OMAHA RREVITIES.

-Hall Bros, are turning out five mowers and reapers per day. Business is lively with this firm.

-Spoon Lake Palmer's friend, "Skinny, the bootblack," was before the Police Court Saturday to receive a merited reprimand for sleeping in hall-ways.

-Charles Ruhlberg, whose sudden and mysterious disappearance, was chronicled in the BEE a few days ago, has been heard from. He is up in Dacatoh.

-Dr. Emlen Lewis has fitted up a suite of offices in Creighton Block in very elegant style, and Friday evening he gave a pleasant party therein to his intimate friends.

-One of the workmen at the Union Pacific shops had the misfortune to lose his month's pay Friday. His friends generously made up a purse of about $25 to help him out.

-Wirth's new restaurant was on Satday thrown open to the public, It is an elegant place, is admired by everybody, and deserves a liberal patronage. Wirth's reputation in this city as a restaurateur is unexcelled.

-A young man named Henry Carpenter, while driving on Tenth street Friday, ran over a little girl, and hurt her somewhat. He was fined $5.00 and costs at the Police Court Saturday, for fast driv-

-Patrick Rockbad paid $5 and costs at the police court Saturday for taking improper liberties with Henry Snyder's nose, which he pulled very violently. He was also complained of before Judge Peabody, for assaulting Snyder with intent to murder him. He has a great antipathy to Snyder's nose.

_J. W. Tousley, the enterprising President Sidney Dillon, of the U. vegstable man, on Saturday came P. -A young man named Joe Oppenheimer, having, as it is said, led astray an unsuspecting female, left Saturday on the early train for the East, whistling "The Girl I left behind me." He will probably hear from her by telegraph, as she wants some one to father a coming event. Oppenheimer left some explanatory letters, in which he no doubt attempts to east a reflection on some other man, who is married. Oppenhelmer will be remembered as being one of the politest beer jerkers on upper Farnham street.

-An inquest was held by Coroner Gish, over the remains of the son fo Capt. Ludlow, Friday evening. The witnesses examined were Capt. Ludlow, C. F. Redfield the drug clerk who put up the doctor's prescription, Dr. Anderson, who attended the child, and Dr. Benjamin. The jury could find nothing in the evidence from which they could attach any blame to any one. and accordingly returned a verdict that death was produced by causes unknown to the jury. The funeral took place Saturday at 2 p. m. from the residence 917, Eighteenth street.

-The Council Bluffs Globe of Thursday contains a copy of a letter from C. A. Dean, of Tiskiliwa. Ills., father of the young man who was killed recently at Spoon Lake, addressed to Palmer. He gives Palmer a most seathing rebuke for having refused his penniless and truant son a night's lodging, and for having, after he had met his death, charged $15 for allowing his remains to lie upon the floor of an unoccupied room. Had Palmer been a little charitable and furnished young Dean a place to sleep, he would have been alive to-day. Says Mr. Dean: "It seems humanity did not show itself in this case, and my dear son was turned away to seek other quarters, though and show cases for confectionery, in the dark of the night, and he a stranger in your city; and he went forth only to be brought back a corpse a few minutes after. "

-Haverly's minstrels gave splendid entertainment at the Academy of Music Saturday evening. eclipsing anything of the kind that has been performed in this city for a long time past. Canfield and Booker, song and dance men, are without equals on the minstrel stage. They are without doubt the champions in this specialty, and they are well worth seeing. The troupe is composed of a very gentlemanly set of men, and are everywhere appreciated on this account, and for the excellence they have attained in their profession. rant.

