

WAR TO THE KNIFE

OFFICIALS ORDERED TO CRUSH REVOLT IN RUSSIA.

Agrarian Disorders Have Broken Out in Vicinity of St. Petersburg—Revolutionists Hold Meetings and Discuss Plan of Action.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—War to the knife with revolution, and the knife to the hilt, was proclaimed by Premier Stolypin in a telegram addressed to the governor generals, governors and prefects throughout Russia and to the viceroy of the Caucasus, who are ordered to strike and spare not in efforts to preserve order and crush the "enemies of society."

Included in this category, as shown by the events of the day, are not only revolutionists and socialists, but also the educated liberal and landed classes represented in the constitutional democratic party, whose clubs everywhere have been closed, and all the progressive newspapers, which are not permitted to lift their voices anywhere throughout the entire land.

The manifesto bears a remarkable similarity to the earlier compositions of Ministers of the Interior Plehve and Bouligand, and the reactionary press has had slight difficulty in cutting it down, as they already had done with the imperial manifesto, into an appeal to the "League of Russian Men" and other old school Russians to rise and smite all the progressivclasses.

Even before the declaration of the dissolution of the lower house of parliament, the war office had perfected its plans for handling expected disorders. General Muller Zakomelsky was recalled from the command of a corps and placed at the disposition of the war office to be used wherever trouble may first be manifested. Both the government and the revolutionists expect this outbreak in the south, and that it will roll north to the two capitals.

This may induce the proletariat to postpone the declaration of a general strike from St. Petersburg until contagion is borne up from the south.
The railroads, however, are anxious to have this strike declared at once. Members of the railway employees' union with whom the Associated Press correspondents here and in Moscow have talked declared that they were ready to walk out at the first call from the League of Leagues, with which the union is federated.
The strictest censorship over news of military disorders is maintained.

Meetings are being held in a dozen houses in St. Petersburg and just across the frontier railway employes, peasants, socialists and revolutionists of different shades of opinion are discussing the best plan of action to throw the whole machinery of the government out of gear.

Agrarian disorders have broken out in the vicinity of St. Petersburg. The estate of General Baron Fredericks, aide-de-camp to the emperor, forty miles from the capital, has been plundered by peasants. General Fredericks asked for troops from Gatchina, but was informed that the situation was too serious to permit of the changing of the present military dispositions.

Under threat of dispersal at the point of the bayonet the dissolved parliament adjourned at Viborg after adopting an address to the people calling for a revolution to win liberty.

BRYAN'S IDEA PREVAILS.

Nebraskan's Proposition in Cause of Peace Unanimously Adopted.

London, July 25.—William J. Bryan's proposed rider to the model arbitration treaty was discussed at a session of the international council of the Interparliamentary union and resulted in its being recast as follows:

If a disagreement should arise which is not included in those to be submitted to arbitration, the contracting parties shall not resort to any act of hostility before they separately or jointly invite, as the case may necessitate, the formation of an international commission of inquiry or mediation of one or more friendly powers, this requisition to take place, if necessary, in accordance with article 8 of the Hague convention, providing for a peaceful settlement of international conflicts.

The above was unanimously adopted after speeches by former Austrian Minister of Commerce Von Piener and Mr. Bryan, warmly supporting the amended rider. The latter said that his amendment was aimed at widening the scope of arbitration so as to include questions of national honor, the chances being a hundred to one that the proposed investigation of facts would also settle any question of national honor. If the hand of war could be stayed until the conscience awakened, wars would become more remote. The amendment, therefore, was a long step in the direction of peace.

Oregon Land Fraud Cases.
Washington, July 25.—Justice Gould in criminal court denied the motion of counsel for defendants in the case of the United States against Frederick A. Hyde, John A. Benson, Henry P.

Diamond and Joost H. Schneider, indicted in connection with public land frauds in Oregon and California, in which it was sought to compel the government to elect as to which of the counts in the indictments they will be tried upon. The court, however, granted a motion to compel the government to furnish a bill of particulars to specific charges against the defendants.

Quo Warranto Proceedings Filed.
Lincoln, July 24.—Quo warranto proceedings to oust Drs. Alden and Nicholson were filed in supreme court.

Move to Oust Alden.
Lincoln, July 23.—Governor Mickey has decided to begin ouster proceedings against Superintendent Alden and Assistant Superintendent Nicholson of the Norfolk hospital for the insane. At his request papers were prepared at the attorney general's office and will be filed in the supreme court today. The state's pleadings enumerate the charges of mismanagement against the asylum officials.

