ACETYLENE IN WAR.

The New Illuminant Is to Be Used Extensively.

Lamps and Reflectors for Searching for the Wounded and Watching the Movements of Troops Are Contemplated.

The uses to which acetylene lamps may be put are not confined to lighting the pathway of cyclists along the boulevards and through the tree-darkened shadows of the parks.

The reflector, which is intended especially for use for searching for the wounded on the battlefield, consists of an acetylene developer borne on the soldier's back, and the reflector itself, which is fixed to a detachable stand made of a Mannesmann tube.

By means of a special arrangement of parabolic magnifiers this candle power is doubled. The developer is not liable to explode, and is self-regulating. The reflector itself is made of nickel, and can be manipulated with ease, turning in all directions.

Whether, however, the introduction of acetylene lamps for all the movements of troops is advisable is worth discussion. Whereas, for instance, ten fillings would be sufficient for the first part of a campaign for the ambulance department, as a battle is not fought every day, and the apparatus is only required during or after a battle, the supply for the lighting of transport, in which case the lamps would be required every night, would have to be considerably greater, and it is, therefore, doubtful whether it would be possible to take enough calcium carbide for the purpose.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the eustachian tube.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TEACHER'S READING CIRCLE.

Questions for Third Week in November. Topic, "The Princess."

- 1. Why is "The Princess" called "a medley?" 2. Give main incidents of the prologue? 3. Why have the following grown into such general usage? "Half-child, half woman." "Sweet girl graduates."

"My other heart, And almost my half self, for still we moved Together twinned as horse's ear and eye."

"I saw my father's face Grow long and troubled like a rising moon, Inflamed with wrath; he started on his feet, Tore the king's letter, snatched it down, and read The wonder of the loom, tho' warp and woof From skirt to skirt."

Then he chewed The thrice turned eud of wrath, and coo'd'd his spleen."

8. Why do the prince and his friends steal away to begin their journey? 9. Account for the beauty or the expressiveness, as the case may be, of the following.

"Then, ere the silver sickle of the month Became her golden shield--" "Cat footed thro' the town and half in dread I wore my father's clamor at our backs Like throbbed spiders, one by one, we dropped With, Ho! from some bay window shake this night."

10. Characterize "Gama." Note his nonchalant acknowledgement of "a kind of oremory," "the year in which our olives fall'd."

11. To whose influence does "Gama" attribute his daughter's dislike for matrimonial chains? 12. What resolve is reached by the Prince? How does he succeed in obtaining an entrance to Ida's college?

13. Describe briefly the audience with the Princess. Speak of her personal appearance. What inferences do we form respecting her character? 14. Note that, although the Princess has resolved never to wed, and to always cherish contempt and disdain toward the other sex, yet almost her first query of the supposed damsel is with respect to the Prince?

15. What stern rules are read to the candidates for admission to the college? 16. The Princess in the midst of her harangue utters one great truth. Find and quote it.

17. Describe the lady Psyche and her lecture. 18. Speak briefly of the scene following her recognition of her brother.

19. Who next discovers their secret? 20. Notice the dinner scene, and the force and vigor of the poet's characterization of Lady Blanch. Try to give as complete a prose characterization of the woman with the same number of words.

HAD FALLING SPELLS. But a Cure was Found and New Miss Hesson is Perfectly Well and Happy.

Sweetland, Iowa, Nov. 13--The remarkable cure of Miss Hesson of this place is additional evidence that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best medicine in the world for female troubles. The following is an extract of a letter written by the girl's mother.

"My daughter had a falling spell nearly every day. Dodd's Kidney Pills were recommended and we got some for her. After she commenced taking them she had only one falling spell. She is now cured, and we do not anticipate any more trouble in that direction. I cannot say too much in regard to the good the pills did her. I will be pleased to give all the information I can concerning my daughter's case to mothers whose children are similarly afflicted, if they write to me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by dealers in medicines at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent an attack.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords.

What Makes Beauty?

Beauty is made or marred by the blood. When the blood is impure, the cheeks grow sallow, the eyes dull, the hair loses its luster. When the blood flows through the veins in a pure, rich current, the eyes sparkle, the skin is clear, the complexion beautiful.
