OMAHA BREVITIES.

-An informal meeting of the Merchant's Club, was held last evening, to do the honors to Mr. E. D. Webster.

-The Trinity picnic, at Hanscoms Park, Wednesday, was a very enjoyable affair, and only marred by the storm towards evening.

-Frank Butney, a soldier, was arrested yesterday morning for being drunk, and was fined $1 and costs, in default of which he was sent to

-No one appeared against the colored boy Wm. Brown, charged with stealing a watch, and he was discharged yesterday afternoon.

-The meeting of the Sunday School Union adjourned Wednesday night, on account of the weather. There was a meeting last evening, however.

-An electric phenomanan was observed during the storm Wednesday night. The lightning ran along the telegraph wire, and rung the fire slarm bell.

-The Milo base ball club met last night. The members rejoice in the acquisition to their nine of Joseph and Orsen Stephenson, two of the finest players in the

-The largest colored funeral ever witnessed in our city took place yesterday, on the burial of Mrs. Lewis, a widely known and respected lady. The funeral train consisted of 25 carriages.

-The female barber establishment just started in our town, will die for want of patronage. It is generally understood how women comb hair. This is by far a too flagrant plece of barber-ism for the present etage of civilization.

-A sleepy looking individual accosted us on the street yesterday and complained that the dogs in his neighborhood had disturbed his slumbers for six months. He desires the authorities to shoot them

-A very agreeable gathering was held Wednesday night at Rev. Stewart's, in spite of the inclement weather, on the occasion of the birthday of

Mrs. Stewart. A handsome birthday gift of $50 was presented by the com-Enquire of pany, besides several other presents -An old beggar woman called at Charlie Whipple's Wednesday, and presented a paper for his perusal. The paper affirmed that she, the bearer, was dumb and in indigent circumstances, and any donation would be thankfully received. Charlie asked her what she wanted. She signified that a silver napkin ring, a gold watch, or any such trifie would be very acceptable. Upon his cruelly refusing the demand, she suddenly recovered her speech, and broke out in a most abusive tirade. Charles could only silence her by proposing—that is to say by in place of the above articles.

shade yesterday. -Wednesday night's storm was not a circumstance to the dusty hurricane yesterday afternoon. -The Round House at the Missouri Valley junction, was blown down Wednesday night.

-That piano tuner, Voss, has been trying his put up jobs again. He appeared at Mr. Copeland's, Mr. Vischer's and Mr. Morrow's. His usual enquiry is, "How is your piano now?" He is thought to be either a thief or a fool. In either case confinement is his proper meed. -Lewis Johnson was Wednesday night united to Carrie Johnson, by Judge Peabody. The father of the bridegroom was named John Johnson, and the maiden name of the bridegroom's mother was Lois Johnon. The father of the bride was named George Johnson, and the maiden name of her mother was Ellen Johnson. The ancestry is traced back so far that we are convinced that the name of the first man was Adam Johnson. We forgot to add that the name of the witness to the ceremony was Anna Johnson. -The following is the general committee of arrangements of the Omaha Fire Department on the annual review and parade to take place in September:

Only two of the bids complied with the demands of the ordinance in regard to securities. President Gibson thought the issues of too great importance to let so trifling an irregularity in the bids stand in the way of their consideration. Alderman Stephenson moved that the contract be let to Hans Johnson, for removing dirt on 10th and rity by Friday noon. At this juncture Alderman Campbell delivered an able disquisition on the state of the city finances. showing that the tax of ten mills was inadequate to the establishing of permanent improvements, and should only be used for its intended purpose, viz; keeping permanent improvements in repairs; that if it was necessary these improvements should be made, let bonds be issued, Mr. Campbell quoted from the city charter, and demonstrated his statements by means of figures. He also reflected upon the management of last year's council, which was taken up by President Gibson and other injured members of last year's administration. The utility of the street railway was attacked and defended by the truism that whatever permanent improvement was made, it would enhance the value of property and eventually reimburse any outlay. The motion was finally put and carried without division. The grading of Fifteenth street and St. Mary's Avenue was awarded to A J Hanscom, by a vote of 9

THE COMING STRUGGLE.

From out our heroes' graves
Forbids a nation drenched in patriots' bl
Should sink to that of slaves;
The motto which our coins once bore,
Though obsolete long since,
Remain as ever true: not one cent for trib
But millions for defense.

Party ties and party laws
Are but as ropes of sand.
The sights of man to be a man
Should govern Freedom's land.
Then shall our Flag more proudly float
O'er land as well as sea,
And nations yet unborn shall gladly greet
The emblem of the free.

As man should deal with man,
And while we seek to live ourselves,
We'll sell as cheap as anybody can,
And if a hat you need,
Or friend you chance to meet,
Remember Bunce, the Hatter,