Starves to Death in Asylum.
Nebraska City, Neb., July 18.— Either remorse or insanity caused Lucy Lloyd, who strangled her sister at their home near here on June 30, to starve herself to death in an asylum for the insane at Lincoln. The sisters lived alone. Miss Lloyd admitted killing her sister. She gave as her only reason that she feared the sister was going insane. She protested her own sanity, but was adjudged insane and taken to Lincoln. There she absolutely refused to touch food and slowly died. The funeral was held at the family home in Wyoming, six miles north of here.

LaFollette at Hastings Chautauqua.
Hastings, Neb., July 23.—The closing day of the Hastings Chautauqua proved to be by far the best. The great feature of the day was the address of United States Senator Robert M. LaFollette, which was the magnet that drew one the largest out-of-town crowds seen in Hastings for many a day. When Senator LaFollette was introduced by Hon. J. N. Clarke at the Chautauqua auditorium he faced an audience estimated at over 8,000 people. Senator LaFollette spoke for three and one-half hours, and prominent public men and politicians present from all over this section of the state declare it to have been the most eloquent and effective plea for representative government, for honesty in public life and political reforms in state and nation ever listened to here or delivered in Nebraska.

TRAGEDY AT NEBRASKA CITY.
Hotel Clerk Shoots Himself and His Young Sweetheart.

Nebraska City, Neb., July 19.—Considerable excitement was occasioned in and about the Morton house when a woman was heard pleading in one of the upper rooms in the servants' quarters and a scream for help was followed by two shots.

Officers were called and found the door of the room locked. They broke it open and found Charles Norris, the night clerk of the hotel, lying, fully dressed, in a pool of blood on the floor with a bullet hole through the side of his head, and Miss Pearl Crouse, one of the dining room girls, lying on the bed, partly disrobed, and blood streaming from a hole in her forehead.

From what can be learned, Norris, who came here about a month ago, met the girl and became infatuated with her. They were both together a great deal on the streets and he was insanely jealous.

He is thought to have called the girl into her room and, after making her partly disrobed, shot her in the forehead, and, thinking she was dead, placed the revolver to his head and discharged it, blowing a large hole in the side, from which blood and brains gushed.

SUITS AGAINST CATTLEMEN.

Civil Action Brought for Violation of Fence Law.

Omaha, July 24.—Civil suits were brought by the government in the United States circuit court against a large number of cattlemen and ranchmen on the charge of illegally enclosing public lands in northern Nebraska. The allegation in the petition charges the defendants with unlawfully erecting and maintaining fences on certain public lands, and that they have failed to go onto or improve the lands and have prevented actual homesteaders from making settlements. The court is asked to order the removal of the fences within five days, and in case the order is not obeyed to remove and destroy the fence and to restrain defendants from farther violation of the laws in this respect.

The suits are against the following parties, specifying the amount of vacant land the different parties have unlawfully enclosed: Harry H. Bell-wood, James Bellwood, R. M. Hampton, Joseph H. Vaughn, Joseph C.

Vaughn, Cheyenne county, 2,100 acres.
Daniel Hill, Henry Oberwetter, John W. Hill, John M. Lowry, Sheridan county, 13,320 acres.

Cyrus Joy, W. N. Wilkinson, Martha Patmore, Thomas Higgins, A. M.
Wilson, Sheridan county, 5,560 acres.
The DeFrance Cattle company, C.
Jamison, James P. Nolan, Lealie Ballinger, M. C. Hubbell, W. Lotspich, H.
Lotspich, John R. Webster, Frank Ankeney, Deuel county, 20,600 acres.

Star Ranch company, Charles H.
Tulley, Anthony M. Wilson, Sheridan county, 22,000 acres.

Rush Creek Land and Live Stock company, Thomas E. Wells, Reuben Lisco, Samuel P. Jones, Deuel county, 15,960 acres.

Albert Metzger, William Metzger and Metzger Bros., Joseph A. Sault, George E. Shadbolt, H. C. Shadbolt, William Fleischman and Shadbolt Bros., Daniel Webster, Edward Weed, John Bishop, Jonathan F. Young, Bishop & Young, Cherry county, 35, 520 acres.

BOLT STRIKES GRANDSTAND.

Five Persons Killed and Score Injured at Manitowoc, Wis.

Manitowoc, Wis., July 23.—Just before a ball game between a local team and a Plymouth (Wis.) nine a fierce electrical storm swept over the city and a bolt of lightning struck the grandstand, where the spectators and players had sought shelter. Five persons were killed outright and twenty or more injured. At least fifty more were stunned by the shock.

