OMAHA BREVITIES.

Mr. Cunningham, of the Western Union Telegraph office, was married yesterday to Miss Katy Carpenter, at Trinity Church. Rev. Clark Wright, of this city, purchased a five acre lot at Kearney Junction last Monday. It isn't every miracle of the gospel that can do that same. W. M. Francis is having a law office fitted up in elegant style in Croighton block, opposite the Probate Court room. The son of Thomas Connor, who has been sick so long, died yesterday at the age of twenty-two years. The funeral will take place to-day at 2 o'clock. An inquest was held yesterday at Gish's undertaking rooms, over the body of that infant, which was found last Sunday. A verdict was returned that it came to its death by willful neglect by some unknown persons. Dr. George Tilden was married Tuesday to Miss Ida V. Clegg, daughter of Mr. Isaac Clegg. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, the Rev. G. D. Stewart, officiating. Two colored men, Clark E. Wilkins and Charles Lambert, "fought nobly" at a Douglas street saloon, Tuesday evening. They were arrested and paid a fine of $5.00 and costs at the Police Court yesterday. Hank the Mason, who will dance at the Grand Central Theatre at eleven o'clock to-night so that the Grand Minstrels can witness the old style of dancing. Hank is like wine—the older he grows the better he becomes. Mr. Thomas Morgan, agent for Joslyn & Park, the celebrated manufacturing Jewelers of Cheyenne, is in the city looking up a building to be occupied by his firm, who intend to remove to Omaha soon. They have sold $8,000 worth of jewelry, of their own make, within the last month to Omaha customers, whom they never saw. They think Omaha is one of the best towns in the West, and they are correct. About 5 o'clock yesterday morning the wife of James Frewin, living on the corner of 16th and Burlington streets, mysteriously disappeared, having on hardly any clothes. She is about thirty-five years of age, has short cut hair, and is unsound in mind. At 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon she had not been found, and it is feared she has met with some accident, or has wandered away, and become lost. Any information concerning her will be thankfully received by her anxious husband. Deputy Sheriff Hanlon yesterday arrested a soldier named George Crager on the charge of horse stealing. It appears that Patrick Purcell, who keeps a saloon, livery stable, etc., near the barracks, let the horse to Crager yesterday forenoon, and he rode it into town, and left it at a livery stable. In the evening a boy obtained the horse by saying that he had been sent for it. The horse has not been seen since, and the boy refuses to tell where it is, or who took it from him. The Academy of Music was uncomfortably full last evening, the attraction being the opening night of Callender's famous Georgia minstrels, who certainly deserve the title that they bear, "Kings of Fun." The programme was an excellent one, being replete with vocal gems, witticisms, and laughable novelties, all mostly new. They are certainly the best minstrel troupe now traveling, and are regular "thoroughbreds." Every man deserves particular mention, but we regret that the troupe is so large that we cannot give each of the "black diamonds" what he deserves. Each speaking in a general manner, they are "lick 'em."

A FORCED SETTLEMENT.

A Swindling Contractor is Made to Pay a Debt at the Point of a Six Shooter.

