OMAHA BREVITIES.

-Eight female prisoners were packed into the city cell at the jail Mondayevening like a lot of sar lines They kept up a lively sociable all night long.

-Canada Bill, the king of monte men, was in town last evening. He reports his Texas cattle as flourishing, and that the crop prospect is

-Patrick Dillon, one of Omaha's oldest settlers, was before the police court yesterday for drunkenness. As he took a drop too much for the sake of his stomach ache, and being the first time in six months, he was discharged.

-The "Monte Christo," the special Pullman Palace Car, in which the "round-the-world" tourists arrived at Omaha yesterday is a magnificent coach. It was built for exhibition at the Vienna exposition.

-The Wyoming Hotel office has been entirely renovated, and now presents an attractive appearance. The whole house is now in splendid trim, and no more comfortable stopping place could be desired by the traveling public.

-The wholesale grocery house of Whitney. Bauserman & Co., received yestrday from SanFrancisco a ever shipped to Omaha from the Golden State. It compares favorably in every respect with syrups manufactured elsewhere.

-- Col. Watson B. Smith, clerk of the United States Courts, yesterday purchased two autograph albums, and obtaining the autographs of the members of the Omaha bar. in each, presented one of the volto Judge Dundy.

-Jack Shephard was brought before the police court yesterday to answer to the charge of running a disorderly house, and of maintaining a bar in connection therewith without a license. He was fined $10 and costs. Dutch Minnie was fined $5 and costs, and a Miss Taylor, $8 and costs, for being inmates of his place.

-Annie Wilson, about three weeks ago, lost a $400 diamond ring, which she supposed some one had stolen from her dressing table. Yesterday a man named Callahan came into Shaw's jewelry store, to have a ring weighed: Mr. Shaw, who had been informed of the loss of the ring, at once saw that he had the lost article, and telling a gentleman present to go for Marshal Snowden, he detained Callahan, until the Marshal came and arrested him. Callahan explained his possession of the ring by stating that he had found it while cleaning up Annie Wilson's back yard, and upon Miss Wilson corroborating this fact, he was discharged.

-Frank Ramge, the merchant nephew to collect a bill of long standing from a young man named Bodley, employed as a book-keeper by a Farnham street house. Bodley refused to pay the bill then, and sent back an insulting message to Ramge, who went over to see him about it, and thereby got himself into a little unpleasantness. Bodley repeated his message, and some words ensued between the two, when Bodley struck Ramge once or twice. The timid tailor, instead of striking back at the head of his assailant, struck at his pocket book, by having him arrested and brought before the police court, where he was fined $5 and costs. The morning papers took great care to suppress his name, but his unwarrantable conduct does not deserve any such leniency. Any body that will strike Frank Ramge, we've got our opinion of.

A Moisy Row in a Disreputable

House. A very loud disturbance occurred at the house of Hattie Harper, southeast corner of Twelfth street and Capitol avenue Mondayevening about seven o'clock. An inmate of the establishment, named "Nigger Em." although she is white, was car load of California syrup, the first "chuck full of benzine," and on her muscle. She wanted to whip her boss, Hat. Harper, and almost entirely stripped for the mill. About a hundred citizens were attracted to the place by the loud mouthed demonstrations. Policeman Byrne who had been summoned, arrested and dressed up the woman, with the assistance of others, and putting her in an express wagon, conveyed her umes to Judge Dillon and the other to jail. Yesterday she was fined $7.50 at the Police Court, and Rat. Harper, the keeper of the den, was assessed $10 and costs.

They are a bad lot, and the the menagerie to be stirred up.

Charged with Robbery.

A girl named Annie Morrisey was arrested by the police Monday night tailor, yesterday afternoon, sent his at the house of Amanda Kelly on Tenth street, on the charge of having robbed a verdant Duchman of $10. It seems that the Dutchman went into Jack Shepard's saloon on Eleventh street, and treated, receiving back his change from "honest" Dutch Minnie. He then paid a visit to Annie Morrisey in an adloing room, and she kicked him out, after he had been there but a few moments. When he came out he found, as he claims, that he had been robbed of the ten dollars.

Miss Morrisey was yesterday brought before Judge Peabody, and bound over in the sum of $100 to appear this afternoon for examination.

But the greatest improvement and the one that deserves an extended notice, is Markle's dining hall, occupying about one fourth of the building, at the East end. The twelve tables are fully supplied with silver ware of the latest designs. A three hundred dollar mirror stands at the east end, and reflects the beauty of the room. A handsome sideboard stands at each side of the hall, while the high walls are tastefully hung with chromos, oil paintings, and bird cages containing sweet songsters, and are decorated with a buffalo's head, elkhorns, stuffed prairie chickens. partridges, etc. The extensive lunch everything that can be called for. The arrangement of the shelving within the counter is very attractive? An eagle with outspread wings surmounts a mirror, and on each side is a rallway scene, the shelves on either side being filled with canned fruit, pickles, preserves, etc. Mr. Markle has also added an expensive soda fountain to his estabishment. It has been placed inside of the lunch counter.

Mr. T. L. Hawkins, one of the best natured men in the world, has charge of the lunch counter.

The kitchen, in the rear of the lunch counter, is a model of neatby Mrs. Creston, on Eleventh street, ness and compactness. #### BURGLARY.

O'Keefe's Merchant Tailoring Establishment Entered.

Yesterday morning when Mr. O'Keefe opened his tailoring establishment, he found one of the rear windows up and it soon became evident to him that the place had been burglarized. The thief had first tried to cut out a pane of glass in the east rear window, but changed his operations to the west rear window, out of which he broke a pane by means of an instrument of some kind. He then reached in his hand, unfastened the catch, shoved up the window, and made preparations for a big haul. He did up in a bundle about three hundred dollars' worth of clothing that had been made to order, and threw it out of the open window, where it was found yesterday morning. #### Reward for a Murderer.

Governor Furnas has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Charles W. Wells, who killed David O. Schurrter, in Stanton county in this State, on the 24th of February of last year. The circumstances of the case are that Wells, without any authority, attempted to seize some goods belonging to Schurrter, for another party. Schurrter drove and returning, shot and killed Schurrter. He was taken to Fremont for safe keeping, and while being taken to trial escaped. A clue has been obtained to his whereabouts, and it is to be hoped that he will be taken into custody again.

UNITED STATES COURTS.

Official Report.

In the United States Courts, Judges Dillon and Dundy presiding, in the Circuit Court, and Judge Dundy presiding in the District Court, the following business was transacted: CIRCUIT COURT.

Nelson Millet of Columbus was dmitted to pratice. Ed. C. Erfling was admitted as citizen of the United States. Sophie H. Warren vs. B. & M R. R. Co., in Nebraska. Demurrer to bill overruled. Leave to answer by jury, rules and case continued. U. P. R. R. Co., vs. Thomas C. Durant. Argued to court all the afternoon and still pending. DISTRICT COURT. U. S. vs the distillery, &c., of J. C. Mackoy & Co. A rule was entered requiring all parties to show cause, if any they have, by this morning, why the report of Gen. C. F. Manderson on costs, distribuion &c., of the fund arising from thesale of said distillery should not be approved and confirmed.

Both courts adjourned to 8:30 o'clock this morning. THE undersigned hereby informs the public that he has removed his shop from Fifteenth street, where he has been doing business for the last five years, to Harney street, between 13th and 14th, next to the Checkered Barn; where he is prepared to do all kinds of locksmithing and machine work, and in giving satisfaction to his customers, hopes to secure a liberal patronage and the confidence of the public. WERNER BOEHL, Locksmith and Machinist.
