

When you desire any contributions whatever of a literary or political character; and you will not undertake to preserve, or to return to you, in any case whatever. Our staff is sufficiently large to more than supply our limited space in this direction.

REMARKS OF WRITERS. It is fair, and it is just, that every contributor should be held to the same standard of excellence as that which we hold for our own staff.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS. We will always be pleased to hear from our correspondents connected with crops, country politics, and on any subject whatever of general interest to the people of our State.

AN APPOINTMENT OF CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE. A letter may be sent by mail or otherwise, and whether by notice or communication, and whether in person, or by mail, or by messenger, or by any other means, and will be charged as advertisements.

NOTICE. On and after October twenty-first, 1872, the circulation of the DAILY BEE is assumed by Mr. Edwin Davis, to whose order all subscriptions not paid in advance will be payable.

BIGHAM'S Omaha champion is consistent in nothing except his intense devotion to Bonapartism and Enchiasm.

CAPTAIN JACK and Louis Napoleon are mouldering in their graves, but their Omaha organ is still fighting their battles with uncompromising vigor.

OUR rural contemporaries are beginning to do some mouth opening on the impending political crisis. The first response to the open challenge of Brigadier General Welch, comes from a rural Republican newspaper, way down in Seaward county.

M. PAUL DE CASSAGNAC, the editorial bully of the Bonapartists, has published an open challenge to the Republican members of the French Assembly to prove the quality of their political convictions with the duelling pistol or rapier.

THE rule of Bonapartism in France has ever been the rule of tyrannical brute force. In its day of glory it gloried in the cowardly assassination of that promising young journalist, Victor Noir, by Fiers Bonaparte; and to-day it would glory in the assassination of Gambetta, Thiers, and other Republican leaders, who seek to prevent the re-establishment of the empire.

A Wisconsin minister has been dismissed from an orthodox pulpit because he built a fire under a balky horse. "Haddam, Conn., is not afraid of the measles," says the World; and that's Haddam's poor joke, as well as an old one.

The hoodlums of Salem, Oregon, have stolen the loss of the Chinese. There is walling and gnashing of teeth among the pig-tail fraternity. A sacrilegious Episcopal organ in Philadelphia has adapted the "Mandolin" and "Shoo Fly" to the Gloria Patri. The effect is highly devotional.

A Texas railroad superintendent refused to give a hardshell preacher a pass. The preacher lustily remarked that he was nothing but a poor worm of the dust, and the superintendent replied that railroads never passed worms.

"Whisky-swiller," "blasphemer," "drunkard," "atheist," "tool of the whisky-ring," "infidel," "bummer," "Sabbath breaker,"—these are the gentle titles bestowed by a Columbus clergyman upon the unhappy editor of the State Journal.

The Rev. J. Jaskenitz, a Polish preacher in Winona, has sued thirty-two of his hearers for perjury. They refused to pay because he called them empty heads in his pulpit, and they claim the truth should not be spoken at all times.

Sheikh Hussein El Faoury, a Damascus dervish of holy descent, has been discovered to be the leader of a band of robbers who have plundered Damascus residences for many years. He has always been called a saintly man, and the belief was only dispelled when a great amount of plunder was found in his house concealed in the sepulcher of one of his ancestors.

A C. M. stocker having heard some of the creationists speculating in regard to the many shapes which the ashes of the dead might be preserved, became much interested when he heard them say that by very simple means they might be converted into glass and preserved in the form of a flower vase or any similar article. Hearing this, he suddenly started up, and striking his fist upon the table before him, he made the glasses bow, and cried: "By the great horned Beelzebub, I'll have my mother-in-law made into a larger beer mug!"

Second. It is understood that J. F. Tracy, president of the Rock Island road, is a large holder of Chicago & Northwestern stock. He was, until last year, president of both roads. He was superseded by Mr. Albert Keop, of Buffalo, through the Lake Shore influence of the late Horace F. Clark, whose death has, however, prevented the
