

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger.)

The aged lady, Mrs. Ames, who has been living with her daughter, Mrs. S. L. Manker in this city, and a very old settler, passed away at 9:30 last night. She was eighty years old.

On Tuesday afternoon of last week the B's provided with ice cream and cake and fruits and other good things gave Grandma Thackery a happy surprise. As Mrs. Thackery expects to leave soon for a visit of some months with her children in Colorado the B's and other friends numbering twenty in all to give her a farewell visit.

Mrs. Cameron was somewhat surprised Tuesday morning to notice her family of five grown sons and three daughters come driving up to her home and notified her that it was her 69th birthday. A big dinner was prepared and everyone greatly enjoyed the family gathering. Eight children and their families were present. Dr. G. E. Cameron, who lives in Decatur county was the only one not present.

LEBANON.

(From the Times.)

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snow went to Red Cloud Monday, where Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Snow took the train for Hastings for a short visit.

Died, about midnight, Monday, July 16, Edna, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ingram, living eleven miles northwest of town. The little child was two years and two months old and had been sick but a short time. Her ailment was summer complaint.

Wesley Good and Jas. W. Crystal were out last week buying hogs. Wesley brought in a carload Saturday, which he will feed. They were in Osborne, Phillips and Norton counties and report crops to be looking good and wheat yielding from 16 to 22 bushels per acre.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

Miss Leone Patterson returned home Wednesday, accompanied by her cousin, W. N. Watson, who stopped off for a brief visit. Mr. Watson is vice president of the Lincoln Business college.

Archie P. Lemon and Miss Mabel Fish were quietly married last Wednesday, July 18, by Rev. Austin, pastor of the M. E. church in Red Cloud, at the parsonage in that city, the ceremony being performed at 2 o'clock on the day mentioned. The happy couple returned to Campbell the following day, and are now at home in the property recently vacated by the bride's parents.

Dr. Swatslander had a narrow escape from catastrophe, yesterday morning, which took place in front of Matheny's place north of the track, while driving with his two children. One of the horses slipped and fell, getting up under the buggy tongue. Then the team performed some stunts in high kicking that would have made Della Fox sorry for herself. Doc held the team close to the vehicle until they freed themselves, when he threw away the lines and told them to run along and play. The team was caught a mile or two in the country.

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

W. F. Shank and wife will leave Saturday for Minneapolis, Minn., to be gone sometime. From there they expect to go up into the Canadian country.

Misses Edith Jones and Florence Rider of Red Cloud, took the Santa Fe here this morning for Kansas City. R. S. Garber came down with them.

Rev. Brooks received a telegram this morning that his old friend, J. S. Frank, one of the elders of the church

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair-food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

"My hair used to be very short. But after using Ayer's Hair Vigor a short time it began to grow, and now it is fourteen inches long. This seems a splendid result to me after being almost without any hair."—Mrs. J. H. Fiske, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Was Going Some.

A story was afloat on the streets yesterday that early in the morning after the storm one of the resident clergymen went out to feed his chickens and found a son of Norway sitting alongside of his chicken coop. Upon inquiring as to his home the divine was surprised to receive the following:

"Ay tank ay come from Campbell."

"But did you blow down in the storm?"

"Ay tank so."

"Are you hurt any?"

"Ay tank not."

"Well, well, the Lord must have been with you!" exclaimed the surprised clergyman.

"Ay tank maybe if he be with me he ban going some bay yumpin yiminy!"

The minister went back into the house having forgotten to feed his chickens. He had to take a day off to recover.

Lightning's Pranks.

During the storm Monday afternoon lightning struck the Baptist church steeple, doing considerable damage. A telephone pole near J. W. Bogenrief's new home also was struck, as was a tree near the home of Mrs. Roby. Dennis Lindsey was crossing the railroad near his home when lightning struck in a pile of steel rails about twenty feet from him. His arm was paralyzed for a few moments by the shock. It was the severest visitation of lightning Red Cloud has had in many years.

Bridge Closed Sunday.

The bridge across the Republican river will be closed all day Sunday when the work will be finished.
