a federal appointment, but did not know the nature of it, and was undecided whether he would accept.

An alarm of fire was turned in Sunday at church time. A small prairie fire in the south end of town set fire to a pile of poles and it was feared the high wind would cause the fire to spread. The damage was slight.

Mrs. Georgia Keenon of Republic City, Kan., stopped in Red Cloud Sunday to visit her brother, Homer Morgan. She is on her way to Ft. Collins, Colo., called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Hattie Henderson.

The union meetings at the opera house last Sunday were largely attended. A committee of representatives of the business men and the various churches was appointed to see what could be done toward organizing a Y. M. C. A. here.

Fire at McCook Tuesday destroyed the oil house in the Burlington yards and spread to a livery stable which was destroyed, together with four or five head of horses. Two dwelling houses were also badly damaged. The loss was about $20,000.

Your money refunded if after using three-fourths (3/4) of a tube of ManZan you are dissatisfied. Return the balance of the tube to your druggist, and your money will be cheerfully returned. Take advantage of this offer. Sold by Henry Cook's drug store.

The management of the Oberlin, Kan., opera house stated Saturday night after Mr. Colson and his company had closed their performance of "The County Editor," that it was one of the best shows they had had in the Oberlin opera house. Will be in Red Cloud Wednesday night, April 3rd.

George Williams, living in the south part of town, skipped out Saturday night with a horse and buggy belonging to his wife (?) and through the efforts of Marshal Geer was captured at Burr Oak Sunday. The woman went after the horse and buggy, which she brought home Monday. Williams also came back.

The home of "Bud" DeHart, in Garfield township, was destroyed by fire Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. DeHart went to church and left the small children at home alone. The house and contents were entirely destroyed, but the children escaped unharmed. It is dangerous proceeding to leave small children at home alone. Mr. DeHart has begun to haul out lumber for a new house.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wills are making a thorough canvass of the city in the interest of the new city directory and are meeting with a great deal of encouragement. The directory will be a very useful book for everyone. One thousand copies of the book will be printed, 300 of which will be sent to the directory publishers in the principal cities of the Union, the balance to be sold to the residents of Red Cloud and surrounding towns.

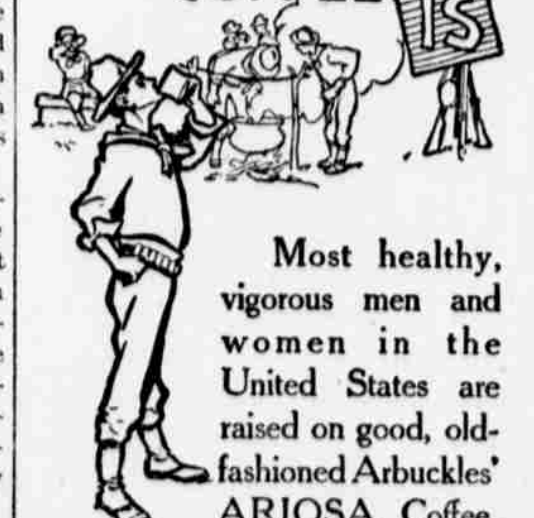

Oscar Burroughs was in the city over Sunday. He says their water works system is working nicely but the water supply is not sufficient. They will be obliged to sink another well. He also told us their municipal lighting plant was on a paying basis and that during February, the first full month the plant was in operation, the receipts exceeded the expenses by about $45. Some of the citizens claim it is cheap as kerosene. Red Cloud is quite proud of the metropolitan proportions she is assuming.—Franklin Sentinel.