The dead: Albert Skuhra, Walter Handl, Irvine Woellert, Anton Karke, William Knaitzen.

Most seriously injured: Harvey Kono, limbs paralyzed; Frank Boehm, splinter of wood forced into breast; Walter Boehm, shocked, unconscious; Theodore Burmeister, paralyzed, may die.

When the storm came players and spectators alike sought shelter in the grandstand. The bolt struck the roof and descended among the crowd, knocking scores of people flat. Two were found dead in the stand and the other three just outside on the field.

IDE WILL HUNT PULAJANES.

Governor of Philippines Sends Regulars Against the Outlaws.

Manila, July 25.—Governor Ide has requested military aid to punish the Pulajanes in the province of Leyte.
A battalion of the Eighth infantry from Iloilo and a battalion of the Fourth infantry from Camp Donus have been sent to the assistance of the constabulary. General Allen expected possibly to conduct a campaign in Cebu, but the ladron chief and forty-eight men have surrendered, and Governor Osmena reports that there are no more outlaw bands there and that the island is completely pacified.
The ladron leaders, Montalon, Sa-kay, Villefuerte, Devega, Carreon and Natividad, have pleaded guilty to the charges of bandolierism at Cavite.

Man Hunt in Ohio.

Zanesville, O., July 25.—A man hunt through the woods of Perry county ended in a victory for the pursuers in the woods near Gloucester. While the eight-year-old daughter of Charles Kammers of Misco was picking blackberries she was seized by a man named Lew Eblin. Her screams brought her elder brother to her rescue, and Eblin fled. A posse was formed and bloodhounds put on the track. After a chase lasting through the night and part of the day, the posse came upon Eblin, who surrendered. He had fired all of the loads of his revolver at one of the blood-hounds which attacked him, and severely wounded him.

Hartje Divorce Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 25.—From the statement made by District Attorney John S. Robb, there are more sensations indicated in connection with the Hartje divorce case than have heretofore been disclosed. Mr. Robb, while attending the hearing, said that as soon as the Hartje case was submitted to the court there would be arrests which would develop pronounced sensations. It is expected that a great legal battle will take place when Hartje's attorneys endeavor to show how the Madine love letters were secured.

Situation in Odessa.

Odessa, July 25.—There has been no actual pogrom here, but drunken Cossacks endeavored to instigate an anti-Jewish massacre in the industrial suburb of Maldovanka, but were scattered by infantry, who instantly surrounded the Jewish quarter and threatened to annihilate the Cossacks.
The latter were withdrawn to the barracks by their commandant's order.

ilies sought refuge in other parts of the city.

Two Shot by Jealous Husband.
Peoria, July 25.—One man was instantly killed and another fatally wounded in a shooting affray at Edwards station, near Peoria. The dead man is Edward Church of St. David's, and James Donagan of Elmwood is dying at a hospital in this city. Ligo Wagos, a coal miner, fired the fatal shots in a fit of jealous rage, and then fled to the timber, where he is still a fugitive. Church and Donagan were boarders at the Wagos home.

Negro Soldiers Wanted for Murder.
Shoshoni, Wyo., July 24.—Two colored cavalymen from Fort Washaki will be arrested charged with the murder of City Attorney Moody and the shooting of Banker Adams here a few days ago. The authorities have learned that two soldiers who had trouble with Night Watchman McCoy were looking for McCoy on the night of the murder, and it is generally believed they killed Moody by mistake.

Shaw to Speak in Iowa.

Washington, July 25.—Secretary Shaw will leave Washington today for Chicago. Later in the week he will go to Iowa, where he will deliver an address at a Chautauqua near Des Moines. He also will deliver several addresses throughout the state and will attend the state convention at Des Moines on Aug. 1. Mr. Shaw will return to Washington about Aug. 15.

Diver Perishes Beneath River.

St. Louis, July 25.—W. H. Pickard, while working many feet beneath the Mississippi river in a diver's suit, lost his life through the breaking of his life line. It was five hours before he was brought to the surface, and although the air hose remained intact, he had suffocated, probably because he had not been able to signal to the pumpers the amount of air he desired.

Lincoln, July 23.—Preparations are well under way for making the second Nebraska corn contest the largest and best of its kind ever held. The meeting will continue for five days, Dec.
11 to 15 next. Some of the best talent in the country has already been secured for the meeting. The committee is after the best music that the state can provide. The location of the meeting has not yet been decided.
The executive committee, composed of the state officers of both associations, together with the manager, will decide upon the question of location and other important matters relative to the convention at a business meeting which has been called to meet at York Friday.
