Republican National Convention Names Standard Bearers.

Final Outburst of Enthusiasm Follows Nomination of New York Congressman for Second Place on First Ballot—Cummins' Name Helps Back.

Taft and Sherman. This is the ticket of the Republican party flung to the breeze as the Republican national convention at Chicago concluded its nomination of James S. Sherman of New York for vice president amid a final roar of tumultuous demonstration. Again the vast assembly was swept with wave on wave of wild, exultant clamor, as the multitude, realizing that at last the work was done and the record made upon which the Republican party goes before the country united in one last mighty outburst of enthusiasm as a
