Their music is fine and worth going to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fearn of McCook spent Sunday with relatives in Red Cloud and vicinity. Roy is now working in the Burlington shops at McCook.

Near the north end of Elm street there is an unsightly brush heap that has occupied the center of the street for several weeks. It should be removed.

Since Russell Shields took charge of the Blue Hill Leader there has been a marked improvement in the appearance of the paper and the tone of the articles.

Harry Goble of Fort Cobb, Okla., was shaking hands with friends the first of the week. He will visit in Holdrege and Kearney before returning home.

Pine Salve Carbolyzed acts like a poultice; highly antiseptic, extensively used for Eczema, chapped hands and lips, cuts, burns. Sold by Henry Cook's drug store.

Don't forget the band boys' carnival at Woodman hall, the last four days of next week. There will be all kinds of fun and excitement, and plenty of good music.

M. R. Bentley came in Thursday from Siloam Springs, Ark., on a business and pleasure trip. He looks as though the climate of "old Arkansas" agreed with him.

At their meeting Monday night the band boys decided to give their open air concerts on Friday evenings instead of Tuesday evenings, as announced last week.

The city council of Franklin has made provision for a series of hitching posts near the center business in that town. Our hitching posts seem as far away as ever.

Mrs. Nellie Tisington and Miss Dorris Cheatham returned Monday to their home in Des Moines, Ia., and were accompanied by their cousin, William Parkes, Sr.

One of C. M. Smith's livery teams ran away Wednesday, near the river bridge, and smashed the buggy. Joe Saladen caught the horses and tied them to a telephone pole.

P. A. Martin of Minonk, Ill.; John M. Martin of Vancouver, Wash.; J. K. Martin and T. L. Trowbridge, both of Blue Hill, came down from that village this morning on business. The Martins are all sons of the late Jotham Martin.

A rumor was current Monday morning that Mike Donovan had again been "touched," this time for $1400. There was no foundation for the story other than that either himself or somebody else had disarranged the "furniture" in his room.

The management of the state fair has closed a contract with Charles J. Strobel of Toledo, O., acknowledged to be the world's premier airship manipulator, for making a series of daily flights on the fair grounds at Lincoln, September 2 to 6.

Karl Spence, who attended business college here last winter and worked in the Argus office, has taken charge of the Bladen Enterprise. He is an experienced printer and a hustler, and will no doubt give the people of that section of the county a good paper.

The Quiet Dresser

The Quiet Dresser is just as particular about the cut of his Suit as the ultra Fashionable Fellow.

While radical changes in styles do not appeal to him, he insists upon all the little variations that each season introduces. His Coat and Vest must be of the correct length and the lapels of the latest width and depth; and the Trousers neither too wide nor too narrow; but just right.

This is the store for these conservative and refined dressers. Our eyes are always focused on the new features as fast as they come out.

A choice variety of conservative models in every kind of Suiting—black, blues, many shades of grays, browns and all sorts of neat mixtures.

Rae's Excellent Company, which is playing a week stand at the opera house, is the best repertoire company that has been here in years, and the members are ladies and gentlemen. The specialties and moving pictures are good. The company deserves a better patronage than it has thus far received.

Any person attending the new three-act comedy-drama, "Our Old Kentucky Home," and not being entirely satisfied after seeing two acts, can have their money refunded at the box office. If the show don't please you, step to the office, say so, and get your money back.—WARREN MOORE, Manager "Our Old Kentucky Home."

Don't be in a hurry when you buy a piano. Look over the beautiful new cases at Argabright's Studio and compare grades and prices. Nothing better has ever been shown in the city, and terms and prices are made to suit you. You know the place—upstairs, where street noises don't interfere with the most delicate gradations of tone. "The tone is the thing."

The city directory gotten up by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wills has been printed and delivered. It is replete with glaring blunders and is a very poor specimen of the printer's art. The book contains from $250 to $300 worth of advertising, a great deal of it coming from people who do not patronize the newspapers. The promoters of the scheme probably cleaned up $400 in Red Cloud.

H. W. Egert of Minneapolis, Minn., was in Red Cloud this week. He is looking for a location to go into the milling business, and is negotiating with R. B. Kummer with a view to buying his mill or entering the business as a partner. Mr. Egert went out to Oxford, but is expected to return here tomorrow. A Mr. Green of Campbell is also negotiating for the purchase of the mill.

Right now would be a good time to start a movement to provide a "rest room," where farmers' wives, daughters and little children can go and rest and "clean up" when in town on business. There are plenty of places where the men can go to loaf and enjoy themselves, but no provision is made for the worn-out mother with an armful of bundles and a lapful of fretful "kids." Let's get busy.
