SINCE George Francis Train

THE Lincoln papers are wrestling over the conundrum whether the pugnacious editors of the two evening Dailies should be classed among the red-necks or the blow-noises.

With some people, of whom Mr.

Rosewater is a representative, crime and labor are synonymous terms—

Union.

Some people always judge others by their own standard. If some of the thirteen oppressed editors of the Union, who have repeatedly been in the Douglas court jail, and before the police court for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, are a sample of the labor referred to, the Union is probably correct.

Colonel Chase's opportunity is at hand. The Georgian is coming.

Appoint Jim Stephenson "Marshal of the Day," and we shall have a dress parade worthy the best days of the Omaha Republic. Unless the programme should be so conducted as to be a violation of that sacred fire ordinance, we hope it will be immediately adopted, and carefully carried out.—Herald.

If the editor of the Herald could be persuaded to act as chief surfer of the day, the dress parade would remind us of those "better days." We are sure that would not infringe upon the sacred fire ordinance, and Jim Stephenson will not object to it either.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 4.

Mr. Scott of the committee on finance reported unfavorably on the report submitted by Mr. Davis, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement of the balance due from disbursing officers of the United States, names of delinquents, and that steps be taken for the recovery of the amounts due.

Mr. Scott gave as a reason for the report, that the Secretary of the Treasury stated it would require three to four months time to furnish the information, and cost $75,000.

The committee were discharged from further consideration of the resolution.

Mr. Cooper, from the committee on territories, reported favorably on the bill to disapprove of the act of the territorial legislature of Dakota,

May 23d, to provide for proceedings for the collection of the demand against boats and vessels.

Mr. Hamilton, of Maryland, offered a resolution, and Mr. Frelinghousen supported it through.

He believed it to be a great mistake to try and systemize the canals. He thought the true remedy would be found in railroads built by private enterprise, under national charters.

He favored, however, the construction of a canal at the mouth of the Mississippi river, and another across Florida, which would bring New Orleans six hundred miles nearer

New York.

Mr. Bayard opposed the resolution on the ground that Congress had no power to construct the canals of the present character, and that any such measure would be a violation of the constitution. He declared the measure contained the elements of centralization far in excess of anything heretofore proposed.

Mr. Gordon offered two amendments designed to pledge them to the government, did, to the construction of the proposed works instead of having the government itself carry them out; rejected.

Messrs. Harvy and Boyer favored the object of the resolution, but offered an amendment to strike out of the preamble the clause under government control; rejected; yeas,

14; nays, 36.

Mr. Tipton moved to strike out the entire preamble; rejected, yeas

16; nays, 28.

The House disagreeing to the Senate amendments to the Freed-men's Saving Bank bill, a committee of conference was ordered.

Probable Retirement of President Watson from the Erie Railroad.

Proposed New Telegraph Cables.

NEW YORK, June 4.

The annual spring races at Jerome

Park commenced yesterday, Saturday, and will last six days, ending Saturday the 20th. The stable at the park is well supplied, and the best stock of the country is represented.

The track is now in an excellent condition and fine contests are anticipated.

The announcement yesterday of the probable retirement of President Watson from the Erie railroad excites a good deal of attention in railway and financial circles, and the general impression prevails that the affairs of that road are reaching a crisis.

Watson declined making any statement on the subject. It is said by some persons, Eric men that Watson will positively retire on the 14th of July, when an election will be held. Who his successor will be is impossible to say. Among the names mentioned are those of Hugh J. Jewett, of the Pan Handle road; Colonel Tom Scott, Commo-dre Vanderbilt and S. W. Barlow.

The action of the English stockholders at the Erie meeting, and as yet it is not known what they will favor as Watson's successor.
