The Circus To-Day.

To-day Montgomery Queen's great circus, menagerie and hippodrome will give three exhibitions in this city, the first at 10 A. M.; the second at 1 P. M., and the third at 8 P. M. This institution is one of the best in the country, and the performances will be witnessed by immense audiences to-day. The Chicago Tribune of a recent date speaks of this circus as follows:

Notwithstanding theseverestorm of last evening, the opening entertainment given by Queen's magnificent circus was attended by a large and highly pleased audience. The performance was one of the best that has been presented to a Chicago publie in many a year. The new tent, cages, and the vast paraphernalia of the concern were sparkling with new paint, gilt, etc., and showed off to gooe advantage. As before stated, the animals are all in the finest con dition, their sleek coats and fat sides presented a pleasant and vaappearance. Mr. Queen has certainly done credit to himself in the refitting of his show, and has won the thanks of the amusementgoing public. Among the more noticeable features of the circus is to be mentioned the wonderful performance of Miss Mollie Brown, the bareback rider, a child only fourteen years of age, who turns a somersault on a bare-back horse, she being, it is claimed, the only lady in America that has ever attempted and accomplished this feat, Mr. Frank Barry—hurdle rider who is a very daring and graceful performer, and has the bearing which can only be had by long years of practice. Leopold and Geraldine, in their mid-air exploits on the trapeze, exthe warmest applause. Billy Burke and Nat Austin, the two clowns, are decidedly funny, their jokes and witticisms being new and free from vulgarity. In fact, the whole company acted their parts in the most approved style. Taking the show as a whole, it is one of the very best that has ever appeared in Chicago. The circus is strictly first-class in all its appointments, and will undoubtedly be patronized freely during its short stav in our city. LADIES WILL FIND A FULL Line of Furnishing Goods at MAENNERCHOR PIC-NIC. The Omaha Maennerchor has made arrangements for a grand Pie-nie, to take place on the 4th of July, which must necessarily prove a success, and afford a pleasant time to all who attend. The fire department and Turner Association Made up in the of this city have been cordially invited and promise their aid to insure AT GREATLY REDUCED FIGURES! a complete success.
