

The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

"I always keep Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. It gives perfect relief, whenever any of us have coughs or hard colds. I have used it for a great many years and so know all about it."—MRS. MARY O'BRIEN, VINCENNES, N. Y.

A Final Word About the Candidates.

Next Tuesday is election day, and it is to be presumed that everyone has made up his mind as to how he will vote. From all indications, party lines will be tightly drawn, and should this be the case the Republicans will win easily. However, we want to urge all Republicans to be sure to go to the polls, for the larger the majority, the better.

The Republican ticket this year is made up of good, clean candidates from start to finish.

W. C. FRAHM,

candidate for county treasurer, is one of the leading merchants of Blue Hill. He is a young man who has "made himself," has never been a candidate for office, and his success in business proves that he has the qualifications necessary to make a good county treasurer.

J. J. GARDNER,

candidate for county clerk, is another man who has never been a candidate for office, though he has been deputy county clerk during the last two terms and has shown that he is thoroughly competent to conduct the affairs of the office. There is no valid reason why he should not receive the hearty support of all Republicans.

O. D. HEDGE,

candidate for sheriff, has lived in Webster county for more than twenty years, coming here when a small boy. Since the death of his father several years ago he has managed the home farm and been the mainstay of the family. He was candidate for sheriff four years ago, being defeated by J. A. McArthur by a very narrow margin. His nomination for a second time shows the esteem in which he is held by those who know him. He is of that type of a man from which ideal sheriffs are made. Vote for him.

A. H. KEENEY,

While the campaign just drawing to a close has been unusually free from mudslinging, A. H. Keene, nominated for county judge, has been the victim of a series of campaign lies that should not deceive a child. People who are acquainted with the judge pay no attention to the stories, but in neighborhoods where he is not so well known there will be people who can be made to believe them. Judge Keene was born in Webster county, and with the exception of the time he spent as a United States soldier in the Philippines and as a student at the University of Nebraska Law School, has made this county his home. He is not so old in years as to have become crabbed and narrow minded, and his legal education well fits him for the office of county judge.

MRS. NELLIE CASTOR.

Mrs. Castor, nominee for superintendent, is another victim of intentional misrepresentation. For some time the "boosters" for Miss Householder have been claiming that Mrs. Castor did not hold a first grade certificate and was therefore not eligible to the office. This story was easily disproved. While Mrs. Castor is amply qualified from an educational standpoint, her practical experience as a teacher in this and other counties, combined with her good judgment, should give her additional prestige in the race. Mrs. Castor is the daughter of Judge Sam West, and is dependent upon her own resources for the support of herself and child. Read State Superintendent McBrien's letter on the first page.

THE COMMISSIONERS

Don't forget that you are entitled to vote for both commissioners, no matter whether you live in their districts or not. James Overman, from the Fourth district, has served on the board and the people are acquainted with his qualifications. He needs no recommendation. T. J. Chaplin of Elm Creek, candidate from Fred Gerlach's district, is one of the successful farmers of his neighborhood, is well educated, and is thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the county. He is conservative in his views, and the county's business will not suffer in his hands.

GEORGE H. OVERING.

Everybody knows the Republican candidate for surveyor. He is a practical civil engineer, and is competent to do the work required of that office.

DR. HALL.

Dr. R. T. Hall, candidate for coroner, has served in that capacity before and will no doubt be the next coroner.

To make a long story short, however, the best way to vote is to place an X in the circle after the word "Republican" at the head of the ticket, and then you will be sure to make no mistake.

Doings of the City "Dads."

The city council met in special session Monday evening to consider the application of G. W. Lindsey for permission to build a flume from Crooked creek to his ice pond. Chairman Cather presided; present, Warren and Wolfe.

It was agreed by the council to go in a body Tuesday and investigate the situation.

The council met in regular session Wednesday evening. Present, Cather, Warren and Wolfe. Chairman Cather presided.

On motion the council ordered that a crosswalk be laid at the intersection of Ninth and Seward avenues, to cost not more than $45.

