

The Jar of Coughing

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.

"I always keep Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. It gives perfect relief whenever any of us have coughs or hard colds. I have used it for a great many years and so know all about it."—MRS. MARY OBERTEAN, Varysburg, N. Y.

It is rumored that the B. & M. will proceed to erect a new freight house 150 feet long at this place. The passenger depot is also to be remodeled so as to have two waiting rooms, instead of one.

Between three and four o'clock Sunday morning fire was discovered in the old B. & M. freight depot by some of the yard men. The flames spread so rapidly that all efforts to quell them were unavailing. An unusually large amount of freight and merchandise had been received from the east Saturday night and stored in the freight room. The total loss is hard to estimate, but it will probably exceed $20,000, none of which was insured.

MARRIAGES.

Noble-Arneson.

At the home of Walter Noble sixteen miles southwest of Red Cloud in Walnut Creek precinct, occurred the marriage of Miss Minnie M. Landers to Mr. Fayette L. Arneson, Wednesday, February 11, promptly at 12 o'clock. At the appointed hour the young couple marched into the parlor to the music of the wedding march played by Miss Sara Arneson, and took their places beneath a beautiful floral arch, where the solemn words were spoken by Rev. Hummel which joined them for life. After congratulations the company repaired to the dining room, where a bountiful repast was served. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Noble and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Arneson, and is a prosperous young farmer. They are two of Webster county's best young people and will live on Mrs. Arneson's farm in Walnut Creek.

Many beautiful and useful presents were presented by their many friends.

If you've been Looking for Bargains in Men's Clothes Here They Are

We've just had time to catch our breath after the vigorous selling during the holiday season and we went to work immediately cleaning up our stock.

Where there were only two or three suits or overcoats of a kind—where sizes were badly broken—where an overcoat lingered here and there, we have sorted them out, and when we came to mark the new prices on these goods we forgot all about the profit part of it.

$20 Overcoats at $16 00
18 Overcoats at 14 40
15 Overcoats at 12 00
12 Overcoats at 9 40
10 Overcoats at 8 00
6 Overcoats at 4 80

While there may be only one—or two—or three overcoats of a kind, yet there are so many different kinds that you will find very rich choosing indeed. We can fit almost any build of man out of these reduced clothes and give him a bargain that will send him away smiling.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

In baking powder Royal is the standard, the powder of highest reputation; found by the United States Government tests of greatest strength and purity.

It renders the food more healthful and palatable and is most economical in practical use.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy alum powders because they are "cheap." Yet some of the cheapest made powders are sold to consumers at the highest price.

Housekeepers should stop and think. Is it not better to buy the Royal and take no chances—the powder whose goodness and honesty are never questioned?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion by an alum-phosphate or other adulterated powder to save a few pennies?
