

LOCALETTES

Ed. McAllister went to Franklin Monday.

J. P. Delaney was down from Glenville Sunday.

Prof. John Weesner spent Sunday in Webber, Kans.

A. H. Carpenter and family went to Imperial, Neb., Monday.

Miss Jennie Cotting returned Saturday from an outing in Colorado.

Mayor Caldwell requests that everybody clean up for the Chautauqua.

H. W. Conover has been appointed deputy treasurer of Red Willow county.

Mrs. Thomas Lain and son John went to Omaha Monday morning for a visit.

Mrs. W. N. Richardson went to Axtel, Neb., Tuesday to visit with relatives.

George Van Camp came down from Omaha Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

L. H. Blackledge and family left Sunday morning for an outing in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Gravenor Stanser are the parents of a daughter, born last Saturday.

Mrs. S. Reigle and granddaughter, Florence Kellogg, went to Hebron Saturday.

D. A. Dickey returned from Wymore Sunday, where he took in the race meeting.

Mrs. L. D. Thomas of Cowles visited with her son, Dr. T. E. Thomas, the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Richardson returned last Sunday from an extended visit in Sunrise, Wyoming.

A number of the friends of Mrs. Henry McCune gave her a surprise party last Friday evening.

Rev. F. M. Branie, the new pastor of the Christian church, has moved his family to Red Cloud.

Mrs. Mark Parkes came down from McCook Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Will Parkes, Sr.

For a short time we will receive subscriptions to The Delineator at 75c per annum. F. Newhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Indianapolis are visiting at the home of John Harris, south of the river.

Mrs. Eva J. Case, one of the instructors at the Kearney Normal, was visiting with friends here this week.

L. M. Marsh, who has been working in Wolfe's blacksmith shop, has gone to Bladen to work for Oliver Wright.

Mrs. Charles Dickerson and children, of Lincoln, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kiser.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold their regular monthly market at Fulton Bros. store tomorrow.

All kinds of Staple  Fancy

Groceries

Your Patronage is Solicited by

McFARLAND
The GROCER
All the Phones

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Mr. and Mrs. James Dugdale of Gibbon, were here this week to attend the funeral of the latter's father, William Allsop.

Elenora Reed, widow of John A. Reed has been granted a pension of $8 per month. Fred Marner was her attorney.

John Sutton and Frank Coulson, prominent farmers of Walnut Creek, were in Red Cloud yesterday to see the ball game.

Engineer Will La Rue and his family were in Red Cloud Wednesday on their way from Republican City for a visit in Missouri.

About thirty members of the Degree of Honor went out to the home of W. J. Lippincott last night and enjoyed a moonlight picnic.

Miss Josephine Mizer and Mrs. S. R. Florence arrived from Chicago Saturday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mizer.

Misses Irma Vance of Hastings and Barbara Schuebel of Omaha returned to their homes Monday after a visit with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Jud Bailey drove over to Cowles Wednesday morning to visit Mr. Bailey's daughter, Mrs. Harry Waller.

Max Moede was prostrated with the heat Monday afternoon while working in the field. He is getting along nicely now, though still unable to work.

If the Chautauqua is not a success it will not be the fault of Paul S. Dietrick, for he has labored unceasingly to make the event a credit to our city.

There was a partial eclipse of the moon Wednesday night at 11 o'clock, visible in this latitude. Nearly the whole surface of the moon was obscured.

The state board of assessment has about completed its work. The report shows that the assessed valuation of Webster county has increased $156,611.48.

Bracelets are still the popular articles. We have a most extensive line for ladies, misses and children. All styles. Prices the lowest. Newhouse Bros.

J. E. Robertson of Crete, stopped off in Red Cloud on his way home from a trip to Colorado. He is a brother of Herbert Robertson, engineer at the light plant.

Big $150 and $450 attractions, for one or two appearances, and all for 10 cents. You will kick yourself if you do not get one of those season tickets to the Chautauqua.

