasurer, subject to the decision of the republican county convention. Mr. Frahm is an honorable, upright business man, ably qualified for the office and would make an efficient and trustworthy official. His many friends here would like to see him nominated. The republican convention could not do better than nominate Mr. Frahm.—Blue Hill Leader (Fusion).

Blue Hill has generally been conceded the office of county treasurer, and as it is certain that Mr. Skelton will not return from Illinois to be a candidate, about all that is necessary to secure Mr. Frahm's nomination is for the delegates from that vicinity to unite upon him as their choice. Mr. Frahm is engaged in the general merchandise business at Blue Hill and is one of the most popular young men in that part of the county, and we are more than pleased to announce his candidacy. It is a pretty safe proposition that when a man's home paper, through of opposite political faith, speaks well of him, he is "all right."

Free Homesteads.

President Roosevelt has just issued his proclamation concerning the place and manner of allotting the lands known as the Uintah Indian reservation, located in north eastern Utah, just across the Colorado border. He has designated Grand Junction, Colorado, as the registering point for persons living east of Utah. Registration will commence at 9 a. m., Tuesday, August 1, and continue until 6 p. m., Saturday, August 12.

The drawing will take place on August 17, and those who are successful will begin to make entries at Vernal, the land office for the reservation on August 28. All those successful at the drawings will be notified by mail so that they can remain at Grand Junction until such time as they are required to appear at the land office.

Honorably discharged sailors and soldiers may register by proxy, by obtaining from Hon. W. A. Richards, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C., a regular form for the purpose. They also have some special advantages which may be learned by consulting their attorneys, or referring to sections 2305-2305 of the revised statutes of the United States.

A map of the reservation and full additional information, may be had by writing to the Chamber of Commerce, Grand Junction, Colorado.

District Reunion.

The Nebraska and Kansas reunion will be held at Franklin, August 22 to 25, inclusive. This was settled at a rousing meeting held in Franklin last Tuesday evening. When Red Cloud made no effort to get the reunion again this year, it was thought none would be held, and it was so announced. But Franklin, having been disappointed in being compelled to abandon its Fourth of July celebration, for which big preparations had been made, began to look around to find some manner of entertaining the people and spending its money. Last Friday the council of administration met and unanimously agreed to hold the reunion at Franklin. Our only wish is that Franklin may furnish as good an entertainment and have as large crowds as were in attendance at Red Cloud last fall. We are not the least bit jealous and will do our share toward helping our enterprising sister city.

Herb Ludlow in Trouble.

The following item is taken from the Hastings correspondence in the Lincoln Star:

"Herbert Ludlow, a cook in the Star restaurant, Friday night attempted to chastise his wife, and as a result of the attempt is suffering from a bruised eye and several other minor injuries. It seems that he was out of temper when he arrived at home Friday evening and he attacked his wife for some reason. Two women living next door to Ludlow's heard the scuffle and coming to Mrs. Ludlow's rescue, punished Ludlow and presented him with the above enumerated bruises. Saturday morning Ludlow was arraigned before Judge Reynolds and fined $25 and costs, after having remained in the city jail over night."

Boy Fatally Burned.

The twelve-year old son of W. L. Million, living near Guide Rock, was so badly burned Saturday night that he died from his injuries early Sunday morning. The little fellow, with other children, was sleeping on the floor. Near the bed on the floor was a table on which a lighted lamp was sitting, and during the night one of the other children dragged the lamp to the floor. The contents of the burning lamp fell on the little fellow, setting fire to his night clothes, and he ran screaming from the house to the yard. He was terribly burned about the upper part of the body, and, though medical aid was summoned immediately, it was without avail and the little sufferer died early Sunday morning.

"Frosted" on the Sermon.

Last Sunday evening at the union services, the speaker of the evening delivered a brief, impressive address, which was calculated to set the thinking machinery of his hearers to working. However, the effect of the sermon was marred by the untimely announcement, following closely upon the sermon, of a couple of ice cream socials to be held during the coming week. As the weather was hot, the thoughts of the cooling ice cream soon overshadowed the pious ideas impressed on the minds of the audience. We would suggest to pastors and others that the proper time for announcements of this character is before, rather than after the sermon.

Marriages.

John Lain of Red Cloud and Miss Julia Anderson of Red Oak, Iowa, were united in marriage Monday evening, Rev. Davis officiating.

