One of the worst frauds ever foisted upon this state is the wolf bounty law. We know of instances where old wolves are penned up and protected in order that they may breed and their protectors reap the bounty on from five to a dozen coyote scalps. The state is annually robbed of thousands of dollars in this manner.
A union temperance meeting will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Short address by the pastors of the various churches will be given on some phases of the temperance question. The W. C. T. U. has requested that all the pastors in the city preach sermons in the morning along the line of good citizenship.

The one holding the first lucky number gets the next largest doll. The one holding the second lucky number gets the other doll. Your goods cost you no more. —F. NEWHOUSE.
If our information is correct, and we have no reason to doubt it, the delectable and festive lobster will probably form a principal part of the diet of the citizens of Red Cloud and vicinity in the future. Our informant states that Mr. Charles Kesler has made arrangements to begin raising or "farming" lobsters in Kaley's lake. It is stated that he has a car load of salt on the way with which to salt the water in the lake, so the lobsters will not miss their native element.
A dinner was given Wednesday to a number of old ladies at the home of Mrs. Moore. There were at least seven present who were past 80 years old and Grandma Warren, who is nearly 94 years old. Rev. and Mrs. Cressman were honorary guests. It was a delightful occasion. Mrs. Wickersham and Mrs. Douglas seem never so happy as when engaged in making comfortable the declining years of their lady friends. The dinner was a most elaborate one. All in all it was a day long to be remembered by those present. And the thanks of the guests are hereby extended to those who were instrumental in providing this never to be forgotten occasion.

THANKSGIVING!

The day when we go back to the old home to feast on the home-fattened Turkey and the pies that mother makes; the day when Friend meets Friend. The man who goes visiting as well as the man who entertains will, of course, wish to appear at his best. We're ready to strengthen any weak spots in the wardrobe and place a man in condition to appear well on Thanksgiving day.