The readers of the BEE will remember reading an account some time ago, of how one Gwill, the contractor for grading Jefferson Square, obtained his $600 from the City Council for the work, and then skipped out without paying his employees; and how he was recaptured and made his escape a second time. He has been heard from again. Tuesday he was accidentally met by a Mr. Whitmore, one of his former employees, whom he had swindled, just after he had crossed the Missouri river to the Nebraska side, some twenty miles beyond Omaha. Whitmore happened to have two revolvers with him, and pulling out one of them, he brought Gwill to a halt, and made him surrender. Whitmore demanded immediate payment for labor on Jefferson Square, and declared that he would retain possession of Gwill's wagon until he paid up at once. Gwill, rather than have the unpleasantness carried to extremes, finally pulled out his money, and paid Whitmore $55, the amount he owed him, and was then allowed to depart. The world-renowned and eminently popular dialect actor and eccentric comedian, Mr. Joseph Murphy, supported by a carefully selected company, in his great local sensational drama in three acts, "Helen," and in Maeder's great emotional drama of "Maum Cre," as played by him in all the principal cities of America, will appear at the Academy of Music on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Mr. Murphy is recently from Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other leading cities of the East, where he has been drawing crowded houses nightly for some time past. He has played in Omaha before and drew large audiences. He is a great favorite here, and upon this second appearance, he will attract a larger attendance than before. Reserved seats may be obtained at the Variety Bazaar. One Lawrence McCarty got on the rampage Tuesday evening at the Carleton House, and choked the barkeeper because he would not "set 'em up" for the boys. For this disturbance of the peace, he was arrested, and was fined $5.00 and costs at the Police Court yesterday morning. Served him right. Personal. Mrs. L. H. Korty went East yesterday to Chicago. Con. Walraven, engineer of the Cheyenne Fire Department, is in town. General Freight Agent Vining, of the Union Pacific, left for the east yesterday. Mr. Thrall, proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel, has gone to Chicago on business, and will be absent a week. General Superintendent Clarke, of the Union Pacific, arrived home yesterday from the east. Mr. Joshua P. Brown, proprietor of the Lincoln Mills, Butler county, is in the city. He has had a new turbine wheel built at Van Dora's machine shop for his mill. J. H. Mountain, traveling agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway, returned from Denver Tuesday evening. J. D. Bonardant, of the St. Louis Cement Company, is at the Grand Central. Lyman McCarty, traveling agent of the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern railway, is in town. J. J. Diekey, manager of the Atlantic and Pacific telegraph line, will return from the West to-day. Hon. M. H. Sessions, of Lincoln, stopped at the Metropolitan hotel Tuesday night, and went west to Columbus yesterday morning to attend to some railroad business of a legal character. United States Marshal Daily came up from the southern part of the State Tuesday evening. He informs us that A. G. Hastings has been appointed resident United States Deputy Marshal, at Lincoln. Judge E. W. Mundy, of Atlanta, Georgia, is at the Grand Central. He is a very wealthy gentleman, and has been out to Columbus, in this State, to make arrangements to remove there, and start a carriage factory. Mr. Walter S. Withers, also of Atlanta, and likewise possessed of abundant means, will build a foundry and machine shop at Columbus. This thriving town is to be congratulated upon the acquisition of such gentlemen as Judge Mundy, Mr. Withers, and Mr. Echols. Samuel A. Echols, formerly associate editor and business manager of the Atlanta (Ga.) Sun, of which Hon. A. H. Stephens was political editor, is stopping at the Grand Central Hotel. He has located at Columbus, in this State, there to enter into the practice of law. He has just returned from Columbus, and is now on his way to Atlanta to settle up affairs preparatory to making his permanent home in Nebraska. The following are the arrivals at the Wyoming Hotel: H. Clark, Glasgow, Ill.; E. Rebeck; do; Wm. Radersdorf and wife; New York; T. F. W. Bonn, Iowa; N. R. Lampkins, Missouri Valley; F. W. Ehlman, St. Louis; Wm. Harris, Atlantic; H. T. Ralph, Elkhorn; Orange Hoyt, Syracuse, N. Y.; Wm. Daily, Peru, Neb.; Henry Goodyear, Cozad; Fred Williams, Boston; J. H. Gibbs, Ogden; G. H. Marvin, Chicago; Mrs. B. Martin and child, Lincoln. WINDOW SHADES AND CURTAINS, of almost every description. Detweiler's carpet store, Fourteenth street, between Farnham and Douglas. apr-4

A STRANGE AND FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Young Man, While Jumping on the Cars, Runs a Knife into an Artery in his Leg and Bleeds to Death.

