The Letts-Spencer Grocer Co. of St. Joseph, Mo., have asked us to inform our lady readers that the offer of a set of dishes which they made through our columns, and which was originally designed to be closed October 1, has been extended to December 25. In filling out the coupons for this beautiful 31-piece breakfast set you can have an additional two months. Get to work at once and have a set of these dishes on your breakfast table Christmas day.

J. W. Warren returned from Red Oak, Ia., the first of the week, where he had gone in search of his son Carl, who left home last Thursday morning without informing his folks where he was going, but it was learned at the depot here that he had purchased a ticket for Red Oak. Mr. Warren found that Carl had reached Red Oak, but had left before his father's arrival. Carl had had no trouble at home, and there was no cause for his leaving except a desire to travel.

Dr. W. S. Smith, who has been practicing osteopathy here for the past two years, leaves next Wednesday for his home in Sterling, Col., where he will visit for a short time before going to his new location at Morgan, Texas. Dr. Smith has built up a good practice here, and has made many friends who will be sorry to learn of his decision to leave. His practice will be taken by Dr. Boles of Blue Hill, who is well known here, and who will be especially welcome to the football squad.

The Blue Hill Leader is knocking on the proposition for a new court house, and says if the citizens of Red Cloud want a new court house they should build it themselves. The Leader says that if the county seat is moved to Blue Hill they will build a court house and pay all the expenses of removal. So would Guide Rock, or Inavale, or Cowles, or Bladen, either of which towns would be as suitable for county seat as would Blue Hill. However, Red Cloud is in no danger of losing the county seat for some time, at least.
