

Subscription
$1 a Year in Advance

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

Eight Pages
All
Home Print

VOLUME XXXIII.

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, NOVEMBER 24, 1905.

NUMBER 47

FLEISHER'S

YARNS

IN ALL COLORS AND GRADES

We have also placed in stock a fine line of

UNDERWEAR

We wish to call particular attention to our line of
INFANTS' READY-MADE WEAR

Made of good quality Cambric, deep hem, embroidery yoke, hemstitched ruffle in neck.....	25c
Fancy open work and embroidered yoke, hemstitched ruffle neck, good quality cambric.....	30c
Embroidered yoke, with embroidered ruffle, a good quality cambric, at.....	40c
Tucked and embroidered yoke, with embroidered ruffle, hemstitched ruffle in neck and sleeve.....	50c
Heavy corded yoke with embroidered ruffle, lace in neck and sleeves, embroidered ruffle around bottom.....	65c
Fancy open work and tucked yoke, embroidered ruffle, hemstitched ruffle in sleeves and neck.....	75c
Emb. and tucked yoke, emb. ruffle, hemstitched ruffle in neck and sleeves—made of good quality long cloth.....	75c
Pressed flannel Jackets from.....	25 to 50c
Crocheted Jackets from.....	75c to $1.00

F. NEWHOUSE
DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS, ETC.

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

BLUE HILL

(From the Leader.)

Born, on Wednesday last to Rev. and Mrs. Reek, a boy.

The material is on the ground for R. A. Simpson's new office building.

Otto Stoffregan is building an addition to his already commodious residence.

Fred Pelz, W. A. Garrison and W. A. May were Red Cloud visitors the first of the week.

We received the announcement Saturday of the marriage of S. L. May to Dora M. Mann at Wensor, Canada.

A number of the friends of Frank Kuhn and wife gave them a surprise reception at their new home Wednesday evening.

Dr. Boles had the misfortune to get his left knee badly sprained during the foot ball game at Red Cloud last Friday and has been confined to his room all week on account of same.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Will Scheunemann is having an addition built to his house.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. V. McGrew at Lincoln, Tuesday, November 14.

Cement sidewalks have been recently laid upon the high school campus ground by Frank Hager.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Black have sold their property here and intend to move to Hastings in the spring.

Miss Olive Montgomery, who has been taking a course in dress making at Lincoln, arrived home Sunday.

R. J. Bentley had a hearing before Justice Montgomery Tuesday on the charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Miss Ada Carlile.

Sheriff Walrath went down to R...

ton Wednesday armed with a few warrants. He served two; one on Chas. Glick and one on Fred Stelling, the charge being that of gambling, preferred by the county attorney. Each plead guilty and paid $30 and costs in the police court.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Doc Logan is home from a week of recreation at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Will Wilson was kicked in the mouth by one of the horses he was working on the dray. Will lost one tooth and his face is pretty badly cut up.

H. A. Coulson came in Sunday afternoon from Mexico with 2,500 sheep that will be fed at the farm fourteen miles northeast of Smith Center.

Miss Fannie Stafford of this city, but who has been attending the college of photography at Effingham, Illinois, has just completed an eight months course and has accepted a position at St. Augustine, Florida.

Mrs. Nettie Arnold of Mt. Sterling, Ill., and George Rabb, a big ranchman of Denver, brother and sister of our old time friend, Robert Rabb, of Womer, met here for a visit this week for the first time in 35 years.

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Born, to W. H. Ballard and wife, last Friday, a son.

The Shipping association sent out a car of stock to St. Joe Tuesday.

It is reported that the Doane College is to play foot ball here on Thanksgiving.

Evans murder case was dismissed Thursday by Judge Hurd, owing to the lack of evidence on the part of the state.

E. J. Baldwin and wife went to Gretna today to attend the funeral of Mr. Baldwin's mother, who died at Kearney Thursday.

J. Omer returned Monday from a visit at Mankato and Jewell, Kan. He has been laid up with a mashed foot for the past five weeks.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Walter Henningsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Henningsen of this city, to Miss May Mahoney.

