GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader)

Heinie Marie has been laid up the past week with a badly swollen limb as the result of a sprained knee.

Miss Alexander was called to her home at Hastings last week on account of the sickness of her father.

Charles Schnase and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kruger were called to Cordova last Thursday by the illness of John Schnase, who is the father of Charles Schnase and Mrs. Kruger.

Art Schunk had an accident yesterday in which his tongue fared pretty badly. He was driving a team hitched to a lumber wagon when the tongue came down. This frightened the team and Art was thrown against the side of the wagon, his mouth striking on the box. He stayed with the team, though, and succeeded in quieting them, regardless of his injury.

GUIDE ROCK.

(From the Signal.)

Warren Vance, assistant principal, handed in his resignation to the school board last week and George Simpson was hired in his place.

Rev. Willahan preached his farewell sermon Sunday morning. They go next week to Erie, Pa., where he has been called to the pastorate of the Westville Baptist church.

Commissioners Hummel and Ohmstede were inspecting the river bridge at this place Tuesday and no doubt will order some riprapping done at the south approach to lessen the danger of washing out when the ice breaks up.

Frank Cooper met with an accident last week that might have proved very serious. While out canvassing near Nelson his horse became frightened, jumped to one side, overturned the buggy and threw him to the ground, rendering him unconscious.

RIVERTON

(From the Review.)

Walter Moore has closed a deal with Chittick & Chitwood for their elevator, paying them $4000 for it.

Some miserable scamp stole Carl Onstot's fur overcoat from his buggy Saturday evening while he had his team tied in front of the butcher shop.

Last Saturday evening the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Phinney, six and one-half miles southwest of town, gave them a surprise party in honor of the thirty first anniversary of their wedding.

Miss Marzora James and Chester Shelton were running horse races one day last week. Although Mr. Shelton's horses went so fast that he was unable to stay with them, Miss James won the money.

While Mrs. Dunkin and Mrs. Kelso were returning from Franklin Sunday the team became frightened and ran away, throwing Mrs. Dunkin out. The team turned and made a circle, and came near running over her.

LEBANON.

(From the Argus.)

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Heschel, Thursday morning, January 23.

Will Rowden was in town the first of the week with a pommel, which he disposed of to someone who wanted to indulge in the darkey's favorite dish.

J. H. and Steve Frazier of Paleo are here this week helping to care for their mother, who is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Hartman.

The high price at which wheat is selling, together with good roads and good weather, filled the mill to overflowing Monday, some thirty loads being delivered that day. The price paid was 90 cents.

Mrs. Curt Barker will be taken to a hospital within a few days for treatment for complete nervous breakdown. Some two years ago her daughter was so badly burned that death resulted, and brooding over this has caused the breakdown.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger)

Jake Bennett of Reamsville is having a serious time with one of his legs. He received an injury to the leg several years ago and of late it has been giving him much trouble and it is feared that the leg will have to be amputated.

We are glad to report that Dr. Slagle is rapidly improving. Mrs. Slagle returned home Monday night, leaving the doctor out of danger.

Smith Center had occasion to try its new electric fire alarm apparatus Tuesday. An alarm was sent in and immediately the big gong on Main street and the fire whistle at the mill began to tingle and scream, bringing people out from all places.

Clarence Sprague, the young fellow who forged the checks here a couple of weeks ago, was caught in Michigan and held until Sheriff Heifenstine called for him. The sheriff returned with him Tuesday. Yesterday he pleaded guilty to forgery and was placed in the county jail for safekeeping until the next term of court. The kodak and camera that were stolen from Stone's photograph gallery were found in his possession.

SUPERIOR

(From the Journal.)

Master Ernest Woerner met with a very bad accident Sunday morning. He was running across a foot bridge when in some way he became overbalanced and fell, which made him unconscious for about two hours.

One of the victims in the Boyertown, Pa., opera house fire was George Parson, who in 1903 came here from Pennsylvania with his old chum, Levi Wolfskill, and worked in J. L. Galbreth's cigar factory in this city. He and his wife lost their lives in that horrible disaster.

J. Larson, fireman on local train No. 210 of the Chicago & Northwestern, risked his life on Monday afternoon near Exeter, by rescuing little Carl Delaney from instant death beneath the wheels of his engine. The child was noticed by Mr. Larson standing on a rail several rods ahead of his engine, when he darted from the cab and made his way to the front of the engine just in time to shove the little child from the track and save his life. Master Carl is the son of Mrs. Winnie Delaney, a teacher in the grammar school at Exeter.

