

Subscription
$1 a Year
in Advance

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Eight Pages
All
Home Print

VOLUME XXXIII.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 15, 1905.

NUMBER 37

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Billy Kimsey is helping in this office this week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reitz, last Sunday.

Andy Lull put in 177 head of fine steers in his feed lot, on his farm north town Saturday.

O. T. Vinsonhaler has bought the Nichols property in Bellaire and will erect a store building immediately.

John and Ellis Adams left Sunday for New Mexico, after the 2800 head of sheep which they recently purchased.

Mrs. Charley Lull left today for Goodland, where she will join her husband who owns a barber shop at that place.

A. M. Hayes of Guide Rock, Neb., attended court at Smith Center, Tuesday, and visited his sister, Mrs. Chas. Lull, Wednesday.

Albert E. Dyke departed this life at his home in Bellaire September 3, aged 47 years, 10 months and 14 days. The deceased was born in England, October 19, 1856. He was united in marriage to Miss Louisa Shelten in May of 1880, she having died August 12, 1900. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. G. Harding of Smith Center.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Mankhey September 7.

A son of Mr. Peterson living north of town is sick with appendicitis.

David R. Peck returned to Grinnell, Iowa, yesterday to resume his studies at Iowa college.

Mrs. Wm. Inglis was called to Pawnee City Monday, by the serious illness of her mother.

Misses Pheme Bruce and Anna Dyer went to Grand Island Monday to attend business college.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. is putting on copper wires. Material has been unloaded here.

Mrs. Woody Rowe and children of the south side are tusseling with the measles contracted on the train coming from Portland.

Lind Nelson went to Colorado the fore part of the week, returning today with several thousand sheep which he will fatten on his ranch the coming winter.

Archie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mossbarger, died Wednesday after an illness of 10 days. The funeral was held at the home Thursday, conducted by Rev. King. Interment was made in the Franklin cemetery.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

County Attorney Byrum drove from here to Campbell last Friday on business.

H. Vincent, the stockman, was on our streets Sunday looking up fall feeders.

Marion Neal has decided to locate at Red Cloud and orders his paper sent to that place.

The I. O. O. F. will hold a convention and gala day at Bloomington, September 19.

Rev. J. M. Bates of Red Cloud held services in the Congregational church Wednesday night.

Prof. O. J. Standley arrived Saturday from Peru, to take charge of our public schools which opened last Monday.

Bert Harwood and Chas. Irwin returned Sunday from Red Cloud, where they had taken the herd of horses belonging to Enos & Harwood for sale.

The butcher made a mistake this week. He killed a party's milch cow instead of the one he was sent to kill. Mrs. Ed Fuller is the loser of a fine milch cow through the mistake.

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

The Blue Hill mill shipped a car of flour to Chicago Tuesday.

The Commercial bank of this city opened for business last Saturday morning.

Miss Fay Hostetter left for Boston Thursday to attend the conservatory of music.

Edna James left last Friday for the northeast part of the state, where she is teaching.

E. G. Rees is putting in a fine new cement block walk in front of his business lot.

Dr. Wegman reports the arrival of a fine baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chambers last Saturday.

A good, fair idea of the prosperity of the people of Blue Hill and vicinity can be gained by noting the last First National bank statement published last week which showed that there were deposited in the bank over $264,000.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norris at Bladen, Tuesday evening, September 5, when Mr. Russel Pelz and Miss Nellie Norris were happily wedded the Rev. Mr. Wilson, pastor of the M. E. church officiating.

A new Blue Hill Athletic club has been organized in this city with the following officers: C. Waterbury, president; Anton Soucheck, vice president; C. F. Gund, secretary and treasurer; Frank Baker, manager ball team, and Ben Prentice, captain of the ball team.

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

E. Fitz of Red Cloud was here yesterday.

Born, Thursday, to R. Walters and wife, of Abdal, a son.

The second nine ball club got beat by Nelson yesterday, the score being 21 to 6.

F. D. Wilson and granddaughter, Gerrie Wilson, went to Red Cloud this morning.

Miss Sarah Hayes had the misfortune to fall and dislocate her shoulder last week.

Mrs. Geer, who has been visiting her relatives here, returned to Red Cloud Saturday night.

Marion Bailey and Ira Sage, from Mt. Clare, went to Fremont to attend the Normal college.

Miss Myrl Gittings went to Red Cloud last night, where she will teach in the public schools.

J. Morton, of Moriah, Mo., a man about sixty years of age, narrowly escaped death this morning at the Burlington station. He attempted to board the first section of a moving train as it was pulling out and was dragged nearly one hundred feet on the brick walk. Chas. Abbott and Les Chaney caught him and prevented him from being ground under the wheels.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Edna Black to M. O. Bishop on the 20th.

Mrs. G. W. Prather left yesterday for a two months visit with relatives at St. Louis, Mo., and Peoria, Illinois.