The transport Buford, on which will be carried the remains of the late Lieutenant McConnell, left Manila on October 20, and will not arrive in San Francisco until about the 21st. They will arrive here about November 27.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

The union meetings that were held at the Methodist church closed Sunday night.

Mrs. E. C. Rath was taken very sick Saturday night but is considerably better at this time.

Clarence Beardslee drove over to Red Cloud Saturday evening to be present at the wedding of his sister Sunday.

Last Sunday in the Catholic church at Red Cloud, Miss Minnie Beardslee was married to Mr. Miles Doyle by the priest of the Red Cloud diocese.

Drs. H. A. and J. B. Dykes performed an operation on John Alloway last Friday night for strangulated hernia; also on Mrs. Mary Grogan of Gaylord, Tuesday, for bone disease.

Sunday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Gerard, in the presence of about forty-five guests, Mr. Zack Leonard and Miss Pearl Gerard were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Tremain.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Jas. Lantis is suffering from congestion of the brain.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Morey, November 12.

Rev. A. A. King went to Blue Hill Wednesday to attend the wedding of a relative.

The Norton, Kansas, high school foot ball team are here playing the academy boys.

J. J. Burton with his grading outfit left for Republican this morning to repair the approaches to the railroad bridge.

Mrs. Christina Christiansen from Upland was adjudged insane last Friday and taken to the asylum at Lincoln by Sheriff Walrath Saturday evening.

Hays Bell writes to his father from the City of Mexico that the firm of which his uncle Will is the senior member is about to close the contract for a $11,000,000 piece of railroad construction.

MANKATO.

(From the Advertiser.)

The Corn Huskers met defeat at Clyde, Friday, with a score of 11 to 0.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Gertrude Weil to Ekwin B. Torrence.

Cad Helman, who had an ankle put out of business at Clyde, in the foot ball game, is again able to hobble around.

Mrs. C. E. Wassel, better known here as Miss Ethel Cross, died at Quincy, Ill., the first of the week, of appendicitis.

John H. Bruce and Miss Nellie B. Mathewson, both of Solomon Rapids, were married by Probate Judge McGeehe last evening.

James Terry Waugh was born in the state of Indiana, August 6, 1857, died at his home November 11, 1905, of appendicitis, aged 48 years 3 months and 5 days. Mr. Waugh came to this country in '77 and in '83 was united in marriage to Kate A. Cattlett. To this union were born seven children.

Hay and feed at Plumb's.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered
by Our County Reporters

STATE CREEK

Valie Scrivner is clerking in a store at Lebanon.

All is quiet on the creek and the best of health prevails.

Everybody is busy at present trying to get their corn out of the fields.

Wm. Rosencrans of Red Cloud was here last week on his way to Womer.

Frank Wolfe went up to Arcadia, Loup county, on a land inspecting trip.

Bart Stevens, who is teaching near Lebanon, was home Saturday and Sunday.

Gus Madine's new residence is finished with the exception of the inside painting.

Wayne Wolfe, the popular school teacher over near Reach, visited here last Sunday.

Miss Suda Scrivner, who is attending school near Lebanon, was home last Sunday.

Samuel Mountford, John Fox, Chas. Barrett and others have their new houses completed.

Messrs. Palmer and Johnson are casing for S. Mountford, and C. C. Cowden is doing the painting.

"Siph" Rosencrans of Rockford, Ill., formerly of Walnut Creek, was here on business last week.

Old Mr Wolfe is not only a "Jack of all trades," but is good at any of them. He not only built John Fox's house, but has plastered it, and when John gets ready he can paint it for him if he wants him to. He has even built a nice flue.

BEAVER CREEK

Fine rain visited this place Thursday.

John Forner is building a new barn.

A. J. Bragg is preparing to build a new barn.

Mrs. Jake Monia and sister were at Red Cloud one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Saladen were guests of C. W. Frink's Sunday.

Chas. Oglevie and family were visiting south of Guide Rock Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Mollie has been suffering with neuralgia the past few days.

