

Newsy Notes From Neighboring Towns

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

BLUE HILL. (From the Leader)

Ramond, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. McHale, died Wednesday last. Mrs. Peter Merten Jr. is very low at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln. P. T. Martin of Iowa has been called to be minister of the Christian church in this city. Tom Burge arrived home from Indiana Saturday evening after an absence of several months. Simon VanBoening was called to Hastings Wednesday on account of the serious illness of his father. A letter from Otto Wegman informs us that his father and family have safely arrived at Los Angeles. D. Borchering has purchased the Muhlback property of Tony Soucek, and will soon move to this city. Frank Smith, who was injured a week ago, is getting along in fine shape, and will soon be all right again. The Blue Hill Fire Department has just received a fine new hose cart to add to their department apparatus.

LEBANON (From the Times.)

Isaac Myers has purchased Geo. Ducker's restaurant. Col. Jim Adams has bought the Harry Voress dray line. Will Kimsey purchased the Ashlin farm Saturday for $8000. Dr. Mays reports G. F. Applebee and Mrs. Grant McAlley convalescent. Little Tommy Grisell left Tuesday for Denver, Colo. Further particulars next week. A son of Dan Woodworth, whose arm was badly broken and crushed last week, is reported better. Mrs. E. P. Root left Friday morning for Topeka, to take care of her daughter, Miss Mabel, who underwent an operation there Saturday morning. We think Lebanon can truthfully boast of more good cement and brick sidewalks than any town of its size in Kansas. We have 22,675 feet or between four and five miles.

One of John Dixon's horses had quite a peculiar accident befall it Monday night. John was digging a cistern in the barn and when night came he laid some boards across the top of it, but some time during the night the horse got loose and backed into it.

GUIDE ROCK (From the News Letter.)

J. N. Hotchkiss is putting up a one story brick building 21x80 in Burr Oak. Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar left the fore part of the week for California, where they will probably remain during the winter.

The many friends of Miss Myrtle Henderson in this place will be pained to hear of her death in Superior on Saturday of last week.

W. F. Crowell, who recently sold his farm south of the river to O. Holmgren, has bought out the Fred Watt meat market and fixtures.

Mr. Cray got into his new store building this week and the old buildings have been disposed of and will probably soon be moved out of the street.

J. F. Lane, who has for several weeks been lying very sick at his home south of the river, died Wednesday, October 21, and was buried Thursday in the Columbia cemetery. His death resulted from lung trouble.

Daniel Garber, of Red Cloud, he of the lion's den we believe, was in Guide Rock with the candidates last week, piloting them around and getting them acquainted, and he seems to be a first-class band at the business.

FRANKLIN (From the Sentinel.)

Clayton Dyers' child, diphtheria, is getting well.

Mrs. Geo. Austin was critically ill during the fore part of the week. The pool room ordinance recently passed by the city council is void.

Miss Aileen Hildreth is rapidly improving from her recent attack of diphtheria.

W. H. Chaney unloaded two cars of cattle here Monday which he will fatten this winter.

The Franklin schools can boast of a fact that no other school of its size in the state can, namely, that the percentage of boys in the High School exceeds that of the girls.

The game between the High School and Academy foot ball teams was won by the latter team.

Miss Kathryn Maser returned to St. Louis Monday morning after a six months' visit at her home in this city.

B. J. Hillsbeck reached home Friday night looking much better and stronger than his friends had anticipated.

The Hevner boys dehorned their big herd of cattle this week; 368 head were dehorned on Wednesday and 340 on Thursday.

Harry McBride is obliged to use a cane when he walks, the trouble coming from injuries he sustained while excavating for his new barn at Diller.

Mrs. A. A. Hadden and three little daughters went to Riverton Tuesday to remain with her parents, until Nov. 2, after which she will start for Wisconsin to join her husband.

Dolen & Bowen, cattle feeders near Macon, suffered a rather peculiar misfortune Monday afternoon during the rain and the damage done will cause considerable loss. A huge grain bin, containing about 15,000 bushels of shelled corn, burst and let a lot of the grain out into the mud.

RIVERTON (From the Review.)

Born at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Suthers, a 11 pound daughter.

