

Non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla

If you think you need a tonic, ask your doctor. If you think you need something for your blood, ask your doctor. If you think you would like to try Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla, ask your doctor. Consult him often. Keep in close touch with him.

We publish our formulae We banish alcohol from our medicine We urge you to consult your doctor

Ask your doctor to name some of the results of constipation. His long list will begin with sick-headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then ask him if he would recommend your using Ayer's Pills.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

SUPERIOR

(From the Express.)

J. S. Marshall of the Webber country returned from Kansas City Tuesday where he has been to have an operation.

John Martin of north of Bostwick, was in Superior Saturday, getting figures on lumber for a fine large house which he expects to build this summer.

Harry White of Hardy took Dr. Wait L. Brodstone and Mr. Kays to the Odd Fellows meeting at Nelson Monday night. They report a big time and a fine banquet.

SMITH CENTER

(From the Messenger)

W. T. Fay is the name of the new man at the Chicago Lumber & Coal company here and he hails from Burr Oak.

Frank Yocum, who has been the depot telegraph operator for five or six years here, goes to Phillipsburg to take care of the operator's position at the depot there.

A. L. Davenny received a message the first of the week stating that his stepmother, Mrs. T. W. Davenny, has been stricken with paralysis and was lying in a critical condition at her home in Eireno, Oklahoma.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Burwell of Crystal Plains township, Wednesday evening, March 25, Mr. John E. Wagner and Miss Sarah Evaline Burwell, more commonly known as Eva Burwell, were united in marriage.

BLADEN

(From the Enterprise.)

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rudd will depart on or about the 15th of this month for Boulder, Colorado, where he purchased a place last week.

A number of the "Old Maids" of Bladen surprised Miss Elvessa Stewart Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday. All the old maids were dressed as ghosts.

A farewell reception was given Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rudd last evening by the ladies of Bladen, at the home of M. and Mrs. Chas. Spence.

Chas. Boom is building a fine large cottage on the ground recently purchased by him in the west part of town from Chris Bierhaus.

Wm. Jennings of Daveuport, who has recently purchased the bank stock and residence of A. R. Rudd, arrived Monday evening and started in as cashier of the bank the first of the month.

BLUE HILL.

(From the Leader)

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huse who reside north of town, last Friday a boy.

Wm. Bostock is having an addition built on his house near the mill which is occupied by Ed. Wilson.

Mrs. Jotham Martin was given a pleasant surprise by her children and grand children last Saturday evening that being her 89 birthday.

Last Saturday evening twenty-seven children and grand children of Mr. and Mrs. T. Schlichtman gathered at their home to help them celebrate their golden wedding.

W. C. Frahm was up from Red Cloud Friday looking over the work of repairing the cellar and fixing the ground so as to commence the construction of his new building.

Grandma Kruger died yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock after an illness of about five months caused by cancer of the stomach. She was 77 years, 6 months and 22 days of age.

Ora White recently purchased of John Pohl the house which the latter owned, and was located just west of where he is living. Ora had it moved the first of the week on a lot he owns south of where W. A. Barcus resides.

While Mosentine Bros. were loading their car Tuesday, a team of mules they were driving in hauling their machinery, got from under the control of the driver, and ran from the blacksmith shop and down the street, and were stopped by coming into contact with R. A. Simpson's coal shed back of his office.

LEBANON.

(From the Times)

Born—Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ern Kennedy, a girl.

A girl made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dodd, Wednesday, March 25.

The suit which was brought by F. R. Cole against Mrs. H. E. Bemis and C. H. McCord for the collection of an account, was settled out of court last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Asper of Downs, moved their household goods up Friday and occupy the dwelling first door east of the Weaver hotel.

The breach of promise suit which occupied the court's attention at Smith Center most of last week was decided Friday. The suit was brought by Miss Ora D. Gris-o, a Topeka nurse against Wm. Arnold of Pawnee township for $100.00. The jury allowed her $75.00.

Joe Brown, Chas. Fowler and Andy Fowler loaded up their carpenter tools last Monday and went out to Will Hubbard's farm to build a new porch and otherwise fix up his already neat and cozy home.

Carnegie to Give $5,000,000 More.

New York, April 4.—Andrew Carnegie has promised to increase his endowment of the Carnegie foundation by an additional gift of $5,000,000, so as to provide pensions for professors of state universities.

INAVALE

Dean Harvey is sick with the chicken pox.

Dr. Phillips went to Kansas City the first of this week.

There will be a dance in Hunter's hall Friday evening.

John Knight has his foundation laid and will commence building soon.

C. S. Jones will commence moving to Guide Rock the first of the week. He has exchanged his property here for town property.

Miss Sadie Jones and Frank Strickland were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, last Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid society of Inavale will hold their annual apron sale Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 15th in Hunter's hall. Supper served in evening, adults 25c and children 15c.

HIGHLAND NOTES.

Clara Lewis has the chicken pox.

Josie Wood is on the sick list.

Ed Winslow visited at the home of J. M. Pixler Sunday.

Will Fay came down from Smith Center to spend Sunday.

Born, on Friday March 27, to Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wells, a son.

Miss Minnie Ellis returned home from her school last Saturday.

