OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The New Orleans Republican, of last Tuesday, publishes a tabular statement, estimating the damage already done by the flood in the State of Louisiana, at nearly eighteen million dollars.

The next time the Grand Duke Alexis visits Omaha, he will be accompanied by General Shovaloff. It is to be hoped the Omaha X X X Club can induce General Shovaloff to stay permanently.

MAJOR CHASE and the City Council will, we hope take immediate steps to the appropriate resignation of the Honorable Ralph Patrick Shannon O. Hayes, who according to the Bar's Washington correspondent, will leave the national capital for Omaha, during the present week.

Knocked Down! A remarkable fact can be ascertained by investigating our stock and prices that we have reduced to a few cents all our clothing and Gen's' furnish.

Money loaned on diamonds, watches, jewelry, guns, pistols, and merchandise in general, at P. G. Götthelmer's, 206 Farnham st.

ALL ABOUT THE WATER WORKS. The central city of the West. Quite proud of late has grown, a goal is set, a goal is set, a goal is set.

BUELL'S CASE. We recently had a conversation with Mr. A. C. Buell, who, as you already know was arrested for slandering Senator Chandler, and he informed the BEE correspondent that the satisfaction of an intelligent jury.

THE COMING MARRIAGE. Society is all agog over the coming marriages. Early in next month Miss Grant and Mr. Sartoris lead off to be followed by Miss Minnie Sherman and Engineer Fitch.

THE SARBON AFFAIR. The smoke and noise of the above scandalous transaction has not yet blown over, and the crowd of financials who are here asking the removal of Richardson from the Treasury Department are using it with such effect that it is very probable the President will notify him that his resignation is acceptable at an early day.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAPHIC.

Washington, April 28, '74. From present indications and with the condition of important legislative matters, we may look for a protracted session of the present Congress.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, April 28. At the expiration of the morning hour, Mr. Wright moved to lay aside the pending order and proceed to consider the finance bill and the President's veto message.

It has been agreed not to force a Debate on the Veto Message. No Excitement in the Stock Market Yesterday.

FOREIGN. The Grand Duke Alexis to Accompany the Imperial Family to England.

NEW YORK, April 28. A Washington special says: It has been agreed by Senators favoring legislation that they will not force a debate on the veto message, but will vote without discussion.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The reason for this state of affairs is partly due to the over-zealousness on the part of some members to obtain for themselves a record for watchfulness and economy.

ARMY FOR NEBRASKA. For several days past, a bill introduced by Senator Hitchcock, authorizing the Secretary of War to issue arms to the people of Nebraska, has been under discussion in the Senate.

NEWS NOTES. Of course the currency question has been the chief topic of conversation here for some time past.

THE INVESTIGATION OF THE DISTRICT AFFAIRS has so far elicited nothing derogatory to the Board of Public Works, and the memorialists have not been able to get any action against Governor Shepley, but on the contrary have clearly established the fact that he is a man of great energy, spotless integrity, and an officer of great executive ability.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN INTIMATED that the investigation into the National Bank of the Missouri, has been found that no supplies can be spared from the various military depots in the West, therefore the Secretary of the War, after a private conference with the President, has directed the Commissioner of Subsistence to purchase 400,000 rations of beef, mutton, and rice, and to carry the law into effect, asks an appropriation of $90,000.
