ONE branch of the Maine Legislature voted for female suffrage last week, and the other branch didn't.

THE local editor of the Council Bluffs Nonparcil, being hard pushed for an item this morning, incendiarized his paper by reporting a fire over in Omaha.

HENRY WARD BEECHER lectured in St. Louis, last night, on what he knows about Manhood and Money making. The gifted Divine ought to now write up a new lecture on what he knows about the seducing influences of womanhood on preachers.

NEBRASKA CITY is busily engaged relocating the State Capital. The public meeting held Monday night decided not to locate it east of Lone Tree. The most prominent attorneys and business men participated in the discussion, which is described as extremely animated on both sides. The upshot of it all was the adoption of a resolution to relocate at some point directly west of Lincoln.

THE last number of the New York Federalist very petulently exclaims: "How much longer shall the buffaloes and prairie dogs of Nevada and Nebraska, through their Representatives in the Senate of the United States, Messrs. Nye, Stewart, Tipton, and Hitchcock, cast their votes upon the vast commercial affairs of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, etc.?"

NEW YORK, Feb. 26. It was reported on Wall street yesterday that an investigation was to be made by the Legislative Committee in regard to certain matters connected with the management of the Eric Railroad, which had been brought about not entirely without Jay Gould's influence. Gould, it is said, thinks the investigation will have the effect of depreciating stock, and also being more or less a reproach upon the directory, in which case corruption in his own administration will not stand out in such bold relief as it now does. The Erie director said yesterday that he felt no uneasiness regarding the examination, and was certain that the stock-holders

With such doctrines Paul would never have been an apostle. The House was making history, and should vote to-day as if there was no precedent, and as if it was establishing a rule. He quoted the case of John Morrissey a gambler and a prize fighter, yet he took his seat, and no man dared raise his voice against him. He remained during his term, and was as well be haved a member as any on the floor this moment. That precedent was set to give two-thirds of the House the right to expel, and with it the death peal of liberty was struck.
