BMAHA BREVITIES.

-Wednesday is the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill. -The funeral of Mrs. Hertzman took place yesterday afternoon. -On Wednesday the Odd Fellows will pic-nie at Bellevue. A grand programme has been arranged, and a pleasant time is expected. -The services at the jail Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hammond, were listened to with deep attention by the pris--McMasters, the immigrant, who had two horses and a colt stolen from him while camping on the Papillion, has recovered the animals much to his joy, but the thief escaped greatly to his regret.

-Yesterday Jailor Anderson arrested Sherman Thurston on a capias from the United States Court. He is wanted to answer to an indictment for selling liquor without cursionists, who went to California feel an active interest in the welsometime ago for their health, re- fare and happiness of these afflicted turned Sunday, occupying two children, whose progress in study is special coaches. They went east slow and difficult, and in the success over the Chicago & Rock Island railway.

-The hose-cart horse of Engine Company No. 2, taken sick Sunday day, died yesterday at noon. This horse was a valuable animal, and had been an honored and faithful member of the fire department for nearly three years.

-The Bremond & Norton min- Of Linen Suits, also single coats, strels, on Friday and Saturday evenings, gave splendid entertainments at the Academy of Music, and it was the general remark that the troupe was the best that has ever visited this city. They left for the Pacific coast yesterday morning.

-Tobias Claus, the fellow who burglarized Em. Davis' house, was bound over Saturday afternoon by Judge Wilbur in the sum of $250 for his appearance at the District Court. He pleaded guilty to the charge of grand larceny. -The medical ranks of Omaha have been reinforced by the arrival here of Dr. Parker, of St. Louis, who will open an office at Ish's Ninth street drug store. He is a brother in-law of Mr. Charles Guiou, of this city, and is a physician of several years successful practice. -The Warm Spring Indians took a drive about town yesterday in Clark's band wagon, advertising themselves by singing their war songs, and shouting their "war whoop," all of which reminded us of the "Chinese Tea Kettle Serenade." They created considerable amusement, and caused some little excitement. After their wind gave out they hired a brass band to blow for them, which proved not half so good an advertising scheme as their own music.

-John Noble, as we learn from a yesterday's paper, was unable to start for Yankton on that day. But the paper aforesaid announced in the most positive terms that he would leave yesterday morning at -The concert at Thiele's summer garden Sunday afternoon was the best that was ever given at that pleasant resort. The City Band was assisted by six members of the Bremond & Norton minstrel orchestra, all of whom are excellent musicians, several of them having for years been connected with Theodore Thomas' orchestra.

-James Cantwell, of Plum Creek. has purchased of Mr. M. J. McKelligon, the billiard hall known as "Bertschy's." He has within the past few days re-fitted it in elegant style, and supplied the bar with a stock of choice liquors and cigars. Mr. Cantwell intends to keep a highly respectable place, and not to have any gambling room connected with it. He will re-open the place to-day.

-Mr. James M.McVittie, the grocer, who has been absent from the city for several weeks for his health, has returned, and is now attending to his business himself. He has replenished his stock of groceries, and is now supplied with everything that family can desire in this line, everything being new and fresh. He also keeps on hand a full line of fruits, eigars and confectionery, and deals at wholesale in clarified cider. His stores are at 135 and 186 Farn-

-The Emmett Monument Association has made arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July, in grand style, by a pionic at Bellevue. The programme will consist of Kansas City, St. Jo. & Council Bluffs dancing, hurling, swinging, foot races, and horse races. The forenoon horse race will be for a purse and a silver cup, open to all, and the one in the afternoon will be for a saddle. Refreshments will be supplied in abundant variety on the grounds. A splendid time may be expected. The train will leave Omaha at 9 a. m. Round trip tickets, $1.00; children,

> 50 cents. -Notwithstanding the threatening cloudy weather of Saturday afternoon, the Unitarian pic-nic took place at Redick's grove. The ladies were largely in the majority, there being but three or four gentlemen present at first. After awhile, however, some recruits were enlisted from the city by the efforts of Rev. | City last week, Mr. Putnam and one or two other the principal amusement. As there tended were rewarded with a double dose of ice cream and other refreshments. The pic-nic continued till 7 o'clock in the evening.

Personal. Sam. Jones came in from hi plantation Saturday evening, and remained in town over Sunday. J. W. Getty and wife left Sun day for New York, where they will reside for the next year. J. N. H. Patrick and family left for the east yesterday afternoon by the Burlington route. C. C. Post, traveling agent for the Pennsylvania Central railway, went west yesterday morning.

CONGREGATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.

Dr. McKay and the Warm Spring Indians attend the Exercises.

Or. McKay makes an Interesting Address.

The Congregational Church was well filled Sunday evening with a large audience, the occasion being the regular quarterly concert of the Sunday school of the church, and while it has been our pleasure to attend many of these interesting and entertaining concerts, we cheerfully admit that this was the best of all. We have come to expect grand concerts from this school and have never yet been disappointed therein. The exercises opened with singing by the school, and prayer by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Sherrill. Following this came a very interesting exercise by the infant class, entitled, "God is love." The little ones spoke their pieces nicely. Little Minnie Chase gave a delightful recitation, the beauty and brevity of it harmonizing well with the speaker. Eddie Wilbur, five or six years o age, son of Judge Wilbur, sang a pleasant but rather difficult piece for one so young with much credit to himself. So well pleased were the audience that in spite of time and place, applause, hearty and spontaneous, followed Master Wilbur's

Miss Claire Rustin, one of Omaha's favorites, rendered a fine poem in a very faultless manner, and again applause followed.

The class exercises were very fine particularly so was the one given by the class of Mrs. J. H. Kellem. 'Tis somewhat against the statement that the young men of Omaha are worse than those of other cities, to see 20 young men-representing nearly all the different trades and occupations of life-in a Sunday school class, under such an instructress as we saw in the class of Mrs. Kellom.

Other exercises were given; a fine recitation by Miss Julia Knight; also a fine declamation by Abbie Taft; diversified with music by the school at different intervals.

Mr. Samuel Burns, of the Methodist Sunday School, gave a very interesting synopsis of the proceedings and results of the State Sunday School Convention held at & ebraska

He was followed by Dr. W. C. McKay, who was present with entire party of aborigines.7 He had were so few present, those who at- been prevailed upon to speak by the officers of the Sunday School, and he proceeded to give a short comprehensive statement of his people, from whence they came, their condition, and other interesting facts. The Warm Spring tribe, he said, was located in eastern Oregon-one of the divisions of the State-about 250 miles from the mouth of Columbia river. The people are industrious, maintain themselves by the sale of furs and cattle, and find ample food in the delicious salmon of the Columbia. His people have a good church building, with a Sunday School of over 200 pupils, three members of which were among the ones accompanying him East. He touched upon the feeling of hostility entertained against the government, and placed the responsibility of it-not upon the government, not upon the Indians, but upon unprincipled agents for the gove-ment, who being the direct representatives of the government, agents in Oregon, who are chris-and being dishonest and under toward the red men, they could not but feel aggrieved and injured. He paid a passing tribute to three of the tian men and who by their individual power are christianizing the Indians. He showed the progress of the Indians in the past ten years, demonstrating that by judicious treatment, honesty and fairness in dealing with them, that they could be civilized and christianized.

Dr. McKay is an agreeable speaker, and evidently is at home before an audience. This feature of the evening was perhaps the most novel and profitable of any, to the

Mr. Sherrill followed with the closing address, confined to a statement of the status of the Nebraska Sunday Schools, showing that the Sunday School Conventions of Nebrasks are better conducted, and give more practical results, than those of any other of the States. The inevitable collection followed. and the concert closed with a song from the school, and the benediction of the pastor.

POLICE COURT.

Annie Morrisey on her Muscle -Mrs. Kelley Charged with Keepingila Disorderly house,-A Drunken Loafer Ordered to Leave town.

Anne Morrisey, an inmate Madame Kelley's establishment, wound up her muscle Sunday afternoon with a plentiful supply of exhilarating benzine, and getting into a quarrel with another girl, she raised a loud old row, and pounded the girl pretty severely. The noise of the fight and the loud-mouthed and foul language used by the pugilistic Morrisey, caused considerable excitement in the immediate neighborhood. The police upon being called, came and took the belligerent female to the lock-up. sterday she paid a $5.00 fine at the Police Court, and taking her collar-box from Mrs. Kelly's house, she moved out to another portion of the city.

The Shooting Tournament.

The grand shooting tournament, gotten up under the auspices of the Qmaha Sportsmen's Club, to come off on Thursday and Friday of this week, at the Driving Park, promises to be a very interesting affair, and the prospects are that it will be largely attended, not only by our own citizens, but by the best shots from all parts of the States. Capt. A. H. Bogardus, the champion shot of America, has written several letters to Secretary Hughes, stating that he will positively arrive here on Wednesday. He is anxious to visit Omaha, as he has never been