Mr. Horton and wife are at Burr Oak attending camp meeting.

Bert Winslow and family were up to his mother's visiting Sunday.

The young folks enjoyed themselves at the chivari last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeels returned from conference at Salina last Saturday night.

Several of the young people went to Bostwick to a basket supper Friday night.

Romaine and Mina Dixon from near Topeka are visiting their uncle, C. E. Bullock, and family.

Mr. Sabin returned home from Topeka Sunday. Nellie is improving and will be home in about a week.

Miss Effie Hollingsworth is attending school at North Branch. Her school having closed Friday.

Grandma Davis is very sick with pneumonia. There is not much hopes of her getting well. Her son, Fremont is also sick.

The ball game here last Friday between the Mankato and Burr Oak high schools resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 7 to 4.

Mrs. Roy Canady was quite badly hurt Thursday by the team running away while she was disking. She is some better at present and we hope she will soon be out again.

GUIDE ROCK.

Mrs. Hannah Garber is on the sick list.

Mrs. W. Hodges and little son are sick.

Mrs. Colvin has been sick for several days.

One of Charley Eddy's baby boys is reported very sick.

C. E. Vaughan and daughter Sadie departed Tuesday for New Mexico.

G. W. Pool attended the Ministerial Association in Superior this week.

The Degree of Honor will have initiation Tuesday evening April 14th.

Mrs. E. E. Burr who has been sick for a couple of weeks is reported a little better.

O. C. Chase, a traveling salesman for a grocery firm, spent Sunday with his family here.

Charles E. Eddy has traded his brick yard and residence for property at Inavale and expects to move next week.

Mrs. J. A. Sheeley returned to her home in Hastings the last of the week after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. H. Kailey.

Harry Vaughan and wife entertained several relatives Sunday among them being S. E. Ely and wife of

Try the New Grocerymen

They have everything you want in the edible line. FRESH FRUITS A SPECIALTY. They also Handle Four Brands of Flour.

O. K. Lebanon at	$1.40
White Loaf Amboy at	1.40
High Patent Riverton at	1.40
Imperial High Patent Red Cloud at	1.40
Also have the second grades in above brands at, per sack	1.30

Try a 11-lb. box of Premium Soda Cracker at $1.00 per box. Try some nice fresh Cabbage or Parsnips, Rutabagas, Onions, etc.

Johnson & Boner

Successors to Robinson & Burden

Bell Phone No. 4.

Rural Phone No. 62.

It makes you long for dinner time

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Best for flaky pastry, wholesome bread and biscuit—best for crisp cookies—best for delicious cakes, toothsome muffins, doughnuts that will melt in your mouth.

Everything you make well, it will help to make better, because it's "best by test."

Anybody can cook well if they use Calumet Baking Powder. Failure with it is almost impossible.

It is chemically correct and makes Pure, Wholesome Food.

Price is Moderate

Reynolds.

Emmet Hagan and wife and Sam Bivins drove out and spent Sunday with their niece Mrs. Robt. Parsons and family.

Mrs. N. White and child and Mrs. Lew Smith and children visited Wednesday with I. N. Smith and family.

Dr. Warrick of Hastings and Dr. C. F. Moranville removed an eye Thursday for Guy Imhalf of Bostwick who was kicked in the face by his horse last Friday.

Miss Malissa Lambert returned to Diller Sunday after a weeks vacation spent with her parents, W. S. Lambert and wife. Miss Lambert has eight weeks school yet.

Mrs. Jennie E. Campbell is visiting at Lakewood, New Mexico, with her son Wendell Campbell and her brother George F. Hunt and family, who moved from here to that place last fall.

Guide Rock goes dry again this year. At the village election the following were elected, F. W. Bailey and John S. Marsh on the temperance ticket and I. B. Colvin on the other side. The members who hold over are C. F. Scherbaener and J. W. Robinson.

A twelve year old boy named Connaheigh was badly hurt Sunday. He was on his way to Sunday school at Bostwick. His horse fell and rolled over on him. At this writing, Thursday, the little fellow had not regained consciousness since he was picked up.

Mr. Brown of Canadian, Texas was the guest of E. M. Parker and wife Saturday evening and W. S. Lamert and wife were also guests at supper. Mr. Brown is a real estate man and is located close to the farm, bought by Warren Vance in the Panhandle country. He is a very interesting conversationalist and gave a splendid description of the country he represents.

Cards are out announcing the wedding Thursday evening, April 9, of Miss Sadie L. Vaughan and W. Carroll Willihan at Roswell, New Mexico. They will reside at Lakewood, New Mexico. Everyone in this vicinity extends best wishes. This young couple are among the most popular of the Guide Rock young people. Both are active in church work.

Confidence

when eating, that your food is of highest wholesomeness—that it has nothing in it that can injure or distress you—makes the repast doubly comfortable and satisfactory.

This supreme confidence you have when the food is raised with

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

There can be no comforting confidence when eating alum baking powder food. Chemists say that more or less of the alum powder in unchanged alum or alum salts remains in the food.

A factor for pure food ante-dating all state and national food laws

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

No Alum—No Phosphates

Be on your guard. Alum Powders may be known by their price—10 or 25c. a lb., or one cent an ounce.