James D. Pope of Oakland, Iowa, and Miss Susa Sprengle of Cowles were married in Red Cloud Wednesday. The ceremony took place at the Royal hotel, Judge Keeney officiating. The bride was neatly attired in a pale blue silk taffeta and the groom was dressed in black. The happy couple departed on the morning train for Council Bluffs and Omaha for a short visit and will then return to their future home in Oakland, Iowa. Their many friends wish them a happily wedded life.

Severe Lightning Shock.

During the storm Wednesday evening Mrs. J. E. Fox and daughter Josie, living about seven miles southeast of Red Cloud, were severely shocked by lightning. While the storm was in progress they brought some little chickens into the house and placed them on the stove to dry. While standing near the stove lightning ran into the house over the telephone wire and jumped to the stove. Miss Fox was shocked into unconsciousness and her hair was badly scorched. Mrs. Fox was not injured by the shock.

Taber Will Build.

W. H. Taber, proprietor of the Brunswick billiard hall, has purchased from C. W. Kaley the vacant lot to the south of the old F. & M. bank building and will at once begin the erection of a building to house his billiard parlor. The building will probably be of cement blocks, one story with a half basement. It would not hurt the looks of that block should some of the other old frame buildings be torn down and replaced with new buildings of stone, brick or cement, even though they were no more than one story in height.

Game and Fish Laws.

The Nebraska game and fish laws have been compiled and published in a small booklet by the game and fish commission. Copies of this booklet may be had, free of charge, by addressing George L. Carter, Chief Game Warden, Lincoln, Nebraska. The pamphlet is full of useful information for sportsmen and others who occasionally go hunting and fishing, and might be the means of saving them a great deal of trouble and expense. Send for one.

Fred Fearn Injured.

Fred Fearn was thrown from the seat of one of Studebaker's dray wagons Monday morning and received some bad bruises about the shoulders and head. The accident happened in the Burlington yards. The team became frightened at something and started to cross the track, and Fred was jolted from the seat, alighting on the iron rail on his shoulders, turning over onto his face, which was badly cut. His injuries, though painful, were not very serious.

Baby Hurt.

Mr and Mrs. George Reed's three-months-old boy received a painful injury last Friday. One of the springs which support the baby's "jumper" broke and in falling struck him on the side of the head, cutting a bad gash and rendering him unconscious for a few moments. Sunday the little fellow had a high fever from the wound, but it is not thought serious results will follow.

Killed by Electric Shock.

Will Lee, an electrician at Superior, became entangled with a live wire Wednesday and before assistance could be given him he was dead. He was a brother of the Miss Lee, who was formerly employed in the Bell telephone office in this city.

Broke His Neck.

A son of Uriah Adams, living near Bostwick, fell from a wagon Tuesday and broke his neck. He was about 21 years of age.

It's a strange fact that a man who would throw your gold brick at your head if you tried to sell him one will walk into a clothing store and calmly pay the price of all-wool-and-silk and accept the "mercerized cotton" cheat.

The clothier may plainly tell him it contains "mercerized cotton"; "a few threads; they look just like silk"; actually make him think it's all right, and pockets the added profit cheerfully.

Or the buyer may take the "mercerized cotton" adulteration ignorantly; there are some dealers who will let him do so.

In either case the result is the same; the wearer gets left. But he doesn't deserve any sympathy; he can have all-wool if he wants it; nobody feels sorry for a man who gets "flim flammed."

Our label means all-wool; it's a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

Campbell's Circus Coming.

The contracting agent for Campbell Brothers' Circus was in town the first of the week and made arrangements for the appearance of that show here Tuesday, August 8. Those who attended the circus here on its last appearance will remember that it was a splendid exhibition. The circus has increased in size until it now requires thirty-one cars to transport it.

Vic Fulton's Horse Injured.

Vic Fulton's driving horse became frightened at something in the road last Friday and attempted to jump through a fence, with the result that its shoulder was broken. It is thought the injury will not be permanent.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had Inflammatory Rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist, Red Cloud.

Proposals for Bids.

Notice is hereby given that the city council of Red Cloud, Nebraska, will receive sealed bids at the office of the city clerk, up to 6 o'clock p. m., August 7, 1905, for the purpose of building twenty cement crossings (more or less) in said city, said crossings to be built according to plans and specifications now on record in the office of the city clerk. The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