BLADEN

A fine rain Thursday.

Mrs. Elias Lockhart visited at J. M. Lockhart's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Chevalier spent Sunday in Campbell.

Mrs. Cowley spent Saturday and Sunday with her son Charles.

Mr. Barstow returned home Wednesday, after an absence of six weeks.

Misses Ruth and Frances Householder returned to Rosemont Monday.

Wayne Reed and family visited at the home of J. W. Davis south of town Sunday.

Albert McCoy drove down to see his uncle near Cowies Sunday, returning Monday.

Miss Nellie Williams returned Wednesday from Iowa, where she has spent the last month visiting friends and relatives.

Ursey Macklin had the misfortune to have his arm thrown out of place Tuesday, while playing on the school grounds.

STILLWATER

Fine weather.

Corn husking still goes on.

Weddings and rumors of weddings are heard on every hand.

A little son has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Blobaum.

W. A. Howard had the misfortune to lose four head of cattle in the stalks this week.

M. S. Wright, from near Lawrence, was down to visit her daughter, Mrs. Will Finney, last Friday.

Hallie Robinson, who has been husking corn for Charles Shulte, returned to his home in Rosemont.

There will be a basket supper at Prairie Center school house on Wednesday night, December 6. Proceeds for benefit of the church.

The revival meetings at Eckley closed last Friday night with a large attendance and great interest. There were nine additions to the church.

Ralph Hubbard had a runaway Sunday. He and a young lady started to church at Prairie Center. The tongue of his buggy came down and the horses started to run, breaking the tongue and dragging Ralph from the buggy. No one injured.

Real Estate Transfers.

Transfers for week ending Wednesday, Oct. 18, furnished by J. H. Bailey of Webster County Abstract company.

Fannie E Carr and husband to Minerva Ludlow lot 9 and 10 block 23 Red Cloud qed.....	$ 25
C E Hicks and wife to State Bank of Bladen lot 7 block 7 Bladen wd.....	1000
C Christiansen to W H Rosencrans part nw4 sec 35-2 13 wd	1127
W H Rosencrans and wife to S C Richardson same wd.....	1200
Thomas Burr to S D No 64 part ne4 ne4 30 3 10 wd.....	25
Sarah H Perry to Thomas Ryan lot 11 block 6 Red Cloud wd..	500
Guide Rock cemetery to S B Hockett lot 2 block 5 and 6 in cemetery wd.....	5
C B & Q R R Co to Franklin lease w2 21-2 12 wd.....	2000
Franklin lease to Wm Irons w2 21-2 12 wd.....	3000
E Werner to Wm Irons w2 21-2 12 qed.....	1
J R Greenhalgh to E H Koon lots 15 and 16 block 3 Cowles wd.....	600
Sadie Ludlow to W L Weesner n2 nw4 nw4 36-2 11 wd.....	2000
E Carpenter to E O Bergmann part s2 nw4 19-4 12 wd.....	1400
Theresa Holbrook to H E Bowman w2 sw4 and e5 nw4 11-4-9 wd.....	4800
Alice M Litz and husband to E E Harvey ne1 8-2-12 qed.....	100
G R McCrary Co Tr to Len Wilmot lot 29 Patmor sub to Red Cloud tax deed.....	1
J U Meyer and wife to Dell Knutson w2 sw4 and w2 w2 17-2-12 wd.....	6000
Wm J Vance to A O Phillips lots 11 and 12 block 9 Inavale wd	75
Henry Gund trustee to W R Anderson sw4 28-4-11 wd.....	2900
Chas Spence and wife to Webster Co Fair association n2 sw4 sec 7-4-11 wd.....	2000

Is Your Farm For Sale?

If it is, do not list it with too many agents. Each one proceeds to knock the other fellow out of a sale. List exclusively with me at a reasonable price and I will guarantee a sale.

J. H. BAILEY, Red Cloud.

Make Your Grocer
Give You Guaranteed
Cream of Tartar
Baking Powder

Alum Baking Powders interfere with digestion and are unhealthful.
Avoid the alum.