Intense Excitement at Salt Lake City.

United States Troops Batter Down the Jail and Rescue a Soldier Arrested by the Mormon Authorities.

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee.

SALT LAKE, June 11.

A soldier was arrested yesterday by the police authorities for assaulting ex-Judge McCury on the street.

Early this morning, Col. Morrow, acting under recent orders of the war department, sent a squad to demand his release.

The squad was met by a party of about twenty men, who were armed with revolvers and shot-guns.

The soldiers fired, and the party fled in confusion.

The soldiers then entered the jail and rescued a soldier who had been arrested by the Mormon authorities.

The rescued soldier was taken to the military hospital.

The Mormon authorities are reported to be very angry at the rescue.

They are said to be plotting to take revenge on the soldiers.

The military authorities are also reported to be very angry at the rescue.

At Jamaica Chas. Warren was struck and two horses valued at $1,000 each, were killed.

The lightning also struck several other houses, but so far as is at present known there has been no loss of human life.

WASHINGTON, June 11.

Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, appeared before the senate yesterday to answer to charges relating to an alleged scandal connected with his early life.

He invited an explanation of the charges preferred against him. The committee then privately considered the matter, and, as a result of full deliberation, unanimously came to the conclusion that there was not sufficient basis for any charge to justify any further investigation, and the committee reported to the senate accordingly.

GALVESTON, TEX., June 11.

The news has a special dispatch from Rockport, Texas, which says it has been ascertained that the murderer of Mr. Swift and his wife were two Mexicans. They were traced to a Mexican rancho on Benavente creek, twelve or fifteen miles from Galveston.

They were taken to the house on the morning of the 10th and attempted to take to flight, but one of them, Dan Jones, was killed in the attempt and the other, who was named as a reward, was shot in the face. Mr. Swift was butchered in a similar manner except that he was not shot.

A CONVENTION of delegates from the Cotton Exchanges of the United States, called by the New Orleans Cotton Exchange to meet in August, June 10th, convened yesterday at the hall of the Augusta Exchange.

Representatives from all principal centres of the cotton trade in this country were present. W. F. Herling, of Augusta, was chosen temporary president; and Roswell King, of Augusta, temporary secretary.

After the report of the committee on credentials, Mr. Wheeler, of Nashville, nominated Jno. Phelps of New Orleans as president, who was unanimously elected. The Times publishes a dispatch from Berlin, which gives the probable action of Congress, which will assemble at Brussels next month to consider the subject of international rights during war. The Times correspondent says Congress will codify the recognition of refugees of international laws in so far as they affect the actual conduct of war. A new code is to be enacted for reform of the international treaty, which promises to become first law common to the whole civilized world.

The draft of the treaty which is to be submitted to Congress, has been prepared. It contains seventy-six clauses, which state in detail, the rights of belligerents from mutual claims of belligerent States, down to the relations of those States to private individuals. They also specify what classes of arms shall be legitimately used in war, and make regulations for the treatment of prisoners.
