

LOCALETTES

Rocking horses at Cotting's. Buckwheat Ben at Fulton's. Bolls cabs, cradles, etc., at Cotting's. See L. A. Haskins for fine potatoes. Cranberries for Christmas at Fulton's. E. L. Perryman was in Hastings Sunday.

Distriet Clerk Hutchison is in Texas this week.

A. B. C. coffee's as good as the best, at Fulton's.

George Van Camp of Brush, Colo., is in the city.

Station Agent J. F. Edwards was in Hastings this week.

Mrs. J. M. Carnahan was down from Riverton Thursday.

Charley Rants came in from McCook the first of the week.

Lucius Frisbie is home from the Wesleyan university.

Dan Pomeroy of Riverton was a Red Cloud visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rose of Inavale were in town yesterday.

Colonel Isaac Shepardson was down from Riverton yesterday.

W. E. Rife of the Blue Valley Fruit Co. was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. B. E. McFarland went to McCook Thursday for a short visit.

Newhouse Bros. carry the complete list of Edison Phonograph records.

Frank Goble returned to his home in East St. Louis Tuesday morning.

Three cars lump coal for sale, $7.50 per ton if sold in ten days. J. O. Caldwell.

Dresser scarfs and table covers in Austrian fillet work at F. Newhouse's.

Ladies' all wool underwear at F. Newhouse's. Now is the time to buy.

Moore's Non-Leakable Fountain Pen is the best. Sold by Cotting, the druggist.

Peter Hansen's little girl is very sick and it is feared pneumonia may develop.

Ernest Woods, formerly with this paper, has accepted a position on the Argus.

Mrs. O. A. Nelson is confined to her bed with a threatened attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. A. M. Walters of Blue Hill, mother of Mrs. W. C. Frahm, is seriously ill.

Ray Gard came over from North Branch, Kan., yesterday, to spend the holidays.

A handsome line of Mexican linen drawnwork at reasonable prices. F. Newhouse.

Dr. E. A. Thomas is making a tour of the southwest on a homeseking expedition.

Oscar Enick underwent a surgical operation yesterday and is getting along nicely.

Henry Phares will go to Topeka, Kan., the first of next week for a visit with friends.

Mrs. George Heaton and son Ed will leave soon for an extended visit in Pennsylvania.

Frank Mizer left Monday night for Portland, Oregon, where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. Horton of Crown Point, Ind., visited here this week with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Frahm.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Olmsted and Mrs. Charles Stoner of Inavale were Red Cloud visitors yesterday.

The semi-annual apportionment of the state school fund gives the Webster county schools $2,884.95.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eshelman came home Saturday from an extended visit to their old home in Canton, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kubiak of Republican City are the parents of a 2½-pound boy, born a few days ago.

F. Newhouse went to Hastings yesterday noon to spend the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. L. M. Vance.

Newhouse Bros. have placed a fine flashlight sign, an illuminated clock dial, in front of their jewelry store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillard of Naponee are expected to arrive Sunday morning to spend Christmas with relatives and friends.

Drs. W. Erick & Riddile, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialists, Glasses ftt d. Over German National Bank, Hastings, Nebr.

August Ringling, head of the Ringling Bros., Barnum & Bailey and Sells-Forpaugh shows, died Wednesday at New Orleans, La.

Stephen Claggett returned to his home in Kirwin, Kan., today, after a three weeks' visit with his brother-in-law, Dr. O. A. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Trueblood left Friday evening for McDonald, Kan., called there by the serious illness of Mr. Trueblood's father.

Charlie McMillian went to Blue Hill the first of the week, where he took charge of the harness store owned by W. A. Holmes of this city.

Prof. A. A. Edwards, state inspector of schools, was in the city last Saturday, and while here was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. D. M. Abel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Babcock and son of Denver and Mr. Charles Babcock of Arizona are guests of their sister, Mrs. William Martindale.

Hereafter The Chief will charge the regular advertising rate for all notices of church and other entertainments where the object is to make money.

The snow and cold snap came at the right time to stimulate holiday trade and as a consequence merchants in general are enjoying good business.

Mrs. Winfield Palmer of Inavale precinct is staying at the home of her brother-in-law, C. S. Palmer, while talking medical treatment in this city.

The Congregational Sunday School is preparing a box of Christmas toy and clothing, to be sent to the Children's home at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Prof. Alvin Snapp and Marion Mercer went down to Superior Wednesday to meet the musicians of that city with a view to organizing a band there.

The Red Cloud high school football team challenges any high school team in the Republican valley. They claim the championship and are looking for games.

Next Tuesday evening the children's Christmas exercises will be given at the Congregational church, following which there will be distribution of presents.