A young lady arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boyce last Friday morning.

A fine boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holly Benson Friday morning.

W. H. Hunt is the proud father of a 12 pound son which arrived Sunday morning.

Snow Williams came home from Montana Saturday evening to visit his parents. He has been in California and Montana for about a year.

BLOOMINGTON (From the Advocate.)

The diphtheria scare blew over about as quickly as it came.

E. U. Overman, a Red Cloud lawyer, was in town this week attending court.

Lawrence Waring has been on the sick list with a bad attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

The latest railroad news is that a road is to be built from Beloit, Kansas, to Kearney, Nebraska.

J. M. Barber this week shipped in 200 head of cattle from Corona, Colo., which he will feed this winter.

C. C. Carlile informs us that his daughter, Mrs. Edna Paulson, who lives southeast of Franklin, is very sick with typhoid fever.

The people of this vicinity who have known Grandpa Black for the past twenty years will be sorry to learn of his death at Hastings last Sunday.

Miss Rose Owens has returned from Excelsior Springs, and her many friends will be pleased to know that she has come home very much improved in health.

SUPERIOR (From the Express.)

The son of J. W. Keifer was taken ill at his home in Lincoln this week.

Earl Limes has been appointed to the rank of sergeant since going to Cuba.

Frank Bishop brought in a branch of a plum tree filled with blossoms Tuesday.

A reception was given for Rev. and Mrs. Embree at the Methodist church last Thursday evening.

Friday a large number of the friends of Mrs. Brodstone and daughter Eveline were at the train to say good bye.

It is reported that Sam Weaver, who tried to take too much medicine last week at Nelson, has been taken to the asylum for treatment.

It may be a little out of season to brag about garden sass, but we have had several messes of radishes from our garden the past ten days.

After a lingering illness of several weeks Miss Myrtle Henderson died at the home of her brother, W. C. Henderson, Saturday night, aged 28 years.

A bottle of whiskey, a razor and a gun lying on the table greeted the vision of Judge Roberts Tuesday morning as he went to his office in the City Hall. They had been taken by Marshal Allison, who was called to quiet a family row in the west part of town.

CAMPBELL (From the Citizen.)

Born, on Friday, October 19, to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Roulier, a girl.

A. Forest is building a substantial addition to his home, costing some $400 or $500.

The two new business buildings of the Bank of Campbell and A. G. Hunt are nearing completion.

Clyde Baker accompanied his half-brother, Orlie Gibben, to Omaha, Wednesday morning, where the latter will enter St. Joseph's hospital for treatment.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burden assembled at their home Saturday evening to celebrate in becoming manner the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Campbell opera house, Saturday, the stock was all taken in by Mr. H. Crilly. The price paid by him was 40c on the dollar. Here's wishing him success and hoping his investment will prove remunerative.

E. T. Jones certainly plays in hard luck. Friday, while threshing at Jacob Betz's place, they were making preparations to move the separator, and in some manner quite clear to Jones but a trifle obscure to us, he was tossed by a belt about fourteen feet in the air. He landed on his back, severely wrenching it.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 6, A. D. 1906

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That at the general election for state and Legislative officers to be held on Tuesday, succeeding the first Monday in November, 1906, the following provision be proposed and submitted to the electors of the State as an amendment to the constitution.

Section 2. There shall be a State Railway Commission, consisting of three members, who shall be first elected at the general election in 1906, whose terms of office, except those chosen at the first election under this provision, shall be six years, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the Legislature.

Of the three commissioners first elected, the one receiving the highest number of votes, shall hold his office for six years, the next highest four years, and the lowest two years. The powers and duties of such commission shall include regulation of rates, service and the general control of common carriers, as the legislature may provide by law. But in the absence of specific legislation, the commission shall exercise the powers and perform the duties enumerated in this provision.

Section 3. That at said election in the year 1906, on the ballot of each elector voting thereat, there shall be printed or written the words: "For Constitutional Amendment, with reference to State Railway Commission" and "Against Constitutional Amendment, With Reference to State Railway Commission." And if a majority of all votes cast at said election, shall be for such amendment, the same shall be deemed to be adopted.

I, A. Galusha, secretary of state of the state of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-ninth session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in