Ed Overton, who went to California some time ago, likes the country so well that he has decided to have his family follow him.

Dr. E. P. Sumner reports the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bashford, who live north of Naponee.

Little Guy Green and Charlie Moffet went fishing last Monday and had the good luck to catch a channel catfish that weighed 6½ pounds.

The daily papers say that R. H. Vanatta, formerly of this place, has fallen heir to $50,000 in cash. No one could use it better than Ross.

Miss Pearl White, for several years a very successful teacher in the Franklin schools, was recently married to Mr. L. H. Kelso of Franklin.

Put Fuller of Riverton, was taken up last Monday under the new law and adjudged an inebriate. Sheriff Walrath took him to the asylum at Lincoln Tuesday, where he will have treatment.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Luther Clack, so long in feeble health at his home in Downs, is dead.

The band is "wind jamming" in Denver at the big G. A. R. encampment.

J. R. Burrow has shipped in a car load of brick to lay his side walks in the city.

Jay Falkenburg has invested in a quarter of land near Lucerne in Sheridan county, Kansas.

Ernest Wolf, August Henning and John Island, are in Gaylord this week threshing their wheat.

H. J. Poppen of Lincoln township was married to Miss May Weaver last Saturday and left at once for Denver.

Miss Kitty Harwood went to Lincoln, Neb., last Sunday, where she expects to take a ten weeks course in music.

H. H. Sprague of Munden and W. A. Tallent of Belleville, Kansas, were en route west Thursday looking at the country.

Mel Skinner died at the home in Pleasant township last Sunday morning and was buried in the family burying grounds at Gaylord Monday.

and visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. C. Chevalier.

People are coming in from every direction to the reunion and there is a large crowd in town.

Miss Rosa Thorne left for Blair last week, where she goes as principal of the high school at that place.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reed was quite badly burned one day last week by falling in a kettle of hot water.

Mr. and Mrs. James McBride of Cowles drove up here Sunday. Mr. McBride returned home and his wife remained in town for a week to visit friends and attend the reunion.

WEST WEBSTER.

John Lee was a Red Cloud visitor Monday.

J. M. Burgess moved to Franklin Tuesday.

N. E. Harvey's little girl has been on the sick list this week.

Harold Christianson shelled corn for Otto Skj-Iver Tuesday.

Mrs. Wessel was visiting at J. U. Meyers one day last week.

J. M. Burgess and Elzy Pierpont were state fair visitors last week.

Miss Payne and Mrs. Cooper were calling at E. E. Harvey's Sunday.

The little son of J. Reig, who has been so very sick is reported better.

The dance at Rodgers' was well attended and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Hannum and children returned Tuesday from Denver, where she has been attending the reunion.

Adam Miller returned from Iowa Saturday evening bringing his bride with him. They will go to house-keeping soon on E. E. Harvey's south farm. We wish them much joy and a long life. The bell crowd showed them a merry time Sunday evening at the home of Elmer Harvey.

DUTCH FLAT

The sick in our locality are doing fairly well.

Mr. Gibson and family spent Sunday with Mr. Corbett's family.

Frank Wittwer and lady spent Sunday with G. Beardslee's family.

William Hicks and lady was visiting with Chas. Beardslee on Sunday.

Chas. Wittwer has very bad luck threshing, for which we are sorry.

I. W. Houghtaling is still in Colorado and reports having a good time.

Mrs. Christy and children are still with her folks and it is told us Grant has sold for the purpose of relocating.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered
by Our County Reporters

LINE

S. C. Shuck went to Auburn Thursday on business.

Frank Van Dyke visited his sister at Montrose this week.

Mrs. Dahlen and Rev. J. J. Campbell went to conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Johnston spent Sunday at S. C. Shuck's.

B. S. VanDyke made a business trip to North Branch this week.

Ed Mountford and Ed Anderson's families spent Sunday at S. C. Shuck's.

Mrs. Ida C. Fouts and children were the guests of Wm. VanDyke and took in the show at Red Cloud.

BLADEN

Mr. Albright of Red Cloud was in town Monday.

Lloyd Reed returned from Cheyenne, Wyo., last Monday.

Quite a number from here attended the state fair last week.

Rob Ray left Tuesday morning for Peru, where he goes to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Kile drove to Red Cloud last Wednesday to see the big show.

Mrs. George S. Joman visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. O. Fisk, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hasebrook are visiting their sons, Will and Garret, living south of town.

Mr. Quinton of Campbell was in town Tuesday, taking in the rennon

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable to finest cookery and to the comfort and convenience of modern housekeeping. Royal Baking Powder makes hot breads, cakes and pastry wholesome. Perfectly leavens without fermentation. Qualities that are peculiar to it alone.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Cream of Tartar Powder
Made From Grapes
No Alum