

THE OMAHA BEE

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1874.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Opening and Closing of Mails in Omaha.

Table with columns: ROUTE, DEPT., CLAS. and times for various mail routes.

TO ADVERTISERS—The circulation of the DAILY BEE is more than double that of any other daily paper published in Nebraska.

OMAHA BRIEVITIES.

The river rose two feet yesterday, and is still going up. This is probably the June rise.

W. T. Kelley, passenger conductor on the Union Pacific, has returned from Sioux City a married man.

Our short-haired Councilmanic friend, James Stephenson, drove his recherche outfit over to Council Bluffs, the other day, and received the following notice in the Globe:

Col. Noteware, State Superintendent of Immigration, has introduced a useful feature in his office, in the shape of a register of daily arrivals and departures at the Immigration office.

A city prisoner, named Russell, while at work yesterday afternoon near the Seventh street bridge, escaped from the officer in charge.

Nebraska Fish for the Pacific Coast. Mr. George P. Bemis will have ready for the California aquarium car, which will shortly pass through Omaha.

Open Air Concert. The following is the programme for the open air concert on Capitol Hill, this evening, by the Ninth Infantry band.

Another New Brick Building. Thomas Swift yesterday began the excavation for Simpson's new carriage factory near the southwest corner of Dodge and Fourteenth streets.

FOR SALE. At a bargain, one of Gale's celebrated Peanut roasters. Also one Long Tester. Enquire at Merritt's Restaurant.

PERSONAL.

Max Meyer has returned from a successful business trip to the West. D. B. Cady, the southwestern traveling agent of the Union Pacific, left for Denver yesterday.

Mr. Roberts, wife of Captain Roberts, returned from Chicago yesterday morning. Bishop Sharp, general Superintendent of the Utah Central and Southern railways, went west yesterday.

W. W. Prugh, the Denver agent of the Denver & Rio Grande narrow-gauge railway, went west yesterday morning. Warden Woodruff, of the State Penitentiary, was in the city yesterday, and stopped at the Metropolitan.

Mr. R. H. Thomas, of the General Freight office, will leave on Sunday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will spend a month's vacation. Aleck McCready has returned from the West, where he has been in business for the last few months.

The following are the arrivals at the Wyoming Hotel: N. J. Miller, Des Moines; I. N. Handy, New York; Dan'l Boylson, P. M. Boylson, and family, F. M. Tiffany, Chicago; C. H. Raine, Vancouver; H. D. Moody and wife, Auburn, N. Y.; A. Haight, Omaha; J. W. Barnes, Plattsmouth; Chas. Leonard and wife, Michigan; J. G. Oro, Chicago; J. H. Higham, Madison; C. F. Wetzel, H. C. Hunt, California; M. H. Sturman, Omaha; C. S. Morrow, Missouri Valley; Mrs. Norton, Iowa; Miss J. Selig, San Francisco; O. Hopkins, Cleveland; J. F. Randolph, Indiana; John Van Horn, Polk county; W. Tennant, Iowa.

The young men of Omaha are taking a great interest in the national game this season, and as the result Omaha can boast of two very good clubs, the Milos and the Stars.

The game between the Stars and the Milos has been postponed indefinitely. The Stars will practice this evening at 6 o'clock on Jefferson Square.

This afternoon at five o'clock, the Stars will play a practice game against a picked nine, on the Union Grounds, at the end of the street railway.

To-day the Quicksteps of Council Bluffs will play the Resolutes of Omaha the second match game of a series of three, the Quicksteps having won the first one. The game will be played in this city. The Quicksteps are coming over in a hand-wagon about 10 o'clock in the morning.

DOUGLAS COUNTY DISTRICT COURT. Hon. G. B. Lake, Judge. OMAHA, June 5. The trial of the case of Kimball vs. City of Omaha, was resumed, and after occupying most of the day, at the conclusion of the testimony on the part of the plaintiff, a non suit was granted and the jury discharged.

Full off a Bridge. Thursday night, near Iowa City, on the Chicago & Rock Island railway, a man fell off Yankee Robinson's circus train, while it was crossing a bridge, and was very badly bruised, although no bones broken.

Open Air Concert. The following is the programme for the open air concert on Capitol Hill, this evening, by the Ninth Infantry band, as kindly furnished for publication by Lieutenant Hay, adjutant of the Post:

On Monday, June 1st, between 11th and Chicago and 10th and Mason streets, a small basket containing children's clothing, pillow slips, and a pocket-book filled with tax-receipts, and other papers. The finder will please leave at the BEE office and be rewarded.

BRAN AT LITTLE & WILLIAMS', 261 Douglas street, and 541 14th street. June 5-3t. PILES and piles of summer hats for infants, children and men at BUNCE'S. We called on Bunce this morning and found him busy as a BEE, surrounded on all sides with new goods—over 75 new styles of straw hats. If BUNCE can't suit you, go bare-headed.

UNION PACIFIC MATTERS.

The Western Terminus—The Proposed Rolling Mill—No More Men to be Discharged at the Shops in this City.

In conversation with General Superintendent Clark, of the Union Pacific, a BEE reporter learned many facts of interest to the public. While Omaha, the initial point, has had her troubles concerning the terminus at the east end of the road, the western terminus of the line, which has up to the present time been at Ogden, in Utah, has never been permanently settled.

Warden Woodruff, of the State Penitentiary, was in the city yesterday, and stopped at the Metropolitan. Mr. R. H. Thomas, of the General Freight office, will leave on Sunday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will spend a month's vacation.