Division Superintendent Young came down from McCook Monday morning in his private car. He went from here to Oberlin in the afternoon with a special train.

Harry Beal, who has been located in Blue Hill for about a year, visited relatives here Monday and left that night for California, where he will probably locate.

A large audience greeted "Pickings From Puck" at the opera house last Friday night. While at times the play grew rather racy, the majority of the audience enjoyed it.

Just now, during the holiday rush, when the ladies from the country are tired out with holiday shopping and have no place to rest, shows the necessity for a "rest room."

The Methodist Sunday school will have a Christmas tree and present the cantata "Christmas Messenger," at the church next Tuesday evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

Percy McBride has sold his jewelry business at Kearney and, after a short visit with relatives here, left the first

What About Christmas Presents ?

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO BUY THE MEN AND BOYS OF THE FAMILY???

We point with pride to our choice selections of

Copyright 1907
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

Men's Furnishings for the Holiday Trade

We've exclusive and elegant NECKWEAR, the best makes of GLOVES, perfection in SHIRTS AND COLLARS, the best brands of UNDERWEAR, choice HOSIERY, MUFFLERS, NIGHT ROBES, UMBRELLAS, HOUSE COATS, Etc. All reasonably priced.

Men's, Boys' and Childrens Suits and Overcoats, Shoes, Hats and Caps.

Men's Suits $5.50 to 25.00. All good reliable goods and backed by our guarantee. Men's Overcoats $5.50 to 30.00—Meltons, Vincennes, Kerseys, Friezes and Furs.

We invite Christmas shoppers to visit our store. We are sure you will find what you want.

The Cowden-Kaley Clothing Co.

ALWAYS RELIABLE

First Door North of Postoffice

McFarlands

Christmas Trees
Mistletoe and HOLLY

Candies 10 to 50c per pound.
Nuts 20 to 25c per pound.
(Cheaper in large lots.)

Oranges, Apples and Bananas.
Ben Davis Apples $1.50 bu.
Fine Baldwins and Genetins
50c per peck.

High Patent Flour $1.35.
Second Grade $1.25.

McFARLAND

The Grocer

All the Phones

of the week for Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to locate.

Rev. A. A. Cressman, pastor of the congregational church, will preach a special Christmas sermon next Sunday evening, and the music will be appropriate for the occasion.

Mrs. T. C. Hacker returned the first of the week from a visit in Nemaha county. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Bradfield of Custer, Okla., who will visit here for awhile.

J. M. Burgess has moved from his Fairview Stock Farm, near Inavale, to Red Cloud. He and his family are now occupying the residence just south of N. Longtin's, on Elm street.

On January 14 Grand Master A. M. Valling of the A. O. U. W. will meet with No. 60. A class will be initiated and a supper served. Every member is earnestly invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kralik and daughter Katie left Thursday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, for a visit with relatives and friends. From there they expect to go to Ohio for a visit.

Seven inches of snow Monday night and the mercury hugging the zero mark Wednesday morning was quite a change from the balmy weather of Saturday and Sunday. However, if this cold snap holds out for a few days longer we can feel assured of a "white Christmas"—always a good omen.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

Prof. Alvin Snapp of Red Cloud will hold a meeting in this city next Wednesday night for the purpose of organizing a band. Everybody interested should be present.—Superior Express.

Capt. F. Houchin came home last Friday from College View, where he has been taking treatment at a sanitarium. The Captain's health was greatly improved, and he said he "felt like a boy again."

Saunders Bros., the enterprising lumber and coal dealers of this city, are presenting to their customers and friends who call at their office a handsome souvenir in the way of a beautiful wall pocket calendar.

F. E. Goble and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goble returned to their home in Fort Cobb, Okla., Tuesday morning. They took with them the little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Fulton, for whose life the mother gave up her own.

Rev. F. M. Branie, who has been pastor of the Christian church for the past few months, has resigned his charge and, in company with his family, will leave next Tuesday for Faragut, Iowa, where he has a call to preach.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tulleys will arrive Monday from Salina, Kan., to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends. This will be "Bud's" first visit to Red Cloud in several years, and his old friends will be glad to see him.

N. Longtin and son Warren went to Clyde, Kan., Monday morning, being called there by the serious illness of Mr. Longtin's brother, Lephile, who was a resident of Red Cloud about twenty years ago, and was better known here as "Phil" Longtin.

H. E. ASHER
Veterinarian
BLUE HILL - NEBRASKA
Will be in Red Cloud Saturdays at Smith's barn.

Fulton Grocer Co

Headquarters for GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Telephone Your Orders

BETTER STILL—

Call at Store and Leave Your Order.