SENATE. WASHINGTON, June 22.

The tariff bill was taken up. The amendment proposed by the finance committee that the set should take effect from the 30th of June, 1874, was agreed to. Also an amendment fixing the duty on still wines imported in casts, at 40 cents per gallon.

After a discussion, the amendment fixing the duty on hops at 10 cents per hundred, the present rate, was agreed to. The following were also agreed to: fixing the duty on still wines im-ported in bottles, at $1.60 per dozen; striking out the provision allowing two per cent. for leakage in liquor casks, and five per cent. in bottles; fixing the tax on vermiceli, etc., at two cents per pound.

The post route bill was laid aside and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the conference report on the post office appropriation bill, which was presented by Mr. West. He expressed regret at the postage on newspapers, and said he thought it very unwise legislation when Congress was looking aroun for every source of revenue. He had no quarrel with newspapers; they had alwaystreated him kindly. His whole effort was to have a uniform rate of postage to provide revenue for the country.
