The Old Adage True.

If the suckers were all dead, such concerns as the Globe Association of Chicago, against which the government recently issued a fraud order, would not exist for twenty-four hours. They advertised to sell a $3.50 pair of shoes for 98 cents, and, strange as it may seem, their mail was flooded with remittances from those wanting to take advantage of this philanthropic order. When will people learn that it costs about so much to buy good goods any place? A catalogue house can not sell a $3.50 pair of shoes, that are good value and worth that money, any cheaper than any merchant in any town in this state. This same rule applies to any other article. But the trouble is, people patronize these institutions and imagine they have obtained a bargain, when they really could have bought the same quality right at home for the same or less money. The fact is that even merchants who have been in the business for years cannot always detect the difference in the quality of the goods. Some of these days the large catalogue houses are going to run against the postal laws with a dull thud.

Lebanon Bank Robber tiets Off Easy.

The trial of Bill Chelf, the man who laid his plans to rob the First National Bank of Lebanon and kill the cashier or assistant cashier, came up before Justice Mullen at Smith Center. A proposition was made on behalf of Chelf that he would leave the state and remain away for a period of not less than two years, he admitting the charge, or complaint, as evidence, if the court would fix a bond in such an amount that he could give it. This proposition was approved by the county attorney and the persons interested in the prosecution, and the bond was therefore fixed at $500. The defendant, after furnishing the required bond, promptly left the state.

Sold a Mortgaged Horse.

Vaner McGinnis has at last gotten into serious trouble. A short time ago he bought a team of horses from Ben Anderson, paying a small amount down and giving a mortgage on the team for the balance. One of the horses died and he sold the other to Joe Chaffin, who in turn sold it to John Barkley. Last Saturday Anderson replevined the horse from Barkley and had McGinnis arrested. Vaner was arraigned in court Monday morning, but asked for a continuance of thirty days, which was granted.

The Kitties' Concert.

The Kitties band delightfully entertained probably the largest crowd ever packed into the Red Cloud opera house. The splendid turnout, even at the advanced prices, demonstrated the fact that the people of this vicinity will patronize first class entertainments.

Physical Ills of Temper.

Would you be well? Then control your temper. Do you not know that fits of passion, this giving way to the worst that is in you, does you not only moral and mental, but actual physical harm? Temper invariably interferes with the process of digestion; it carves ugly lines on your faces; it wears upon the tissues, and leaves us physically and mentally exhausted, as well as morally weaker after each indulgence.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Hoodoo on June 1.

In deference to a superstition which has prevailed for many years, there was on June 1 a complete cessation of work at Lord Penrhyn's slate quarries at Bethesda, in Wales, where 4,000 men are employed. The superstition owes its origin to a succession of fatal accidents on Ascension day. Some years ago the management succeeded in inducing the workmen to remain at their posts, but, strange to relate, a fatal accident occurred.
