ty. The acquaintance resulted on Sunday in a buggy ride about the city and into the country and back. During the trip, the smooth-tongued villain, for such he really was, made the girl believe that he was in quest of a wife; that he had fallen in love with her at first sight; and that she was just the person to suit him; in brief, he proposed marriage and was ac-

days ago, and was most warmly welcomed back by his many warm personal friends. Mr. Joe Bundy, clerk to Col. Tyrrel, United States paymaster in this department, has returned from Leavenworth to Omaha. Bundy is one of the most social and happy young gentlemen in the city, and his hosts of friends are very glad to see him back. Last evening a large number of them tendered him a reception and a supper at one of the leading restaurants. Speech-making and songs followed, and the wittiest effort was made by Bundy, who sandwiched his remarks with appreciable snatches from the popular airs of the day. "After the opera" the