Allen McCoy stuck a knife in his hand the first of the week and for a time blood-poisoning threatened to set in, but he will soon be able to go to work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong, relatives of Jud Bailey and wife, started for Culbertson Neb., yesterday morning. They have a farm in that vicinity where they will make their future home.

The Indians walloped the Cowles-Lawrence-Blue Hill combination at Cowles last Saturday to the tune of 6 to 0. The Cowles combination had twelve errors to their credit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kindred, of Smith Center Kans., were in Red Cloud on their honeymoon trip the first of the week. Mr. Kindred is a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Noble of Walnut Creek.

Rev. Ward Austin, pastor of the M. E. church will preach at Geneva Sunday, both morning and evening. His pulpit in this city will be occupied Sunday morning by Rev. George Hummel.

When Father Fitzgerald went to get the communion wine for the service last Sunday the jug was found to be empty. As there was no crack in the jug, it is a mystery what became of the wine.

Do you realize that next Monday is the opening day of the Chautauqua assembly? Get busy, mow your weeds and lawns, clean up your alleys and show the visitors what a nice town this is.

The amount of sidewalk building does not seem to decrease. As fast as the cement gangs finish at one place they have another in sight. There is also a considerable amount of brick walk being laid.

We noticed County Treasurer Frahm going up the street with a new garden rake Tuesday morning. Since then we have been speculating as to whether he was going to do a little "muck-raking" or expected to retire to his farm after this year.

W. C. Doley, of Bloomington, and Isaac Shepherdson, of Riverton, were in town Friday, getting acquainted with the publican voters of Red Cloud. Mr. Dorsey is the candidate of Franklin county for district judge.

The bites and stings of insects, tan, sunburn, cuts, burns and bruises are relieved at once with Pinesalve Carbolyzed. Acts like a poultice, and draws out inflammation. Try it. Price 25c. Sold by Healy Cook's Drug Store.

Frank Salsler suffered a painful injury to his left eye Monday while

Midsummer Clean-Up

In Odds and Ends of our Spring and Summer Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits. 20 per cent discount on all this class of merchandise.

Ederheimer, Stein & Co.
MAKERS

Great Special Hat Sale!

For thirty days we will give the people of Red Cloud and vicinity the greatest hat buying opportunity ever attempted here. Your choice in our stock of Men's and Boys' high grade HATS at actual cost to manufacture. This sale will include

Stetsons, Tigers and Champions

(the highest grade hats made.) All Dress Straw Hats at one-half the regular price, PANAMAS INCLUDED. This sale commences at once, and is for cash. Come early for choice selections.

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.

First door north of Post Office, - - Red Cloud, Nebraska trimming peach trees. The sharp point of one of the branches struck him in the eye, scratching the pupil, and he is carefully nursing it to prevent further injury.

Officer Kinsel made the rounds last Monday morning and ordered all the slot machines in the city taken out. There was some consternation when the order was given, but the new state law has put the ban on them and they are out to stay.

Vaner McGinnis is serving a thirty day sentence in the Webster county jail for having assaulted a man at Alma the other day. It makes little difference where Vaner goes or what he does, he generally lands in the Webster county jail.

Rev. Ray R. Teeter, pastor of the Brethren church in Falls City Neb., and who is secretary and treasurer of the Brethren National Ministerial Association, is to be the platform manager of the Red Cloud Chautauqua, writes: "Our Chautauqua started off fine in Falls City. Boost the Kilties, they are immense". The Kilties have just returned from Jamestown Exposition and are better than ever this year. Do not miss this treat: A $2 season ticket admits to the whole 10 days show.

difference where Vaner goes or what he does, he generally lands in the Webster county jail.

Rev. Ray R. Teeter, pastor of the Brethren church in Falls City Neb., and who is secretary and treasurer of the Brethren National Ministerial Association, is to be the platform manager of the Red Cloud Chautauqua, writes: "Our Chautauqua started off fine in Falls City. Boost the Kilties, they are immense". The Kilties have just returned from Jamestown Exposition and are better than ever this year. Do not miss this treat: A $2 season ticket admits to the whole 10 days show.