BLOOMINGTON

(From the Tribune.)

Charley Moffet was tickled Monday morning when the old family cow presented him with a whole team of oxen.

Will Greening, in his industry of cutting wood for his wife, took a wide shot at his foot with the axe, cutting it badly.

Some hungry individual "accumulated" a quarter of fresh beef which Mrs. Delinger had stored in a shed at her place in town.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ghtcher Wednesday morning, making them the possessors of a full male quartet.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McClelland, whose birth we mentioned only about three weeks ago, died Thursday and was buried the following day.

George Wright, who was brought before the insanity commission last Saturday, on complaint of his wife and other citizens of Hildreth, had his examination and was adjudged insane.

The members of the G. A. R. and Relief Corps collected together Saturday evening and went en masse to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stinson, where a very pleasant evening was spent. The day was the 58th anniversary of the wedding of that worthy couple.

CAMPBELL

(From the Citizen.)

August Hiskel, who met with such a severe accident last week, is rapidly recovering.

The home of John Bartels and most of the contents, southwest of town, were destroyed by fire Sunday evening about 9 o'clock. The loss is about $1000.

Miss Skjelver met with a severe fall while attending a skating party at John Peterson's, eleven miles southwest of town, Tuesday evening. Her shoulder was badly bruised.

A terrible tragedy was narrowly averted at the home of L. Bourdeau, Monday. The little boy, about a year and a half old spilled a quantity of gasoline, and just as he was discovered by an older playmate the gas became ignited. Mrs. Bourdeau seized the child, who was enveloped in flames, and thrust it into a tub of water, after which she put out the fire. By her promptness and presence of mind the child escaped with a few slight burns.

A. L. Burkholder has a broken rib and is otherwise somewhat disfigured as the result of two accidents, the first being the first. Monday evening, while driving home from town, his team of mules became frightened and started to run. Mr. Burkholder was thrown out and a wheel was ed over his body, breaking a rib. Two days later, while driving along the same road, with the same team, the linchpin of his wagon came out, the tongue dropped and the driver was thrown to the ground. He struck on his head, cutting an ugly gash, and one shoulder was badly jammed.

The Wonderful Big Horn Basin

To Renters

I have a selected list of irrigated farms in the Basin for rent; why not rent for a year or two and learn the profits from irrigated farming in the Basin, and become acquainted with the climate and desirability of settling in that region? We also help you homestead irrigated lands, or to buy them at prices that will make you money. Millions of dollars are now being spent irrigating Basin lands. Homeseekers' excursions first and third Tuesdays of 1908. Write D. Clem Deaver, General Agent Land-seekers' Information Bureau, Omaha.

Winter Excursions

Homeseekers' excursions first and third Tuesdays to Colorado, Wyoming, Big Horn Basin, Northwest, Southwest and South; Winter Tourist Rates daily to Florida, the Gulf Country, the South and Southern California. Ask Agent or the undersigned for rates and details.

J. F. EDWARDS, Ticket Agent.

PANHANDLE, TEXAS,

Excursion Dates are the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of Each Month

We have made arrangements to handle lands through one of the largest and best land companies in the United States and we can sell you as fine land as the sun ever shone on at $15 per acre; $4 per acre cash, and the balance on 10 years' time at 6 per cent interest.

With $4 per acre down you and your neighbors who are renting a farm may just as well buy one of their own on long time and a low rate of interest.

Our company has sold 800,000 acres of this choice land on these favorable terms to parties, in many instances, who could not purchase land in any other way, and are thus enabled to secure a home.

Don't wait until you get a little more money, as the land is liable to advance as fast as your pile of money will grow, but get in on the ground floor and get the advance yourself.

Our Next Excursion Will Be Tuesday, February 4, 1908.

Our next excursion date is Tuesday, January 21, 1908, and we stand ready to show you a good thing at a moderate cost and we extend an invitation to you to come to our office and talk it over with us and make arrangements to take advantage of this rare opportunity to secure a farm in a land of great opportunities.

Pecos Valley, New Mexico.

We have choice land in the Pecos Valley in the irrigated district for any one who desires to purchase that kind of land, and we can show you some of the best bargains in irrigated land that you can find under any water service.
