Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

.

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

MANKATO.

(From the Monitor.)

S. A. Metz shipped out a car of hogs this week that paid out $6.20 on the home weight. How's that for Jewell county products.

Mrs. Geo. Sterling, formerly of Man-kato, but now of Edmond, Norton county, was burned to death in a gasoline stove explosion last week. Frank

The many friends of Miss Garnett Lynn and Mr. Claire Bennett will be pleasantly surprised to learn that a courtship begun in childhood days and continuing on through years of young manhood and young womanhood has culminated in that most beautiful and most sacred of all ceremonies—the holy rites of marriage Wednesday, June 27. At the present time they are both residing in Los Angeles, California, and Claire has a home in readiness for his bride.

RIVERTON

(From the Review)

Chas. Lambert took the train Monday night for Weilfleet, Neb., and other western points.

Mr. Howe of Jerico, Vermont, is visiting at the B. W. Shepherdson residence with his daughter.

S. B. Conner came into the Review office Tuesday afternoon with two po- man retains sixty feet of the north tatoes from his garden which made us side of the lots and will commence to nice meal. Let the donations be build a new house on them at once.

John Scheunaman returned Weddred for them.

Little Lennie. the three-year-old son of John Patterson, fell off the door Moranville of Red Cloud, will make step at the Patterson home Wednes-day morning, and broke both bones in the left arm just below the elbow.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

Mankato, Tuesday morning, where Ward will take treatment at the sanitarium for rheumatic troubles.

Charley Rogers of the Kensington mills was on No. 27 Monday evenin en-route to Kensington. He had been up to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for a couple of week's attending a meeting of the millers' association.

Thomas McDonald, a farmer and stockman was killed in a runaway in Phillipsburg last Thursday evening. bout a la Sullivan last Saturday, and He had brought in a load of hogs and Bentley and Kling argued a la chair booze has added another death to its

W. J. Waggoner, aged about 50 years, died at his home in White Rock township yesterday at 8 a. m. Mr. Waggouer has has been one of Smith county's steadfast farmers, at one time a grain dealer at Lebanon, and leaves many sorrowing relatives and

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Wednesday evening, June 27th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fitzgerald, occurred the marriage of their daughter Winifred, to Ross McKeown.

G. L. Day seceived word today that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Day, had sied at her home in Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Day, lived here several years ago, and will be remembered by our old residents.

About forty of Mrs. Joe Hasty's friends gathered at her home in south Superior last night, the occasion being a great surprise to the hostess and her family. Mrs. Hasty has sold her property to John W. Williams and will teave tomorrow for Fairbury, where she expects to live.

When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years." by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Ma SARSAPARILLA. CHERRY PECTORAL.

 There was considerable excitement on the street this morning. A young man by the name of Geo. Gage came down from Guide Rock this morning looking for a horse and buggy that had been stolen from him last night. He reached here a little before the thief and was standing on the street when the outfit put in appearance that he was looking for. As soon as the thief saw his captor he put the whip to the horse and left as fast as pos-McBride's little son was also badly sible up the Nelson road, followed by several in buggies and on horseback. The chasing party soon gave and re-turned to town. No news of the thief's capture has yet been received. His name is Ezra Orsendorf.

GUIDE ROCK

(From the News Letter.)

Mrs. Eugene Shuck and Miss Olive Dickerson left Tuesday for Funk, Neb, to attend the wedding of Mr. D. F. Dickerson and Miss Anna Bell Rose, which occurred Wednesday.

Word was received here the fore part of the week of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Hardy, at Atoka, Indian here in April 1871.

On Monday of this week E. T. Mer riman sold his residence property in the west part of town to H. D. Fishburn; consideration $1500. Mr. Merri-

Dr. C. F. Moranville left Wednesday morning for Chicago, where he will nesday from Kansas City, where he take a post graduate course in one of had been with 80 head of hogs. He the leading homeopathic institutions reports having received $6,40 per hun- in the city. He expects to be gone about a month and during his absence we understand his brother, Dr. J. W.

FRANKLIN

(From the Sentinel.)

Bob Walker has engaged the Shaw W. H. Stone and wife went down to grader and proposes to put our streets in good shape.

> Mrs. Chas. Rose returned from Hastings Wednesday night. Mr. Rose is building a house and barn there with the expectation of moving to that city.

> Sixteen of the dagos here struck last Saturday for higher wages, and when their request was refused they jumped their jobs and went back east.

Messrs. Bentley and Lyons had a had imbibed a little too freely. Thus Monday, but no wrongs were righted or difficulties adjusted thereby.

C. Kellam, for the school board, took the school census of this district last week. The total number of children of school age residing in the district is 419, an increase over last year of 57.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Clark Weldon received a letter from his father, Geo. Weldon, a few days ago, who is at Lincoln, with his wife, who is being treated for her eyes, say ing that Mrs. Weldon was not improving very fast.

Paul Schroeder, who graduated this spring, from the Kausas state agricul tural college, came home Friday evening and visited until Monday morning, when he left for Fairbury, where he has a lucrative position in the Nebraska Creamery Company's plant.

Last Thursday afternoon, Will Braden, who is farming the Adams Bros. place, about four and one half miles north of town, left the hay field telling the other parties, who were working with him, that he was going to the house but he did not make his appearance there and could not be friends are very anxious to locate him as it is thought that his mind is in a deranged condition as no other plausible reason can be given for his disap pearing.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Advocate.)

Last Wednesday night at Macon fire destroyed the store and its contents belonging to Mr. Shepard. We understand the fire was set by the explosion of a lamp.

David Williams, of Hildreth, recently got into a row with his wife and attempted to chastise her by force and was brought before Esquire Marr and assessed $5 and costs for the luxury.

