Omaha Brevities.

The Omaha City Band propose soon to give a grand concert.

We understand that another masquerade ball will soon be given in this city, probably at the end of Lent.

To-day is Ash-Wednesday, the first day of Lent. Have you fasted, or did you take a square meal as usual?

Three drunkards and three or four paupers were brought before the Police Court, and discharged. The wind blew them over to Council Bluffs.

Timothy McNary, formerly in the employ of Hellman & Co., left for California yesterday to go into business with J. L. Reidy, formerly of Omaha.

A Union Pacific brakeman, named Johnson, a resident of Omaha, had his arm badly crushed at Fremont, Sunday, while engaged in coupling an engine to a car.

A very large number of the citizens were not aware that the Deaf and Dumb Asylum was located near Omaha, till Monday last, when our article on that institution was published.

The next sociable of the Unitarian Society will be given at the residence of Mr. Brewer, south of the Union Pacific depot to-morrow evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all who feel interested.

A pigeon shooting match took place yesterday, near the Sulphur Springs, for $10 a side, between Frank Revis and Jesse Wallace, the latter winning by killing eight out of ten birds. Revis killed six out of ten.

A temporary matrimonial reporter of this paper, who recently wrote up a lengthy account of a wedding, took occasion to cast a slur upon the beauty of western girls. He is excusable as he belongs in a rival city; and hails from the Nutmeg State.

The man Rowan, who claimed to have been robbed of $500, some gold dust, &c., is not Cornelius Bohan, as many have supposed. Mr. Cornelius Bohan is a highly respectable gentleman, and has entered into the wood business in this city.

The musical instrument firm of Mueller & Powell, are proprietors of two stores—one in Council Bluffs, and the other in Omaha. The one in this city is well supplied with the latest and best pianos, organs &c., that are manufactured. They are sole agents for the celebrated Decker Brothers, pianos, which are considered the best now made.

The one on exhibition at their Omaha store, on Thirteenth street, is a model of beauty and finish, and is admired by all who have seen it.

HOW HIGH IS THIS FOR WEATHER?

All About the Storm.

Last evening about 8 o'clock the weather changed suddenly, and snow began falling gently, and continued till an early hour this morning, when the storm increased, and the wind sprang up, blowing a perfect gale, drifting the snow in clouds hither and thither. Drifts soon piled up, and the snow came thicker and faster, as the fury of the wind became greater. Never before did we start out for local items under more discouraging circumstances. But a few men could be seen upon the streets, and those only when we happened to run up against them, and have our eyes opened by the shock of the collision.

In half the places we visited, we found the proprietors sitting on the counters playing seven-up with their employes for the drinks and cigars.

Giving up all hopes of picking up any startling news, we concluded to write up the weather, and accordingly interviewed Barton of the Signal Service office. From him we learned that the storm started from Fort Benton, last evening, and swung around the circle as indicated by the following diagram:

F. Benton.

Corinne, Chey. Omaha.

Denver.

Proceeding southwest to Corinne, it veered round and came East nearly to Cheyenne; thence it struck off south and visited Denver; thence northeast to a point near the Missouri river, where it turned round to the northwest and arrived in Omaha pell-mell, at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour. The wind and snow here blew from all directions not knowing which way to turn, until finally a little additional blow-out was sent down from Fort Benton on our northwest, which collected the four winds and turned them to the southwest.

The thermometer at the Signal Service office indicated 30 above at 6 o'clock, and only 14 above at 11 A. M.

The Eastern trains all came in on time this morning, but the Union Pacific train from the West was two hours and a half late.

The O. & S. W. train from Lincoln at 2:30 this afternoon is stuck in a snow-drift at Newton.

Taken altogether it is the liveliest blow-out of the season, and this has been the most wintry day that we have had.

The Arion Concert Next Friday Evening.

The concert to be given next Friday evening at Simpson's Hall, for the benefit of the Ladies Relief Society, by the Arion Singing Club, assisted by the best vocal and instrumental talent in the city, will be a grand musical treat. The members of the club and those who have volunteered their services for the occasion have been in constant practice for several weeks past, and we may look for a brilliant entertainment.