Tuesday night about 11 o'clock a strange and fatal accident occurred at Spoon Lake station. A young man, named Bainsbridge Dean, hailing from Tarkiliva, Bureau county, Illinois, accompanied by a companion, arrived at Spoon Lake in the evening, intending to cross the bridge to Omaha, and then proceed to Kearney Junction. The young men had little money, and concluded to wait till morning and then come over cheaper on the ferry. The Chicago & Rock Island train was slowly backing up to Council Bluffs, when they determined to jump on and ride up town, to remain there during the night. Dean's companion succeeded in getting on the rear platform of the last car, and Dean attempted to follow him. As he was trying to climb up, he slipped and swung his body round so as to cause a large knife he had strapped to his hip, to pierce an artery in the inside of his left leg. He dropped to the ground, and gave a cry for help. His friend jumped off, found out what had occurred, and ran back to the transfer house, where he obtained assistance. Upon his return young Dean was found to be nearly dead, and in a few minutes he breathed his last, having bled to death. He was carried to the transfer house, and a telegram announcing the sad affair, was immediately sent to his parents, who are said to be in comfortable circumstances. Had young Dean's friend been sufficiently posted as to the nature of the accident, he could have saved his life by stopping the flow of blood. The young man, or rather boys, seemed to be runaways from home, at least so it was thought, judging from their actions. Resignation of Supt. Sickles. Mr. T. E. Sickles has resigned from the general superintendency of the Union Pacific railway, and Assistant General Superintendent S. H. Clark, who arrived home this morning, has been promoted to fill the vacancy, beginning the first of May. Mr. Sickles has long desired to have his resignation accepted by the officers of the company, as he wished to devote more of his time to his duties as chief engineer of the road, a position he will retain, and also to the affairs of the Colorado Central, of which he is also the chief engineer. Mr. Clark has really been the general superintendent of the road, attending to all the workings of that office during the absence of Mr. Sickles at various times, for the last year. He is too well known to need any praise for his qualities as a gentleman and a successful, practical and shrewd railroad man. Attention is directed to the elegant assortment of Misses' and Children's Shoes in the most exquisite Shades of Hair and Pearl, Made of stock which wears well and does not easily soil. These goods, although of the choicest quality, are sold at very low prices. A careful inspection is invited. W. B. LORING & CO. Cor. 14th and Farnham streets. apr29 2t. THE JOHNSON-BAUMER CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

A Brother-in-Law of Johnson Opens His Mouth, and Lets out Some Damaging Testimony.

A House Divided Against Itself Cannot Stand.

The long drawn-out contested election case between Johnson and Baumer, for the office of city treasurer, is progressing slowly from day to day in the City Council Chamber. The testimony thus far taken down in writing by the notaries amounts to several hundred pages of legal cap, and the case has at times become very monotonous to the parties interested in it. Yesterday morning, however, the monotony was considerably varied by bringing on to the witness stand John C. Vandergriff, a brother-in-law of Johnson, and who has been employed in the City Treasurer's office, until recently discharged for some reason or other. He was closely examined by the attorneys for both parties, and the substance of his testimony was that on the day of election he went with Johnson to the First Ward, while the ballots were being counted, and that Johnson asked him to put some ballots on the table, for the purpose of electing Johnson; and that he refused to do it. Vandergriff stated he had been in Johnson's employ; he had never been discharged; had never mentioned this conversation; did not know how he came to be subpoenaed; he had, a few days ago, received an anonymous letter through the post-office, offering him a clerkship in the city treasurer's office; this letter had burned up; he did not know from whom it came; no inducement had been held out to him to come forward and testify; was not influenced by it to give this testimony; and that he had not been influenced or induced to give evidence, either by Baumer or his attorney. The above comprises the most important part of his testimony, with the exception of the details where the conversation occurred, where they were standing, etc., at the time it took place. It certainly shows up Mr. Johnson in a very unfavorable light, and exposes his intentions in the matter. Whether he, or somebody else, carried any such intentions into execution, yet remains to be seen. It is likely that this case will draw to an end in a day or two. KILLED BY THE CARS. It isn't safe for a Drunken Man to go to Sleep on a Railroad Track. He was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and three children. Daily Bee, April 28th. EDITOR BEE: Oh no, it isn't safe for the man, or his family, but it is all right for the saloon-keeper, if he got his pay in advance. One man stabbed at the beer-garden last Sunday by some girls. You don't tell us how many more girls were runed. Only "three cases of drunk disposed of at the Police Court this morning." Wonder if these men ever had mothers to love them, or if any poor women are cursed by being their wives? Such women would make good "crusaders," methinks. Mr. Editor, please publish this communication, and don't take down the heading. I always like to see FAIR PLAY. Notice. We, the undersigned brewers have agreed to sell beer on and after May 1st, 1874, at twelve ($12.00) dollars per barrel. Dated April 28th 1874.
