THE Chicago Tribune declares that railroad bonds were the cause of the late Arkansas Rebellion. The BEE would have ascribed it to women-for have not women been the prime cause of all the rebellions that mankind have been guilty of?

WE had almost forgotten to mention that Captain Lee, the president of the "Protectors of Industry," has made some discoveries about the "foul nest of this insect," which he proposes to expose. The columns of the BEE are always open to the sons of industry, and particularly to those who keep a saloon.

THE new bankrupt law which was almost the very first bill under consideration of the present Congress, has, until yesterday, been quietly slumbering within the musty precincts of the committee room. Its revival at this juncture seems, however, simply to enable the Senate to agree to a disagreement upon the amendments of the House. A conference committee is to be called for, but the probabilities are, that the bill will be smothered.

A somnambulistic Council Bluff reporter, rushed forth to interview Rochefort, at Spoon Lake station, during one of his enterprising fits, and he announces with becoming gravity that the famous Frenchman intends salling from New York for Sweden and Norway. That is the most reliable news we have seen in a Council Bluffs paper in three years. After seeing Spoon Lake, we are not surprised to learn that Rochefort wanted to visit the north pole, or any other God forsaken

THE Herald credits Rochefort with publishing a newspaper called Le Mort d' Ordre, (The Death of Order.) If our slightly be-muddled Franco-German contemporary had taken the pains to enquire about that paper he might have discovered that its name was Le Mot d' Ordre, (The Word of Order, or, what is still better, The Order Advocate.) If Rochefort ever catches up with the man that tried to make his paper out an order killer he will be slightly inclined to invite him to pistols and coffee for two.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, May 28.

A bill was passed to set apart in the Straits of Mackinaw, a certain portion of the island of Mackinaw, as a national park. At the expiration of the morning hour the Senate resumed the consideration of the contested election case, and Mr. Hamilton's resolution declaring Mr. Sykes as entitled to a seal; rejected, yeas 11, nays 33; and charged from further consideration Mr. Boreman called up the Senate bill to establish the territory of Pembina, and to provide a temporary government therefor.

the committee of elections was dis-

Mr. Sargent moved to amend the bill so that the right to vote should not be restricted on account of race or color, or sex. He said he believed the amendment was not only justified, but was required by the organic law of the United States. He argued at some length in favor of the amendment. Mr. Merriman, while yielding to no man, in respect and admira-tion for woman, did not believe his dignity nor happiness would be en-hanced by bestowing upon her the right of suffrage, nor did he believe any considerable portion of the women of this country desire it. Mr. Carpenter spoke in favor of the amendment, and said he would vote to establish women suffrage in Wisconsin, or in any other place he could, to-morrow. Mr. Ferry, of Michigan, favored the amend-ment. After further discussion, the amendment was rejected; yeas, 19;

nays, 27, as follows: Yeas-Anthony, Carpenter, Chandler, Conover, Ferry (Mich.), Flanagan, Gilbert, Henry, Mitchell, Morton, Patterson, Pratt, Sargent, Sprague, Stewart, Tipton, Washburn, West, and Windom.

Nays-Allison, Bayard, Boreman, Boutwell, Buckingham, Clayton Conkling, Cooper, Davis, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Hager, Hamilton, (Md.) Hitchcock, Jones, Kelly, Mc-Creary, Merrimen, Morrill, (Vt.) report. Norwood, Ramsey, Ranson, Salusbury, Scott, Sherman, Wadleigh, and Wright. Dorsey, Spencer and Long who would vote for the amendment were paired with Bogg, Johnston and Morrill, Me., against it. The bill was then rejected, 19 to 29. Mr. Stewart favored the amend-

Mr. Morton favored the amend-ment as containing fundamental principles of our government; with the declaration of independence declared, all men were created free and equal, and the word men did mean simply males, but the whole human family; he believed woman had the same national right to a voice in this government that man had, and to give them the right of suffrage would elevate suffrage in this country.

Mr. Flanagan declared himself a new convert to woman suffrage, made so by the glorious efforts of the women's crusade against intemperance; henceforth he intended to BOSTON, May 28. At to-day's session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars a resolu-tion was presented by Mr. O. L. Wood, of California, providing for a committee of three to draw up a petition to Congress praying for the enactment of a bill abolishing liquor traffic. Each person having charge of the petition to appear before a justice of the peace and make oath that the names contained in the petition are genuine signatures of the parties bearing them. Speeches were were made upon the subject by Messrs. Spencer of Ohio, Sterns of New York, J. Newton Pearce of Pennsylvania, Rev. G. R. Morris of New York, Rev. R. L. Purshion of Canada, Beverage of Scotland and Russell of Michigan, (natives of England), Mrs. Goff of Philadel-phia, and others. After the rejection of several amendments to the form of the petition it was unanimously adopted.