The sale of tickets thus far has been very large, so that the pecuniary success of the concert is already assured. The musical director is Prof. Blankenfeld. The programme is an extensive one, well selected and arranged, and is as follows:

1. Overture, Marche. 2. Chorus. Praise of the Soldier. 3. Solo. La Parfetta. 4. Andante from symphonie in B. 5. Duet. Two Loving Sisters. 6. Chorus. Farewell to the Forest. 7. Solo and chorus.

MASQUERADEBALL.

A Gay and Festive Scene.

The grand masquerade ball of the Concordia Singing Society, for which preparations had been made for some time past, came off last evening at Turner Hall. At an early hour in the evening, the galleries and every available inch of space outside of the ball-room, were occupied by spectators, among whom were many of Omaha's most prominent citizens, who came to witness the fun.

The ball-room was elaborately and tastefully decorated for the occasion, none but maskers being admitted to it.

The opening dance was performed by a troupe of seven genuine Pawnee Indians, introduced by Julius Meyer. They created a great deal of interest, and their performance was one of the best entertainments of the evening.

The ball-room floor was well filled by maskers, who danced to the delightful music furnished by the Omaha City Band. Among the many characters represented were Queen Elizabeth, Marie Antoinette, Maid of Orleans, Daughter of the Regiment, Queen of Night, fisher girls, ladies of the olden time, washer-women, Star of the Night, negresses, &c.

The most prominent gentleman characters were Emperor Wilhelm, Louis Philippe, Africanus, Red Cloud, Von Moltke, a down-east Yankee, counts, knights, Italians, Spaniards, minstrels, his Satanic Majesty, and "Big Heart," an Indian, and an intimate friend to the members of the press, who took occasion to interview him.

The costumes of all were richly gotten up, and were very appropriate for the characters represented. The fantastic throng of dancers, who moved about the room, some gracefully, others clumsily, as occasion demanded, formed a varied and exciting scene, which delighted the interested spectators, who enjoyed the merriment of the masquerade to the fullest extent.

At twelve o'clock Prince Carnival and Columbine made their grand entrance, and joined in the march. Unmasking followed, and supper was served; after which the dance was resumed, and continued till five o'clock this morning. Never was there a merrier assemblage collected within the walls of Turner Hall, and in every respect the Concordia masquerade may be pronounced a most brilliant success.

Personal.

Bishop Clarkson returned home from the east yesterday, after an absence of two or three months.

S. H. H. Clark, Assistant Superintendent of the Union Pacific, is expected home on this afternoon's train from the West.

Dr. Gardner has not gone to Texas, but will start on Sunday next. He will take with him an arsenal, consisting of two revolvers, a bow-knife, sword-cane, and ammunition. His delay was occasioned by his desire to become a little more perfect in the handling of these dangerous weapons, before he attacked the Lone Star State.

Among the many arrivals at the popular Wyoming are the following: A. C. Smith, T. Lubbe, New York; W. F. Arnold, D. W. VanCott, Chicago; James F. Davis, Pittsburg; Ben. Royal, New York; T. W. Bailey, Moonmouth, Ill.; I. F. Carter, Logansport, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. G. Wignell, Lincoln; T. J. Burridge, St. Louis; Chas. M. Case, Chicago; C. Hagenmeyer, New York.

EDITOR BEE:

In order to furnish the people of this country with reliable information regarding climate, growth of fruit and other trees, shrubs, flowers, &c., grain, and in fact all the varied products of Nebraska, I desire to have all gentlemen interested in agriculture, nurseries, &c., to furnish me, at their earliest convenience, information regarding the budding of their trees, growth of grain, &c.

It is designed to compile this data and make a comparative statement, comparing these facts with similar facts in neighboring States; also, to publish such a statement monthly for the benefit of all concerned. Copy will be furnished all newspapers in this State requesting it.

