

Your Hair Contrary?

Is it inclined to run away? Don't punish it with a cruel brush and comb! Feed it, nourish it, save it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Then your hair will remain at home, on your head, where it belongs. An elegant dressing. Keeps the scalp healthy.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Ayer's

We certainly believe this, or we would not say so. Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, is a great preparation for the hair and scalp. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff. Promotes the growth of hair.

Deaths and Funerals.

George W. Garber.

Sunday evening, December 22, 1907, occurred the death of George Garber at his home in Guide Rock. Mr. Garber had been sick for several months with rheumatism. He was born at Salem, Jewell county, Kansas, December 29, 1876. In just one week he would have been 31 years old. He was the oldest child of "Dick" Garber. A few years ago he was married to Miss Minnie Sides. His wife and five small children survive him. He also left a father and three sisters, Mrs. Alice Ely of Guide Rock, Mrs. Clara Prather of Hubbell and Miss Hazel Garber of Alexandria. There are also some half-brothers and sisters.

Union Week of Prayer Services.

The Week of Prayer will be observed by the churches of Red Cloud in a union effort, as follows: Monday evening at the Episcopal church, subject, "The Manifestation of God in Christ"; Tuesday evening, Congregational church, subject, "The Triumphs of Faith"; Wednesday evening, Christian church, subject, "The Church Made Glorious"; Thursday evening, Baptist church, subject, "Missions—Home and Foreign"; Friday evening, Methodist church, subject, "Intemperance the Master Curse"; Saturday, Brethren church, subject, "Christian Unity." This will be a rich thing for the churches of this city. Let us cultivate and manifest the true spirit of love and Christian fellowship by attending and taking some part in these meetings.

Young Tough Causes Trouble at Guide Rock.

From the Signal.

A young man of questionable character had been lying idle in this city for several days. Last Saturday an educational lecture was held in Red Cloud and several from here attended. This young man also went, not for the knowledge he would obtain, and while there imbibed too much "firewater" to retain the right amount of good sense needful to keep people out of trouble.

He started back and reached a small bridge a short distance from Guide Rock, where he halted and, pulling out weapons, proceeded to hold up all who came along. At last two men came along with a drove of cattle and, having an advantage the others did not possess, they slipped between their cattle, surrounded and disarmed him. He was secured and sent to town, where he was placed under arrest, but received aid in plenty to get away. The safety of our citizens has many times been in danger, but affairs do not seem to be mended by previous experiments.

Wedding Bells.

Hummel-Walker.

On New Year day, at 4 o'clock p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pierce, occurred the wedding of the latter's sister, Miss Sarah Hummel, and Mr. William Walker. Both the contracting parties live in Grand View, Iowa. Rev. G. W. Hummel, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a few near relatives. After the ceremony a supper was served and a general social time was had. The newly married couple left this morning for their home in Grand View, Ia.

Mann-Kelly.

A very quiet little wedding occurred Wednesday at the Burlington hotel. Miss Effie Mann, head waitress of that popular hostelry, was united in marriage to Mr. Winfred J. Kelly, night operator at the Burlington depot. Rev. I. W. Edson said the words that united the happy couple. Following the ceremony the bride and groom, Landlord and Mrs. Crans and the officiating clergyman partook of an elaborate little wedding feast.

Thornehill-Spence.

Fred Spence of Bladen and Miss Nedra Thornehill of Trenton, were married at Wray, Col., Monday afternoon of last week, and are now staying at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spence, in Bladen, until a house can be secured. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thornehill of Trenton. The groom attended business college here and was at one time a member of the Argus force.

Thomas C. Woods and Miss Jessie R. Laird, both of Webster county, were married last Thursday evening, Rev. G. W. Hummel officiating.

Last Saturday Edward H. Harding of Cambridge and Miss Maude J. McComb of Wilsonville, Neb., were married in this city, Judge I. W. Edson officiating.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon Ind., says: "My wife had Inflammatory Rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by H. E. Grice Drugist, Red Cloud.

Coroner's Jury Unable to Locate Blame for Death of Mrs. Smith.

Seward, Neb., Jan. 1.—After being in session a week and examining and re-examining twenty-six witnesses, the coroner's jury found that Mrs. Frank Smith, who was murdered in a farm house near Millard on Dec. 16, came to her death from a blow on the head dealt by an unknown person. Excitement is high here over the brutal murder and the county commissioners and the governor will be urged to offer rewards for the apprehension of the murderer. A Bohemian was murdered in the same vicinity a year ago in a similar manner and the murderer was never apprehended. Nothing was taken from the Smith home, so that robbery was not the motive. Witnesses declared she had no enemies and revenge was not the object. Mrs. Smith was found late in the afternoon of Dec. 16 with her skull crushed by a blow dealt with a singletree.

GIRL IS SERIOUSLY BURNED

Merna Nelson of Beaver Crossing Painfully Injured, but Will Recover.

Seward, Neb., Jan. 1.—Merna Nelson, daughter of George Nelson, a farmer living near Beaver Crossing, was painfully burned when her dress suddenly caught fire and burst into a flame, enveloping her. She was sitting close to a hot stove at the time. Her parents were away. The child ran into the yard and rushing, a human torch, to the cattle corral, jumped into a tank of water. About the shoulders the flesh was cooked. She will recover.

Lincoln, Dec. 28.—BREWSTER SPENCER, aged twenty-six, of New York, a young man of evident wealth, died on the eastbound Burlington train as it entered Lincoln last evening. The remains were taken from the train here and will be prepared for shipment to New York. Spencer, accompanied by a physician, had been to California in search of health, and was trying to reach home before he died. Dr. Greenstone of Brooklyn, the physician, will accompany the remains.

Carnegie Library for Fairbury. Fairbury, Neb., Dec. 31.—Notification was received from Andrew Carnegie that he had donated $10,000 for a public library for Fairbury under the usual conditions—the donation of a site and appropriation of $1,000 a year for maintenance.
