Mr. Sherman, clerk of the church, thought the significance of the letter published by Tilton had been greatly over-estimated by the com-munity. On another member expressing himself in favor of action in the matter Mr. Beecher said he supposed they would be in a better condition to determine what ought to be done a week hence. He saw no necessity for immediate action. Sherman said he thought all that was necessary was to show that the letter published by Tilton as coming from Beecher, purporting to be a virtual confession of some wrong done by Beecher to Tilton, was