Wm. Allen of the north part of the county was arrested one day last week for shooting a dog belonging to O. Bunger, and before the case came to trial a settlement was made by Allen paying $25 for the privilege of killing a dog that was only assessed $5. Married, at ten o'clock Wednesday morning at the Catholic church, Mr. Micheal Grace of Omaha to Miss Mar garet Corcoran of this place. Father Lutz, officiating. The wedding ceremony was attended by a large circle of friends and was a very pretty and impressive one.

CORRESPONDENCE

Interesting Items Gathered by Our County Reporters

HIGHLAND, KAN.

Wheat harvest is in full force. Chas. Soyder was in Burr Oak Saturday. Mrs. Matt Baker has been very sick the past week. Mel Herrick was transacting business in Esbon Friday. Cal Francis has added a span of driving horses to his pleasures.

Our Highland sports returned from their normal duties at Mankato Sat-

A large number of Highland folks took advantage of the low rates to Beatrice Sunday. Miss Maggie Shippen of Jewell City is spending this week with her sister. Mrs. Guy Merrill.

Dr. S. R. Wagoner and daughter of Seattle, Wash., and Mary, Edith and Robert Mohler passed through North Branch en route for a visit with relatives in Burr Oak.

On Friday the 8-year old daughter of Mr. Updegraff had a narrow escape Territory, Sunday, June 24. Mr. and from death by being hooked by a Mrs. Hardy were among the earliest vicious cow. The child was danger-settlers of this section, having come ously injured, but the latest reports say the chances for her recovery are favorable.

GARFIELD

Miss Anna Fountain is stopping for a short time with Mrs. Emma Smith.

Mrs. Pearl Ailes has been in town a portion of the week waiting on her sister, Mrs. Effle Reed, who is very

Mrs. Emma Smith and Mrs. Myrtle Rathjen were in town Wednesday at the bedside of their daughter and

Mr. Lippincott had a select party the evening of the Fourth to witness a large and beautiful pyrotechnic display with which he dismissed the grand old Fourth on his annual visit.

The elite of Garfield donned holiday attire on the first and departed for Beatrice on pleasure bent. They returned in the small hours of the night lighter in purse and loaded with rec-

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Mrs. Peter Smith, living near Upland, went to Omaha yesterday morning with her son Nels. The latter is being treated for deafness.

Dr. Callard reports the first case of typhoid fever for the season 190d. The 15 year-old son of Martinus Larson. ving six miles northwest of Camp bell, is the victim and is quite ill.

Lulu, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross, had the misfortune to break her arm Monday evening about six o'clock. The limb received immediate surgical attention and is now doing as well as could be

Died, at his home three and a half miles southeast of Campbell on Saturday, June 23, about 9 p. m., Rudolph Rieck, aged 50 years, 9 months and 17 days. Mr. Rieck had been ill for more than a year past with dropsy, following cancer of the liver, and it was generally recognized that the malady could not be cured. When the end finally came, however, he died peacefully having sought his bed searcely five minutes before breathing his last.

Register at Worland for the government drawing entitling you to draw 160 acres of fine irrigable lands in the Shoshone reservation; only $1.50 an acre, one-third cash. 400,000 acres or 2500 farms to be drawn for; besides this, there are 800,000 acres of timber and mineral lands that may be taken found by the parties searching for him It was reported that he was seen in Burr Oak Saturday. His relatives and One fare for the round trip to Worland, with maximum of $20 from Lincoln, Omaha and Nebraska points. Tickets sold July 12 to 29, final limit August 15. Take this grand trip through the rich irrigated lands of the Big Horn Basin. This will be one of the greatest events in the history of the distribution of Uncle Sam's domain.

To the Pacific coast-daily low excursion rates for this the greatest railroad journey in the world.

To Colorado and return-About half rates daily and even lower rates

Calumet

hold their shape and give satisfaction. That is the kind of Suits I am sell-

SHOES that are the snappy, stylish kind, combined with wear-resisting qualities.

SHIRTS

That will

Keep You Cool

and look well. UNDER-WEAR and HOSIERY that are cool and will not shrink.

Straw Hats

to crown all this, and assurance that you are well dressed and have money

PAUL STOREY, Clothier feefeefeefeefeefeefee[©]

No Longer an Impossibility

The idea that has become general that first class building material could no longer be had is certainly knocked out, when you take a look at the complete line of clear Soft Pine Finish and Siding carried in stock by

Saunders Brothers

of Red Cloud, Neb. What is also pleasing to the buyers of Lumber and building material is the fact that their prices are reasonable, and they guarantee a SQUARE DEAL. They also have a nice line of Oak, Hickory and Poplar Wagon Material. See their Shingles. You can not help but admire them.

The members of this enterprising firm, assisted by plenty of excellent help, are always glad and take pleasure in showing to the public this nice stock.

Fourth Avenue

Furniture, Carpets and Undertaking . .

In FURNITURE our line is complete at Bargain Prices.

Our line of CARPETS comprises all of the newest and latest designs.

In UNDERTAKIG GOODS we lead.

In LINOLEUM and OIL CLOTH we have the Goods.

ED AMACK, Prop.

Remember, second door west of Grice's Drug Store

July 10 to 15, inclusive.

Also daily low rates to eastern resions, in fact tempting excursion rates

Consult nearest Burlington ticket J. F. EDWARDS.

Riverton Man Killed.

William Smith, the Riverton black- the track, and foul play is suspected.

for the Elks' big gathering at Denver smith, was discovered Sunday morning by the crew of a freight train, lying dead near the Burlington tracks. sorts; frequent homeseekers' excur- He was last seen alive about 11 o'clock in the evening at the barber shop, in all directions throughout the sumand at that time he had a considerable sum of money with him. While he had been drinking, he was not so far under the influence of liquor that he would have been liable to lie down on