-Samuel Atkins, a machinist at the Union Pacific shops, had his hand cut off Saturday afternoon by having it caught in the machinery. He was taken to Drs. Peck & Moore's office to have his arm dressed. This is a very unfortunate accident for him, as he has also lost a leg. -Richard Courtney died Friday night at Mercy Hospital, after a brief illness, at the age of 21 years. He was an omnibus driver for Homan, and by those who knew him he was well liked. By his general courtesy and unassuming conduct he made many friends, who regret his death. His brother from Iowa attended him during his last moments, and will take his remains to Oskaloosa, Iowa.

beautiful, artistic, and costly soda fountain ever brought to this city. Mr. James K. Ish, the popular druggist, although having a fine soda fountain in his elegant drug hailing from Chicago, spent last store on Farnham street, determined some weeks ago to replace it with another-one that would eclipse in Lithographing Company of Chicaevery respect anything of the kind to be seen in this Western country. taining several orders for work from He accordingly gave an order to Jas. W. Tufts, of Boston, the well known soda-water apparatus manufacturer, to get him up such a fountain. The design selected was "The Statue." It arrived last week, and was put up and placed in running order on Wednesday, and since that time has been universally admired. The cost was $1800, exclusive of freight. This beautiful work of art merits an extended description, while at the same time the enterprise of Mr. Ish in investing so much money in it, in order to have a fountain that would be in unison with his handsome store, cannot be too much "The Statue" occupies a prominent position in the front part of the store, resting on a semi-circular marble-topped counter. The dimen-ions of the fountain are as follows: 3 feet 8 inches across the counter. by 3 feet 1 inch lengthwise the counter, and extreme height 5 feet inches. In its construction many beautiful varieties of marble are used, and it is elegantly set off with elaborate solid silver orna- o'clock p. m., Saturday, May 16th, ments. The four corners are beveled and adorned with plate glass of the buildings situate upon the mirrors, in front of each of which, following described premises, in the upon a pedestal of marble, stands a bronze statuette of unique and attractive design, representing a knight of the middle ages. Eight massive silver pillars, two at each corner, support the cap of marble, which is further ornamented by a canopy of marble at each upper corner, upon which rests a bronze statuette, supporting aloft gas jets, which adds greatly to the attractiveness of this "thing of beauty." The whole is surmounted with a highly finished and showy fountain of living water in a tented glass, upon which rests costly silver cap supporting another statuette. This water fountain Mr. Ish intends to have constantly operated by waterworks arranged especially for it. The novel and picturesque appearance of this elegant soda fountain, with its varied combination of marble, in contrast with its silver ornaments, cannot be fully at Peycke's Restaurant, m 16-2t. and justly described, but it must be seen to be appreciated, especially at evening, when lit up by the gas hue's Flower Stand, opposite postjets attached to it. It then forms a office. picture of beauty and brilliancy, which cannot fail to be lasting with the admiring observer.

From "The Statue" can be drawn Children's Kid shoes (not F. kid), soda of twenty different syrups; Peruvian beer;ginger ale and Viehy and Kissengen waters; and adjoining it is afountain for the drawing of Saratoga Excelsior Spring water, right fromthe barrel, for which Mr. Ish is the sole agent for the city. "The Statue" is not by any means too beautiful for this establishment, which is really the handsomest drug store in this city and the west. It is complete in all its appointments, and "the Statue" harmonizes in every respect with the elegant luxury that here prevails. We are sure that Mr. Ish will meet with the pecuniary reward to which he is certainly entitled for so lavish an expenditure in fitting up his store, which is an ornament to the city. STRAW HATS, STRAW HATS, The best in the world.

ALL ABOUT THE WATER WORKS

The central city of the West
Quite proud of late has grown,
And feels it can no longer wait
A good sized pond to own.
The greatest cities of the world
Who wish to cut a swell,

We read in the days of Noah That water wo ks were tried;
The trouble was they had no sewers,
And so the people died.
Let us then remember. Let us then remember
If water works we try,
To put in sewers good and strong,
And make our streets quite dry

And when the thing is done
We'll celebrate at once,
Then everybody in the town
Will be y their hats of Bunce.
For all new styles that 1 ow are out,
Some fifty kinds or more,
You'll find them cheap at Bunce's
Famous New York store. The Champion Hatter of the West, 250 Doug-