On motion the street commissioner was instructed to present bills to the parties for whom the city has built sidewalks.

A resolution was adopted providing that water meter pits shall hereafter be constructed upon the property of the consumer, under the supervision of the water commissioner, and shall be built independent of hydrants and taps.

In the matter of the controversy with G. W. Lindsey, it was decided to dismiss the injunction instituted by the city against Mr. Lindsey in the matter of placing a flume to Crooked creek on his property, upon the following conditions: That said Lindsey shall at his own expense open and straighten the channel of said creek between the dam placed by the city on the premises of Mrs. Garber and the point where the creek enters his ice pond; also to build two flood-gates not less than 16 feet wide, material for said gates to be furnished by the city; Lindsey to reimburse the city in the sum of $10, the sum expended by the city in opening the creek below the dam, and to further indemnify the city for any damages that may accrue.

MARRIAGES.

Boyd Smith Elopes with Hazel Bell.

Late last night Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bell, residing at 931 D street were informed that their daughter, Miss Hazel, had left with E. B. Smith, with whom she had been keeping company for the past two years. The young people had gone out ostensibly to visit some friends, but had really left the city. A note was found at the home of Miss Bell telling her parents she had gone away to marry the man of her choice. Mr. Bell took the early morning train for Omaha expecting to visit that city and Council Bluffs with the hopes of persuading the young people to postpone the wedding.

It is understood that the main objection of Mr. and Mrs. Bell to the marriage of the young people is the youth of their daughter. The young woman lacks some months of being of sufficient age to permit a license with out consent of her parents. Mr. Smith is also under the statutory limit, but it is understood that he yesterday secured the written consent of his father, who was in the city.

Mr. Smith and Miss Bell have been sweethearts for years. Frequently Mrs. Bell has accompanied them to entertainments and the young man has been entertained at the Bell home on many occasions. Last night after the young people had left the house, Mr. and Mrs. Bell went to an entertainment, returning about 11 o'clock. The daughter had been there and left the note informing them of her departure.

It was rumored today that the couple had gone to Kansas City and that the father had followed them. Until a late hour this afternoon, no word had been received from Mr. Bell. Mr. Smith came to Lincoln from Red Cloud and has been working in an office in the Brownell block. He at-

Miss Hazel Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bell of 931 D street and E. B. Smith of Red Cloud were married Friday afternoon at Kansas City. This information was received in a telephone message to Lincoln relatives yesterday evening. The young couple quietly left the city Wednesday night, leaving a note at Miss Bell's home addressed to her parents, saying that they had gone away to be married.—Saturday's Star.

Another New Trainmaster.

On Sunday last Conductor P. F. McKenna became trainmaster on the east end of the McCook division, succeeding Trainmaster T. A. Wilburn, resigned, who has served in that capacity since the office of trainmaster on this division was divided.

Mr. Wilburn has a fine farm over in the Beaver country and for the present at least will retire from the railroad business and devote himself to farming and stock raising, and a large company of railroad friends will join The Tribune in wishing him abundant success.

As to the new trainmaster, well Pat McKenna is one of the old guard on the McCook division of the Burlington. He has been here since the year one, and has been one of the Burlington's best passenger conductors, a fact which will be of large value to him in handling the difficult business of that office. He is a seasoned, experienced, faithful railroadman and will do his utmost to make good. Here's hoping he will.—McCook Tribune.

Judge Letton.

The World-Herald, following its usual methods, and judging the sincerity of others by itself and its party, is asking in characteristic scarce head lines whether Judge Letton is using passes. If the World-Herald cared for the facts, it could readily learn from the sworn statement of expenses filed by Judge Letton in the office of the secretary of state, that he paid his fare to and from convention, and it should know that a plank in the republican platform and pledge of a republican candidate means something. Can it say as much for democratic platforms and pledges of democratic candidates?

Judge Letton stands squarely on the republican platform and is in sympathy with every utterance, and long before the World-Herald awoke from the knockout blow his nomination and the republican platform gave it, he had returned all free transportation of every kind held by him.
