 Dr. Warrick, the specialist late of New York, eye and ear hospital will meet eye, ear, nose and throat patients and those needing glasses at Dr. Damerell's office, Thursday, November 16. Eyes tested free.
 The Beatrice Military band is to be congratulated on being able to employ its old leader, D. C. Jenkins, to take the work again. He came here last week from Abilene, Kansas, where he has been working as a printer since leaving here some three months ago, and started back there Saturday to bring his family here the latter part of this week.—Beatrice Times.

Golden Wedding.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Parkes were married in Salt Lake City, Utah, October 28, 1855, and last Saturday a few of their friends and neighbors gathered at their home and gave them a surprise dinner, in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The year 1855 was a year of crop failures and grasshopper ravages on the great Utah desert, and many families with plenty of money often went to bed hungry because it was impossible even to purchase the necessities of life. Mr. and Mrs. Parkes recall that on the evening of their wedding there was no wedding supper, owing to the scarcity of provisions. How pleasant was the contrast last Saturday, when they sat down with their guests at a table loaded with good things to eat. Although married fifty years, Mr and Mrs. Parkes enjoy the best of health and they can look back upon the years that have passed with little or no regret. We congratulate them, and hope they will live to see many more anniversaries of the happy day.
 The guests present at the golden wedding dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rosencrans, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holsworth and Miss Dora Doose.

Hurry to "Hale's"
 A cafe and restaurant, up to date in every respect. A place serving meals well cooked, neatly served, wholesome and square, and pleasing to every lover of good living.
 "Hale's" is on top in the estimation of people who know a good thing when they eat it.
 Our lunches please all the people.
 Our oysters are as fresh as the flowers of May, and in the matter of cigars, we have the brands that every gentleman likes.
 Value for money in good estates, that is found at Hales all times of the day, and the strictest attention to every guest. Damerell block.
River Bridge Will Not Be Closed.
 The river bridge at Red Cloud will not be closed at present, if at all. When the county commissioners let the contract for the new piers it was stipulated that, the work should be done without closing the bridge. The merchants of Red Cloud object to having the bridge closed just at the height of the fall trade, and as a consequence the work will be postponed until after the 1st of January. It is hoped that by that time some scheme for a temporary crossing may be devised.

Thanksgiving Football Game.
 Red Cloud will have a good game of football Thanksgiving day. The opposing team will be the Hastings eleven. The committee in charge of the local team is composed of E. S. Garber, C. H. Miner and Dr. Smith. There are several new men on the Red Cloud team this year, all of them experienced players. The line-up for Thanksgiving day will be probably be as follows:

Mrs. Henry Diederich.
 Box 150, Red Cloud, Neb. Fall planting and winter blooming bulbs on sale now, in Shoe store east of Miner Bros. store and bank, consisting of Chinese Sacred, Bermuda or Harisa and California Calla Lilies, Tulips, Hyacinths, single and double Narcissus, Jonquils, Freesias, Iris, Lily of the Valley and Oxalis bulbs (Cyclamen), Primroses, Violets, Carnation and Antirrhinum plants, Carnation Chrysanthemum, blooms in season, also Roses nov. 3

Broke An Arm.
 The "slide for life" got another victim the first of the week. Leland Caldwell, the 12-year-old son of J. O. Caldwell, took a tumble from Phil Sherwood's slide the other day and as a consequence is carrying his arm in a sling. Considering the number of these slides around town, it is a wonder there are not more broken arms and legs among the boys.

Is Your Farm For Sale?
 If it is, do not list it with too many agents. Each one proceeds to knock the other fellow out of a sale. List exclusively with me at a reasonable price and I will guarantee a sale.
 J. H. BAILEY, Red Cloud.

For Sale.
 1/2 block in northwest part of town, house of seven rooms with bath, hot and cold water, good barn, six lots fenced for chickens, plenty of fruit and shade.
 MRS. J. P. HALE, Red Cloud.

That Settle's It.
 When a Colorado sand stone walk is laid that settles it. See Overing Bros. & Co. for prices.
