

Is Your Hair Sick?

That's too bad! We had noticed it was looking pretty thin and faded or late, but naturally did not like to speak of it. By the way, Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair grower, a perfect hair restorer. It keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

"I am well acquainted with Ayer's Hair Vigor and I like it very much. I would especially recommend it as an excellent dressing for the hair, keeping it soft and smooth, and preventing the hair from splitting at the roots."—MRS. H. B. F. VEDDUM, Mich.

Double Wedding at the Home of David Cartwright.

At the home of David H. Cartwright, on Wednesday evening, November 22 occurred the marriage of his daughters, Miss Belle Cartwright, to Ross L. Paxton, and Miss Blanch Cartwright, to James R. Highland, Rev. G. W. Hummel officiating. The happy event was witnessed by about sixty-five relatives and friends. The young ladies are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. David Cartwright of Highland, Jewell county, Kansas, and are charming and highly respected young ladies. Mr. Highland is a banker at Morrowville, Kan., and is a young man of sterling worth and noble qualities. He and his bride will reside at Morrowville. Mr. Paxton is a prosperous young farmer of Jewell county, and is a young man who will be successful wherever he is located. They will reside on a farm near Esbon.

Col. Kaley Boosts Webster County.

Representative C. W. Kaley of Red Cloud stopped in Lincoln yesterday on his way to Auburn, Ind. He tells his friends that he is not a candidate for governor, but it is said he smiles when he says it. "It is hard to find any land in Webster county that is not alfalfa land," said Mr. Kaley when asked about the prosperity of his county. "Formerly alfalfa was grown only on the river and creek bottoms, then on the second bottoms and now it is seen on the hills. It is grown on hills that are washed and on which nothing else appears to be worth cultivating. Of course it grows light crops on the hills, but it is worth more than any other crop that can be grown on the same land. The price ranges from $4 to $9 a ton and land is worth from $20 to $40 an acre. The past three years has been favorable for the starting of alfalfa. Some years it is almost impossible to get it started. Floods during the past year destroyed a great deal of alfalfa. That which was cut appeared to die but tall plants survived."—State Journal.

Bladen Preacher "Etted."

Rev. J. B. Wilson, the Methodist preacher at Bladen, was rotten-egged Monday night by a crowd of young men who ambushed him from a clump of weeds. Several have been arrested and will be tried tomorrow. At a recent wedding in the country near Bladen a number of young men drank excessively, so it is said, and made an unpleasant demonstration. The preacher in his sermon Sunday night bitterly scored their conduct. The boys got together an assortment of bad eggs and, waiting for the preacher in the weeds near which he was expected to pass, gave him a full broadside. He was daubed from head to foot. He recognized some of the youths and had them arrested.

Thanksgiving Football.

There will be no game in Red Cloud on Thanksgiving day. The Red Cloud boys will play the Franklin team at Guide Rock on that day, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge of that place. Admission to the game will be free, the expenses of the teams being borne by private subscription. The ladies of the Guide Rock Rebekah lodge will give a big Thanksgiving dinner, the proceeds of which will go toward buying a carpet for the new Odd Fellows hall, which has just been completed. Red Cloud will undoubtedly send a big delegation down to see the game and help eat up the good things provided by the Rebekahs.

The Hastings football team will play at Blue Hill on the same day.

Noble Dramatic Company.

The Noble Dramatic Company appeared at the opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Owing to the company having not been properly advertised, the attendance was much smaller than the merits of their performance deserved. The specialties of Lloyd Neal and the Duffy children were particularly pleasing. Other members of the company also gave specialties that were above the average seen in shows visiting towns of this size.

Shrieking and Shooting.

It is a comfort to realize when we hear people talking about "the good old times that used to be," that in some respects, at least, we show more common sense to-day. One instance is in our attitude towards women. There was a time when a woman was expected to shriek and faint at almost any emergency. It was even considered an attractive exhibition of dependence. To-day we pardon lack of nerve and self-possession in a woman almost as little as in a man. The girl who rides and shoots has taken the place of the girl who used to shriek and faint. No small factor in bringing this welcome change about has been the campaign carried on by the J. Stevens Arms & Tool Co., Chicopee Falls, Mass., makers of the famous Stevens firearms, who have introduced our girls to the healthy, up-building sport of outdoor shooting. The company has issued a book illustrating many varieties of light-weight rifles, shotguns and pistols which girls all over the country are using to-day. It contains much useful and interesting information on such points as the selection, care and testing of firearms, besides notes on ammunition, targets, etc. We understand the book will be sent free to anyone sending four cents in stamps, to cover postage.

An Old Story Revived.

The following special telegram from Lincoln, which is in line with a suggestion made by THE CHIEF just after Frank Barker had been granted a reprieve of two years, appeared in Sunday's World Herald:

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 17.—The insanity charge against Frank Barker, the Webster county murderer, may be dropped now that it has served the purpose of saving him from hanging June 16.

A reprieve of two years was granted Barker by Governor Mickey, thereby stirring up much censure in Webster county, where the feeling against Barker is still very bitter. The county attorney there is said to be watching every move of Barker's counsel and already has a new complaint, charging him with murdering his sister-in-law, prepared and ready for filing. The present conviction and sentence to death is for the murder of his brother, Daniel Barker.

The injured man was taken to a hospital in Denver for treatment, Saturday evening. His father left here for Denver Sunday evening.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matkins of Inavale were married twenty-five years ago last Saturday, and on Sunday they celebrated their silver wedding anniversary by inviting a number of guests to take dinner and spend the day with them. They received many handsome presents in remembrance of the occasion.

The new walks on Seward street in the south part of town will soon be completed. The street has been graded, and when the walk from Seward street to the school grounds, on Division street, is laid the school children and teachers will be able to reach the building without wading through mud and slip a foot deep every time it rains or snows.

Miss Sara D. Blotcky entertained a large audience at the opera house Thursday evening. Her rendition of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" was fine and was given the closest attention. She also gave some selections from James Whitcomb Riley and Rudyard Kipling which were well received. The only thing to mar the entertainment was the rumbling of the balls and the rattling of the pins in the bowling alley below the opera house, which at times almost drowned the speaker's voice. It would not be a bad plan to hire the bowling alley to close when there are entertainments in the opera house.
