The iron was pulled through, and was found to be crooked like a cane on one end. On the outside of the building a hole, similar to one produced by a large bullet, was found. How this missile was ever sent with such force, or who threw it, is a mystery. It is thought that some man must have hurled it from some neighboring building, or that the wind blew it from some roof.

A Man of Family.

The Pittsburgh Leader, of May 4th, gives the following account of a colony-consisting of but one family-bound for Nebraska:

"A German emigrant passed through this city on Saturday on his way to Nebraska, where he has purchased a farm. Of the nineteen children, thirteen were boys, and six girls. There were three pairs of twins among the children, four of which were boys and two girls. They spoke pretty fair English were all stout and hearty-looking, and were the right kind of a family to start a new settlement with After the old gentleman had drawn them up in line, and counted heads, Fast Freight line, at Burlington, is they embarked on the train for Yesterday Afternoon's Fire - A Card of Thanks from Mrs. Lowe.

The fire department had a run out to the vicinity of Mrs. Lowe's farm yesterday afternoon, where church, and was opened by W. they found a dangerous prairie fire Master Wolcott, of Elkhorn Grange, raging, which had been started thoughtlessly by some school children. A shanty on Mrs. Lowe's farm the Fourth of July celebration was was burned down, but the main house was saved by the firemen connecting the hose of engines 1 and 2, and throwing a stream of water from a creek.

Mrs. Lowe is very thankful for the successful efforts of the firemen. who had such a long run, as will be seen by the following card from her: I desire to return thanks to the fire department and citizens for their prompt response to the cry for help yesterday afternoon, and their assistance in protecting my tenant houses and barns from fire, which would have resulted in their destruction had it not been for their efforts. The day was intensely warm, and on account of the high wind there was great danger apparent. The distance from the city made the efforts of the fire department doubly appreciated. SOPHIA LOWE.