I hope to have the co-operation of every farmer and nurseryman in the State, and I think the result of this will be apparent to all who are in any way interested in agriculture.

It is believed that this is one of the designs of the signal service, and I hope to carry it out in such a manner that it may give satisfaction.

I am, Sir, Very Respectfully, HENRY BARTON, Signal Officer, U. S. A., Omaha, Neb.

CITY COUNCIL.

Those Expressmen—Gas—Lottery, &c.

At the City Council meeting last evening the following members were present: Bartlett, Bristol, Doyle, Gibson, Jones, Martin, McKelligon, Swobe and Thurston. who in absence of President Reed, filled the Presidential Chair with becoming dignity.

Reading of minutes &c., after which the resignation of Frank Thorn, Policeman, was accepted.

John Y. Clopper asked payment for laying a cross-walk. Compensation laid on table.

Marshal Kimball reported the time served by each Policeman during the month.

City Auditor reported city expenses and receipts during January, 1873.

A communication was received from persons doing business in the vicinity of the Northwest corner of Farnham and Thirteenth streets, stating that the assemblage of expressmen at that point had become an intolerable nuisance, and they wanted it abated. Referred to City Marshal with instructions to make them "move on."

The gas in the Council room being very dim, the following resolution suggested itself to Alderman Swobe: Resolved, That the City Auditor be and is hereby directed to ascertain whether the gas at the present time is of the quality required by the contract between the city and the gas company now on file in the clerk's office, and report the result of such inquiry at the next meeting.

Alderman Gibson stated that the city had machines for testing the quality of gas, but that the Auditor didn't know how to use them.

City Auditor here explained that the instruments were old style, and water tests. They had been frozen up during winter, and couldn't be thawed out for some time. He had tested the gas once or twice, and it was then up to about the standard. And further, he knew how to use the testing machines in a general way. The pipes in the Opera House were frozen up, and that was what was the matter last evening.

Alderman Gibson arose, and said that it was his opinion that we are paying for a better quality of gas than we are receiving. He had nearly set his store on fire the night before by coal gas running out of the gas pipe when he lit the jet, and he saw by the Bee that the same thing had happened at the store of Kurtz, Mott & Co. It was evident that the gas is not what we should have. Two stores had taken fire in one evening, and it was getting to be dangerous.

The resolution of Mr. Swobe was adopted.

G. W. Homan, sr.'s, petition for permission to put up a wooden awning on a certain building, was filed for six weeks, which will bring the matter before the next Council, of which Mr. Homan intends to be a member. So said one of the Councilmen.

Alderman McKelligon introduced the following resolution: Resolved, That in the opinion of the Council the lottery now advertised by J. M. Pattee in this city is a fraud, and the same is not endorsed by any member of this Council.

It was moved to lay it upon the table. Motion was lost, Bartlett and Doyle voting in the affirmative, and the rest in the negative.

Alderman Bartlett said that the Council did the same thing a week or two ago. There was no use of reiteration. He moved to amend by inserting in the resolution the words, "is not and will not be ordered." Amendment was carried, and the resolution voted on by calling of the yeas and nays. It was carried, only two voting against it.

Gibson did not see how, when two members voted against it, the Council could pass the resolution, when it stated "in the opinion of the Council, &c." as those two negative votes made it an opinion of only part of the Council.

Doyle said he had no personal quarrel with Pattee, and for that reason he did not endorse the action of the Council.

A resolution that a copy of the above resolution be furnished J. M. Pattee was carried.

A resolution that the motion be published in the local columns of the Daily Bee, the official city paper, with appropriately displayed head lines, was carried.

Bartlett suggested that it be published in official paper every Sunday morning.

Gibson informed him that there was no official paper published on that day.

On motion of Alderman Gibson, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the Committee on Public Property and Improvements be required to report on the proposition relating to sewers for the Grand Central Hotel, at the next regular meeting of the Council.

The clerk was instructed to procure a copy of the new charter for the use of the Council, immediately.
